ANGLO-PERSIAN OIL COMPANY.

SITUATION IN PERSIA.

A brief chronology of events is as follows.

On the 27th November 1932 the Persian Government notified the Company of the annulment of the Company's Concession.

On the 28th November the Company replied that they could not recognise the right claimed by the Persian Government to cancel the Concession either in Law or in equity and requested the Persian Government to withdraw the cancellation.

On the 1st December the Persian Government replied to the Company declining to withdraw the cancellation.

The full text of these letters is given in the Company's announcement dated 6th December 1932 addressed to the Stockholders of the Company.

On the 2nd December the British Government addressed a note to the Persian Government which was delivered to the Persian Government on the same date by the British Minister in Tehran.

On the 3rd December the Persian Government replied to this note in a note which was received by the British Government on the 5th December.

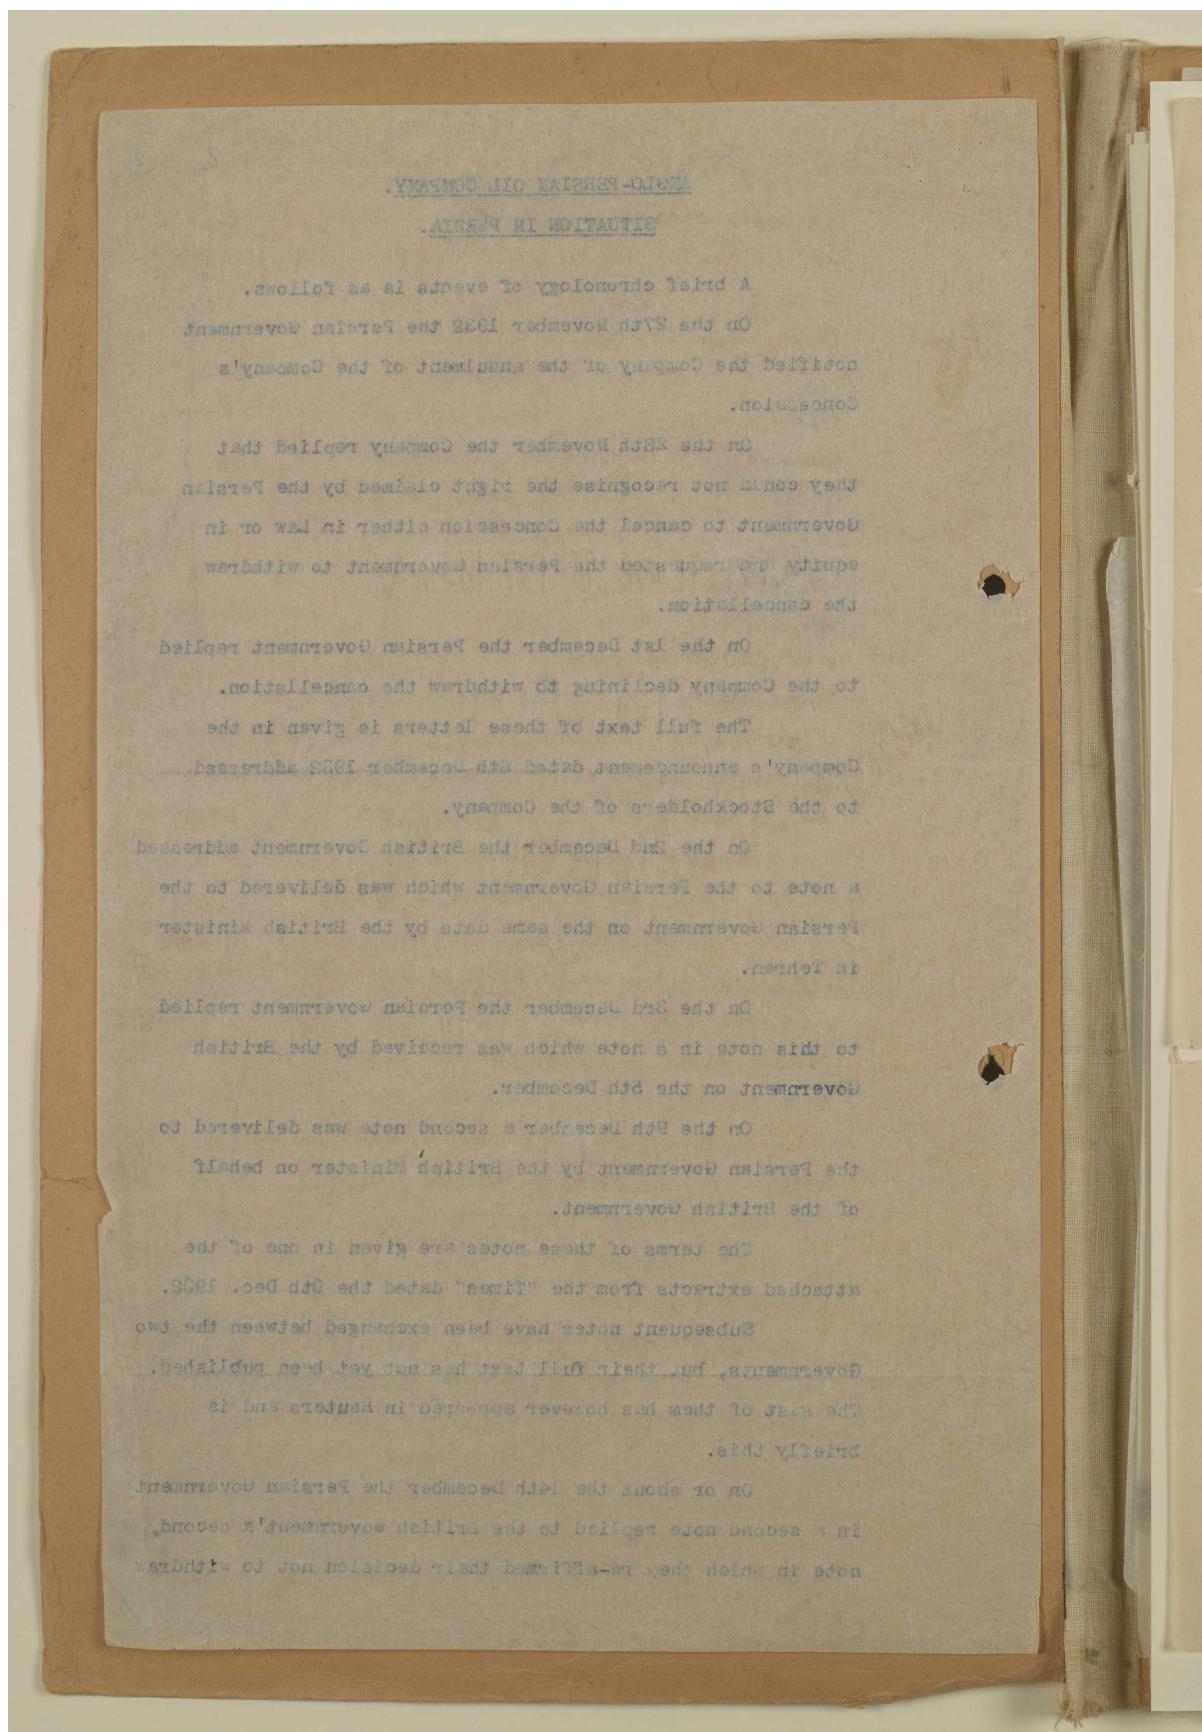

On the 9th December a second note was delivered to the Persian Government by the British Minister on behalf of the British Government.

The terms of these notes are given in one of the attached extracts from the "Times" dated the 9th Dec. 1932.

Subsequent notes have been exchanged between the two Governments, but their full text has not yet been published. The gist of them has however appeared in Reuters and is briefly this.

On or about the 14th December the Persian Government in a second note replied to the British Government's second note in which they re-affirmed their decision not to withdraw the cancellation of the Concession and stated that they did not consider the International Court at the Hague competent to examine the dispute. They declared their right to appeal to the League of Nations.

On or about the same date the British Government replied agreeing that the dispute between the two Governments should be referred to the Council of the League of Nations instead of to the International Court at the Hague.

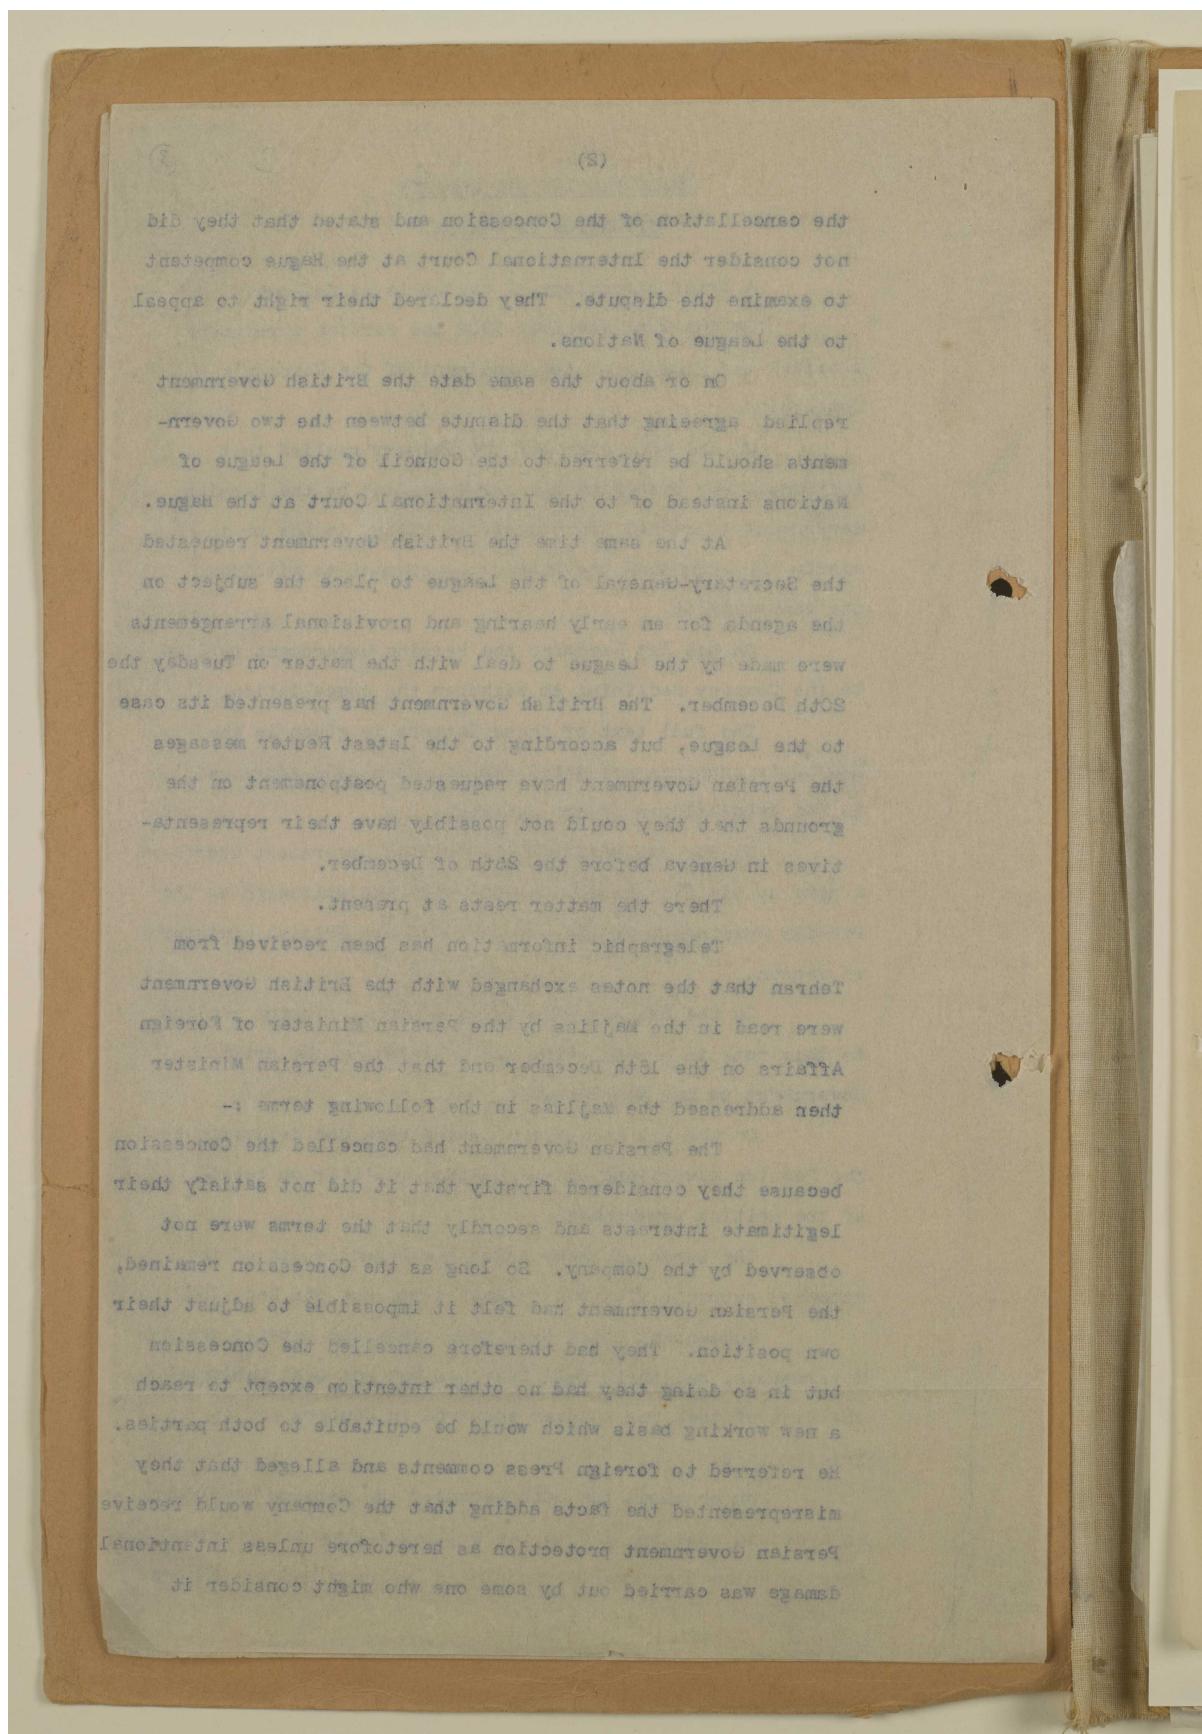

At the same time the British Government requested the Secretary-General of the League to place the subject on the agenda for an early hearing and provisional arrangements were made by the League to deal with the matter on Tuesday the 20th December. The British Government has presented its case to the League, but according to the latest Reuter messages the Persian Government have requested postponement on the grounds that they could not possibly have their representatives in Geneva before the 25th of December.

There the matter rests at present.

Telegraphic information has been received from Tehran that the notes exchanged with the British Government were read in the Majliss by the Persian Minister of Foreign Affairs on the 15th December and that the Persian Minister then addressed the Majliss in the following terms :-

The Persian Government had cancelled the Concession because they considered firstly that it did not satisfy their legitimate interests and secondly that the terms were not observed by the Company. So long as the Concession remained, the Persian Government had felt it impossible to adjust their own position. They had therefore cancelled the Concession but in so doing they had no other intention except to reach a new working basis which would be equitable to both parties. He referred to foreign Press comments and alleged that they misrepresented the facts adding that the Company would receive Persian Government protection as heretofore unless intentional damage was carried out by some one who might consider it advantageous in the present situation to take such an action.

He said that the Company must receive an equitable share in return for the capital invested and that Persia also must receive an equitable share as owners of the property.

In conclusion he stated that the Persian Government bore no ill-feeling towards the British Government nor enmity against the Company nor animosity towards foreigners and that the Persian Government would seek every means to obtain their own rights.

29th Novr. 1932

Tehran. Persian Govt. officially notified Anglo-Persian Oil Co. of annulment of Darcy concession but were willing to consider fresh terms. Concession was granted for 60 years in 1901.

6th Decr. 1932

Action of Persian Government in cancelling Anglo-Persian Oil Company's concession on November twentyseventh was subject of several questions in Parliament. Undersecretary for Foreign Affairs Anthony Eden replying said British Government was fully aware of all circumstances including fact that concession was definitely granted for period of sixty years from 1901 and contains no provision for cancellation. On December second British Minister Tehran under instructions made strongest representations to Persian Government emphasising very serious view held by British Government and adding that while they still hoped matter might be amicably settled British Government would not hesitate in case of need to take all legitimate measures to protect their just and indisputable interests. Persian Government were at same time informed that British Government will not tolerate any damage to Company's interests or interference with their premises or business activities in Persia.

7th Decr. 1932

British Govt. have now received Persian reply to recent note protesting against cancellation of Anglo-Persian Oil Concession.

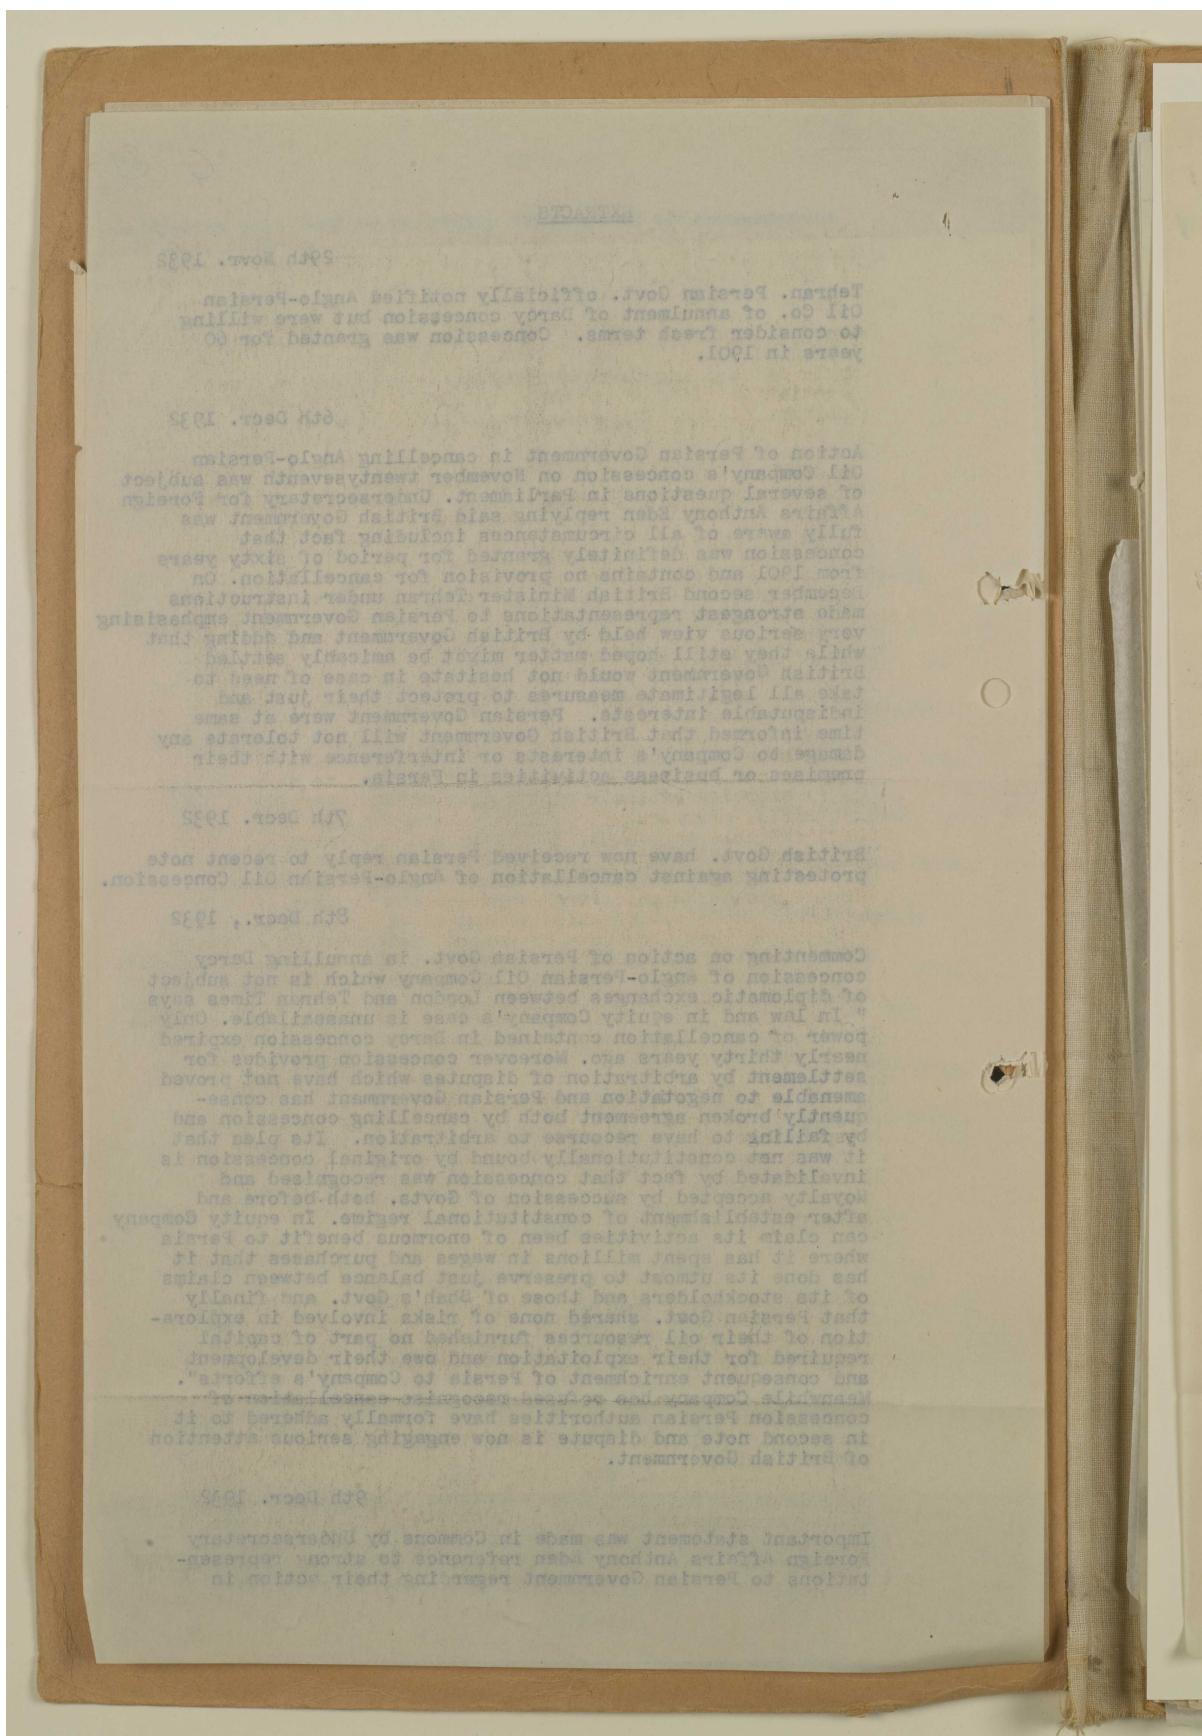

8th Decr., 1932

Commenting on action of Persian Govt. in annulling Darcy concession of Anglo-Persian Oil Company which is not subject of diplomatic exchanges between London and Tehran Times says "In law and in equity Company's case is unassailable. Only power of cancellation contained in Darcy concession expired nearly thirty years ago. Moreover concession provides for settlement by arbitration of disputes which have not proved amenable to negotiation and Persian Government has consequently broken agreement both by cancelling concession and by failing to have recourse to arbitration. Its plea that it was not constitutionally bound by original concession is invalidated by fact that concession was recognised and Royalty accepted by succession of Govts. both before and after establishment of constitutional regime. In equity Company can claim its activities been of enormous benefit to Persia where it has spent millions in wages and purchases that it has done its utmost to preserve just balance between claims of its stockholders and those of Shah's Govt. and finally that Persian Govt. shared none of risks involved in exploration of their oil resources furnished no part of capital required for their exploitation and owe their development and consequent enrichment of Persia to Company's efforts". Meanwhile Company has refused recognise cancellation of concession Persian authorities have formally adhered to it in second note and dispute is now engaging serious attention of British Government.

9th Decr. 1932

Important statement was made in Commons by Undersecretary Foreign Affairs Anthony Eden reference to strong representations to Persian Government regarding their action in cancelling Anglo-Persian Oil Company concession. Eden read text of note handed Persian foreign minister second December by British Minister Tehran which described Persian Governments action as inadmissible breach of terms of concession stated British government took most serious view of Persian Governments conduct and demanded immediate withdrawal of notification issued to Company. Hope was expressed that Persian Govt. would be at pains to reach amicable settlement in direct negotiation with Company but British Government would not hesitate if necessity arose to take all legitimate measures to protect their just and indisputable interests. Note added British Government would not tolerate any damage to Company's interests or interference with their premises or business interests in Persia. Persian Governments reply dated third December maintained Persian government was within its rights in cancelling concession, failed to agree to withdraw notification of cancellation, stated Persian Government had not refused direct discussions with Company with view to negotiating new concession and declared Persian Government did not regard itself as responsible for any damage accruing to Company. As British Government regarded this reply as wholly unsatisfactory British Minister Tehran under their instructions today delivered further note text of which was also read to House. Note stated British Government were unable to admit validity of unilateral cancellation of concession. Such cancellation was confiscatory measure and clear breach of international law committed against British company and British Government felt obliged to take matters up in exercise of their rights to protect interests of their nationals. From outset British Government had been anxious that amicable settlement should be reached between Persian Government and Company but could not regard Persian reply as offering any satisfactory basis for such settlement. Note proceeds "Should Persian government be unwilling to withdraw their notification of cancellation of concession within one week from date of present note that is thursday 15th December His Majesty's government will have no alternative to referring dispute which has arisen between them and Persian Government in regard to legality of Persian governments action to permanent court of international justice at Hague as matter of urgency under optional clause. In so doing His Majesty's government would request court to indicate under article fortyone of statute provisional measures which ought to be taken to preserve their rights." Note concludes "His Majesty's government will hold Persian government directly responsible for any damage to Company's interests any interference with their premises or business activities in Persian or any failure to afford Company adequate protection and in event of any such damage occurring His Majesty's government may demand for Company's protection."

12th Decr. 1932

Further particulars regarding Anglo-Persian Oil Company's D'Arcy concession were given in response to Commons question by undersecretary foreign affairs Anthony Eden. He said concession was granted by Persian Government for sixty years from May 1901 and contained no provision which would now allow cancellation by either side. Only power of cancellation in concession was provision that if within two years concession-tee should not have formed first company to operate it concession should become null and void. That clause never came into operation since first exploitation Company was duly formed within prescribed period. Concession provided for annual payment to Persian Government of sixteen percent of annual nett profits of any companies formed to operate concession. Total sum paid to Persian Government in Royalties up to 31st December 1931 amounted to £1,265,000. Present

Tehran. Replying British Govts note Persian Government not withdrawing cancellation of Anglo-Persian Oil Company's concession and does not consider Court of International Justice competent to examine dispute and declares right appeal League of Nations view pressure British Government.

Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs Anthony Eden stated in Commons that in view of intimation contained in reply of Persian Government that they contemplated appeal to Council of League of Nations which would entitle Persian Government to require suspension of any proceedings instituted before permanent court of International Justice British Govt. had decided not to pursue their demand for reference of case to permanent court but instead to refer matter to Council of League under article 15 of covenant. Telegram accordingly been despatched to Secretary General of League submitting matter to Council. Geneva message states subject been placed on Agenda of present session of Council to be dealt with next week.

15th Decr., 1932

Foreign Secretary Sir John Simon left Geneva last night and arrived London by air this morning. Date of his return to Geneva not yet fixed. League Council on whose agenda Anglo-Persian dispute has been placed at instigation of British Government will it is expected meet on Tuesday to deal with case.

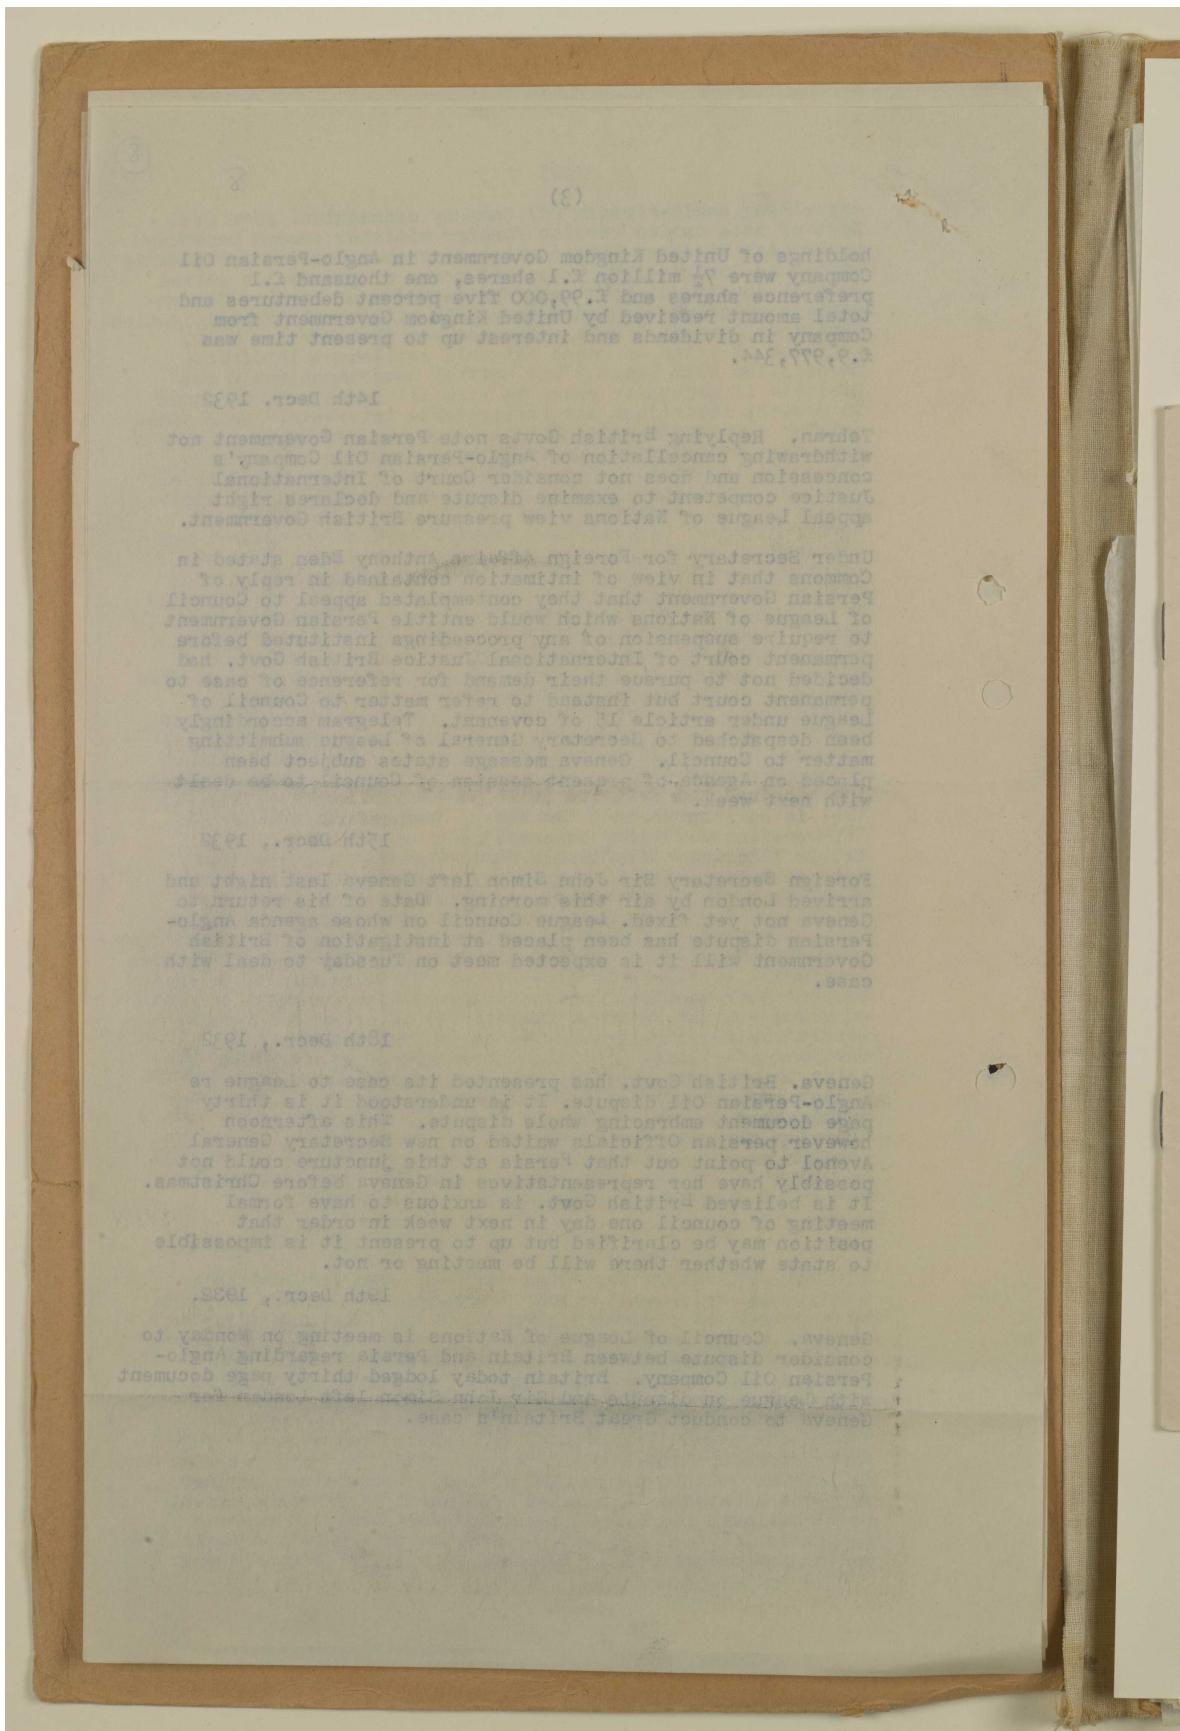

18th Decr., 1932

Geneva. British Govt. has presented its case to League re Anglo-Persian Oil dispute. It is understood it is thirty page document embracing whole dispute. This afternoon however persian Officials waited on new Secretary General Avenol to point out that Persia at this juncture could not possibly have her representatives in Geneva before Christmas. It is believed British Govt. is anxious to have formal meeting of council one day in next week in order that position may be clarified but up to present it is impossible to state whether there will be meeting or not.

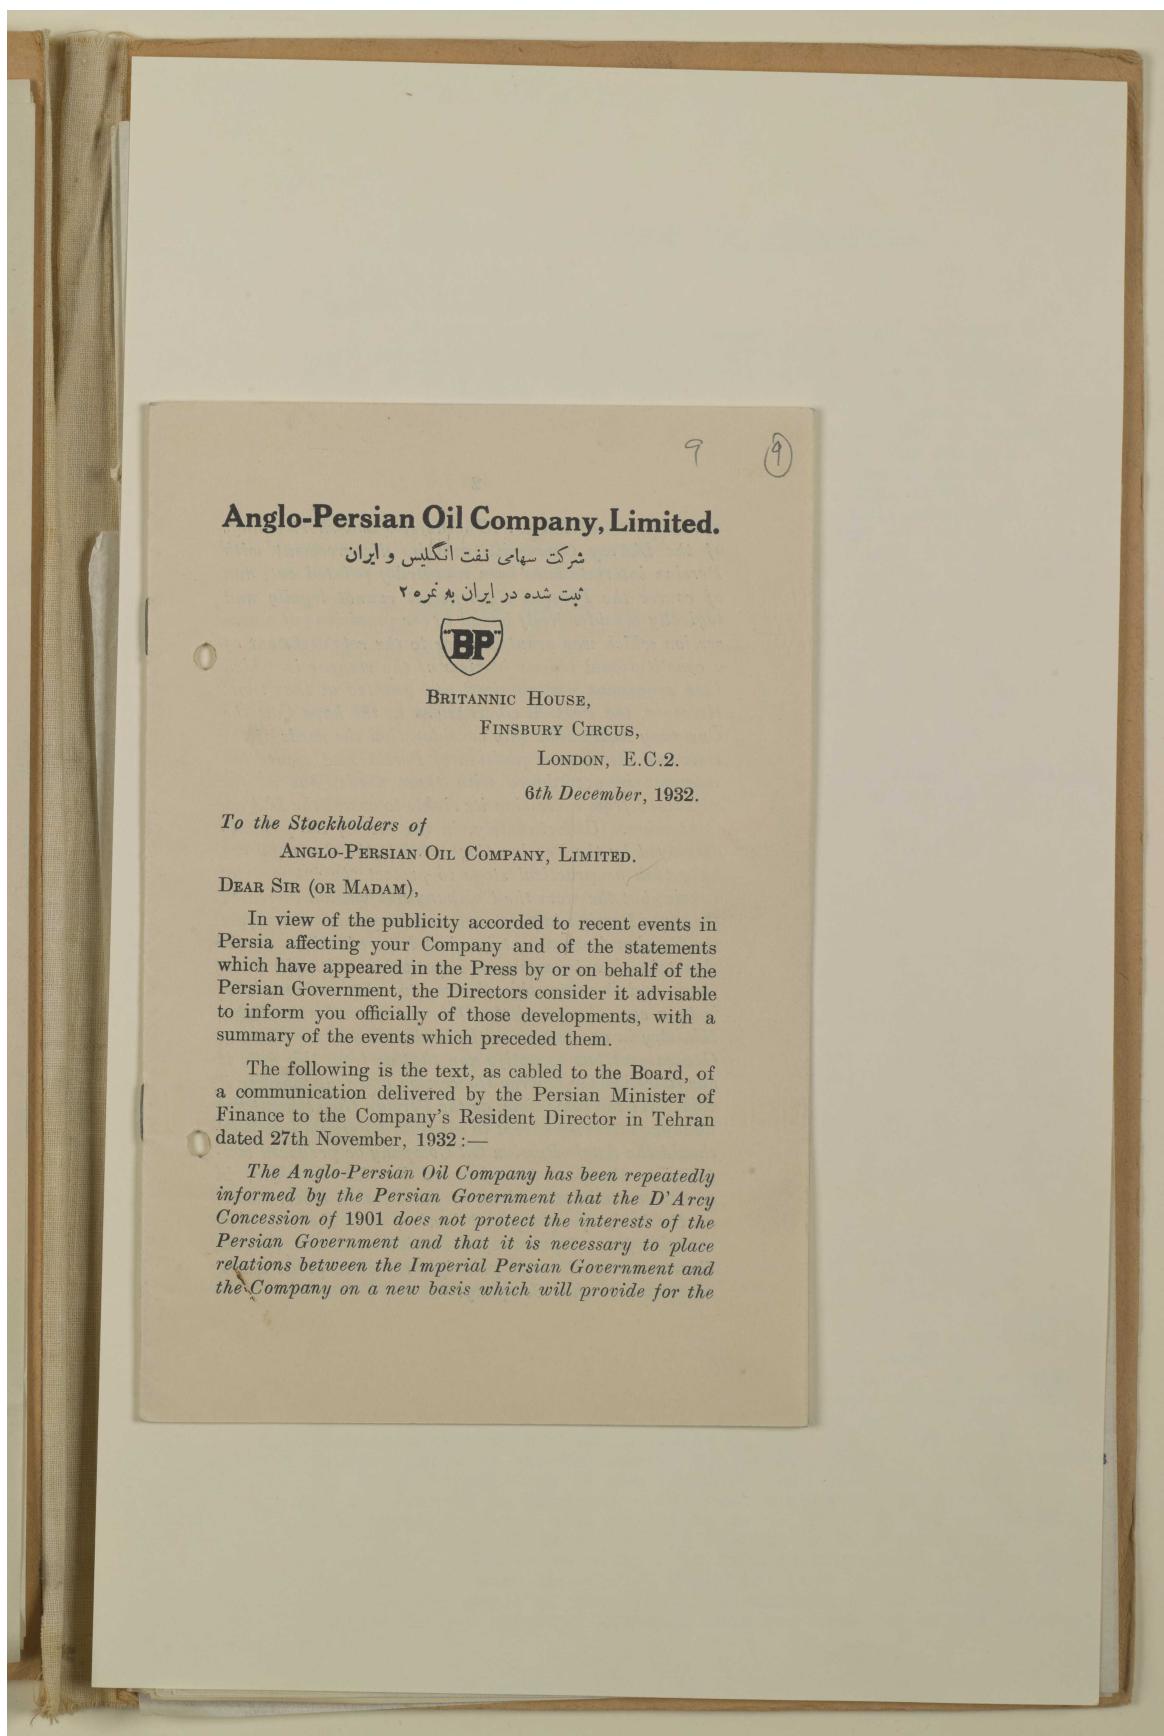

19th Decr., 1932.

Geneva. Council of League of Nations is meeting on Monday to consider dispute between Britain and Persia regarding Anglo-Persian Oil Company. Britain today lodged thirty page document with League on dispute and Sir John Simon left London for Geneva to conduct Great Britain's case.

equity and justice. The Company takes the strongest exception to the statements in Your Excellency's letter that the Company has failed to take into consideration the needs of the time and the present position of the Persian Government. The Company has at all times shown itself willing by friendly negotiations to endeavour to meet the views and the needs of the Persian Government, and so far as accord has not been reached the failure has certainly not been due to any want of effort or goodwill on the part of the Company. The Company must point out that the publication of the Government's announcement in the Press will have most damaging repercussions on the Company's business, and the Directors venture to hope that on further consideration the Government will immediately withdraw this announcement.

On the 1st December a cable was received from the Resident Director in Tehran stating that a reply in the following sense had been received to the Company's communication from the Minister of Finance:—

In reply to your letter of 29th November I deem it necessary to state that the Persian Government does not admit the statements and reasons as mentioned in the said letter and considers itself entitled with sufficient reasons to cancel the D'Arcy Concession and that it remains its final decision which has been communicated under this Ministry's letter of 27th November.

It will be observed that the Persian Government does not suggest in the above communications that the Company has failed to carry out the terms of the D'Arcy Concession, but that it bases its claim to cancel the Concession by one-sided action on the ground that in the view of the Persian Government the Concession is no longer fair to it. The Persian Government further alleges that the Company has taken no practical steps to protect the interests of Persia. Even if this statement were well-founded, it would not justify the action of the Persian Government in cancelling the Concession as the Concession contains no clause entitling the Persian Government to cancel it in any such event, and, moreover, does not impose upon the Company any obligation such as that suggested by the Persian Government.

"ملف 2/39 (B/8 1) تأثير إلغاء الحكومة الفارسية لامتياز شركة النفط
الأنجلو-فارسية على سوق النفط في البحرين" [١١ و ٢١] (٨٠)

In order that you may form your own conclusion as to the correctness of the Persian Government's contentions, the following information is furnished:—

The D'Arcy Concession was granted to the late Mr. D'Arcy in the year 1901 in due proper and legal form by the then Persian Government, the Concession being signed and sealed by His Imperial Majesty the Shah of Persia and by his Prime Minister, and counter-sealed by the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Minister of Mines, the signature of His Imperial Majesty being certified by the British Vice-Consul at Tehran.

As is well known, Mr. D'Arcy and his associates spent some seven years prospecting the territory covered by the Concession and expended thereon some hundreds of thousands of pounds before the existence of oil in commercial quantities was proved. It was only by virtue of his persistence and energy and the capital that he provided, or persuaded other persons to provide, that the oil resources of the Persian Empire were eventually proved. The Persian Government was not asked to take, and, in fact, did not take any part of the risk involved and has at no time furnished any part of the capital required.

The Anglo-Persian Oil Co., Ltd., was formed in the year 1909 to acquire the D'Arcy Concession, and has since been recognised throughout by all successive Persian Governments as the owner of this Concession.

The Concession provided that there was to be paid to the Persian Government annually a sum equal to 16 per cent. of the annual net profits of any Company or Companies that might be formed in accordance with the terms of the Concession to operate the same. This constituted the royalty reserved by the Concession.

The only power of cancellation contained in the Concession was a provision that if within two years from the date of the Concession the Concessionnaire should not have established the first Company to operate the Concession, the Concession should become null and void. That clause never came into operation, by reason of the formation of the First Exploitation Company in 1903, and, apart from that clause, there is no provision in the Concession entitling the Persian Government to cancel it.

The D'Arcy Concession did not attempt to define the basis on which the annual net profits of any Company or Companies formed to exploit the Concession were to be arrived at in calculating the Persian Government royalty. It is obvious that the phrase "net profits" is open to various interpretations, and when, after some 15 years' work on the Concession, profits were first derived from the Concession, questions soon arose between the Company and the Persian Government as to the manner in which the "net profits" on which the

The Directors made these arrangements in face of advice received from eminent lawyers in this country that some of the claims of the Persian Government could not be substantiated in law, but the Directors considered it desirable to act in a liberal spirit in an endeavour to foster amicable relations with the Persian Government.

From 1920 till about 1928 the arrangements provided in the 1920 Agreement substantially served the purposes for which they were designed, and the royalties payable by the Company to the Persian Government in accordance with the D'Arcy Concession, as interpreted by the 1920 Agreement, were checked each year on behalf of the Persian Government by eminent chartered accountants in this country. Some differences of interpretation again arose, but most of them were from time to time adjusted between the accountants of the two parties, and the royalties were accepted by the Persian Government without prejudice to those differences which had not proved susceptible of adjustment by the accountants.

In the year 1928, further discussions took place at the instance of a representative of the Persian Government with the object of effecting a revision of the D'Arcy Concession. These discussions eventually culminated at the beginning of the year 1929 in a visit to Tehran by Sir John Cadman, the Chairman of the Company, accompanied by other Directors and officials of the Company and by the Company's legal and accountancy advisers. The negotiations in Tehran extended over a period of some two months.

Although agreement was reached on most of the points which were under discussion between the Persian Government and the Company, there were certain points on which final agreement proved to be impossible, the main question being the nature and extent of the increased participation which the Persian Government desired to receive. The Directors were of opinion that they could not in fairness to the stockholders accept the views put forward by the Persian Government on this point and eventually these discussions ended in the spring of 1930.

"ملف 2/39 (B/8 1) تأثير إلغاء الحكومة الفارسية لامتياز شركة النفط
الأنجلو-فارسية على سوق النفط في البحرين" [١٣ و ٢٥/٨٠]

In 1931 negotiations were again opened for a revision not of the whole of the D'Arcy Concession, but of the basis upon which the "net profits" of the Company were to be ascertained for the purpose of calculating the royalty payable to the Persian Government.

The Persian Government was dissatisfied with the working of the 1920 Agreement, and its representative went so far as to contend that that Agreement was not binding upon the Government, although it had been signed by their fully authorised representative and had been acted upon for some eight years without its validity being questioned. The Directors pointed out to the Persian Government representative that it was not possible for them to enter into new negotiations on the basis that the 1920 Agreement was not binding, but eventually the parties agreed to discuss the matter without prejudice to the contentions of either party on this point to see whether a new basis could be arrived at which would be satisfactory to both parties.

Early in 1932 a preliminary Agreement was arrived at between His Highness Teymourtache, Minister of Court, on behalf of the Persian Government, and Sir John Cadman, the Chairman of the Company, setting out certain principles which had been agreed between them on this subject as the result of prolonged negotiations. This preliminary royalty agreement was approved by the Council of Ministers in Tehran in February, 1932.

It was understood by both parties that this document was to be submitted to their respective lawyers and accountants, who would discuss and draw up a more formal agreement defining the manner in which the royalty payment to the Persian Government was to be calculated in the future, in order to avoid, if possible, further differences of opinion between the parties on this point. The formulation of so detailed an agreement, in conformity with principles already agreed, and its correct rendering in the French language which was to "prevail," was a task involving a considerable expenditure of time.

The lawyers and accountants, as the result of some months' work, eventually produced a formal draft royalty agreement which, subject to certain modifications—mainly in favour of the Persian Government and included at the request of its representatives—gave effect in their opinion to the general principles which had been agreed between the Persian Government's Representative and the Chairman of the Company. This draft was initialled in London on behalf of the Company and by the Persian Government Representative, on the advice of their lawyers and accountants, and was transmitted to Tehran, where it arrived on the 29th May, 1932, for formal ratification by the Persian Government, which has not yet been accorded.

It will be seen, therefore, that the Directors cannot be accused of having failed to treat seriously the views of the Persian Government, discussions initiated in the draft royalty agreement received on 29th May needed further interpretation and editing in more comprehensible language, and proposed that a legal representative of the Company should proceed as soon as possible to Tehran. This was followed by a further request on the 8th June asking the Company to send authorised representatives together with experts to Tehran in order to explain the draft and to re-edit it.

To this the Company replied that the new draft had been prepared by the legal and accountancy experts on both sides on the basis of the preliminary draft royalty agreement, and that almost all of the alterations made had been made at the request of the Persian Government's advisers, that the Chairman and Directors were overwhelmed with important problems and that neither the legal nor the chief accountancy advisers of the Company could leave for Persia, and therefore suggested that the Persian Government should send its representatives to London for a full explanation, since in London the legal and accountancy advisers of both parties were available as well as all the necessary data. The Company added that it would assist them to know which clauses were not understood. To this request no reply was received. Meanwhile the Resident Director in Tehran took steps to have the French text of the agreement re-edited by the legal adviser of the Company in Tehran for the assistance of the Persian Government.

On the 29th June the Persian Government refused to accept the royalty for 1931 payable to it under the terms of the agreements as they then existed, and on the 7th July the Company learnt from Tehran that the draft royalty agreement was still under examination, but that tentative proposals to the Company on an entirely different basis were under consideration.

The Chairman of the Company, while in Tehran in 1929, in the course of the negotiations which then took place, warned the Persian Government's representatives that he foresaw that conditions in the oil industry might change for the worse, but at that time the Persian Government's representatives were unwilling to visualise the possibility of the profits of the Company being reduced, and therewith the Persian Government's royalties.

The heavy fall in profits in 1931 suffered by the Company in common with all other large oil undertakings, of which the Persian Government's representatives had in 1931 and in 1932 been forewarned, was certainly most unfortunate, but it did not affect adversely the Persian Government alone, nor does it afford any justification for the claim of the Persian Government that it has the right to cancel the concession on the faith of which so much money and work has been expended.

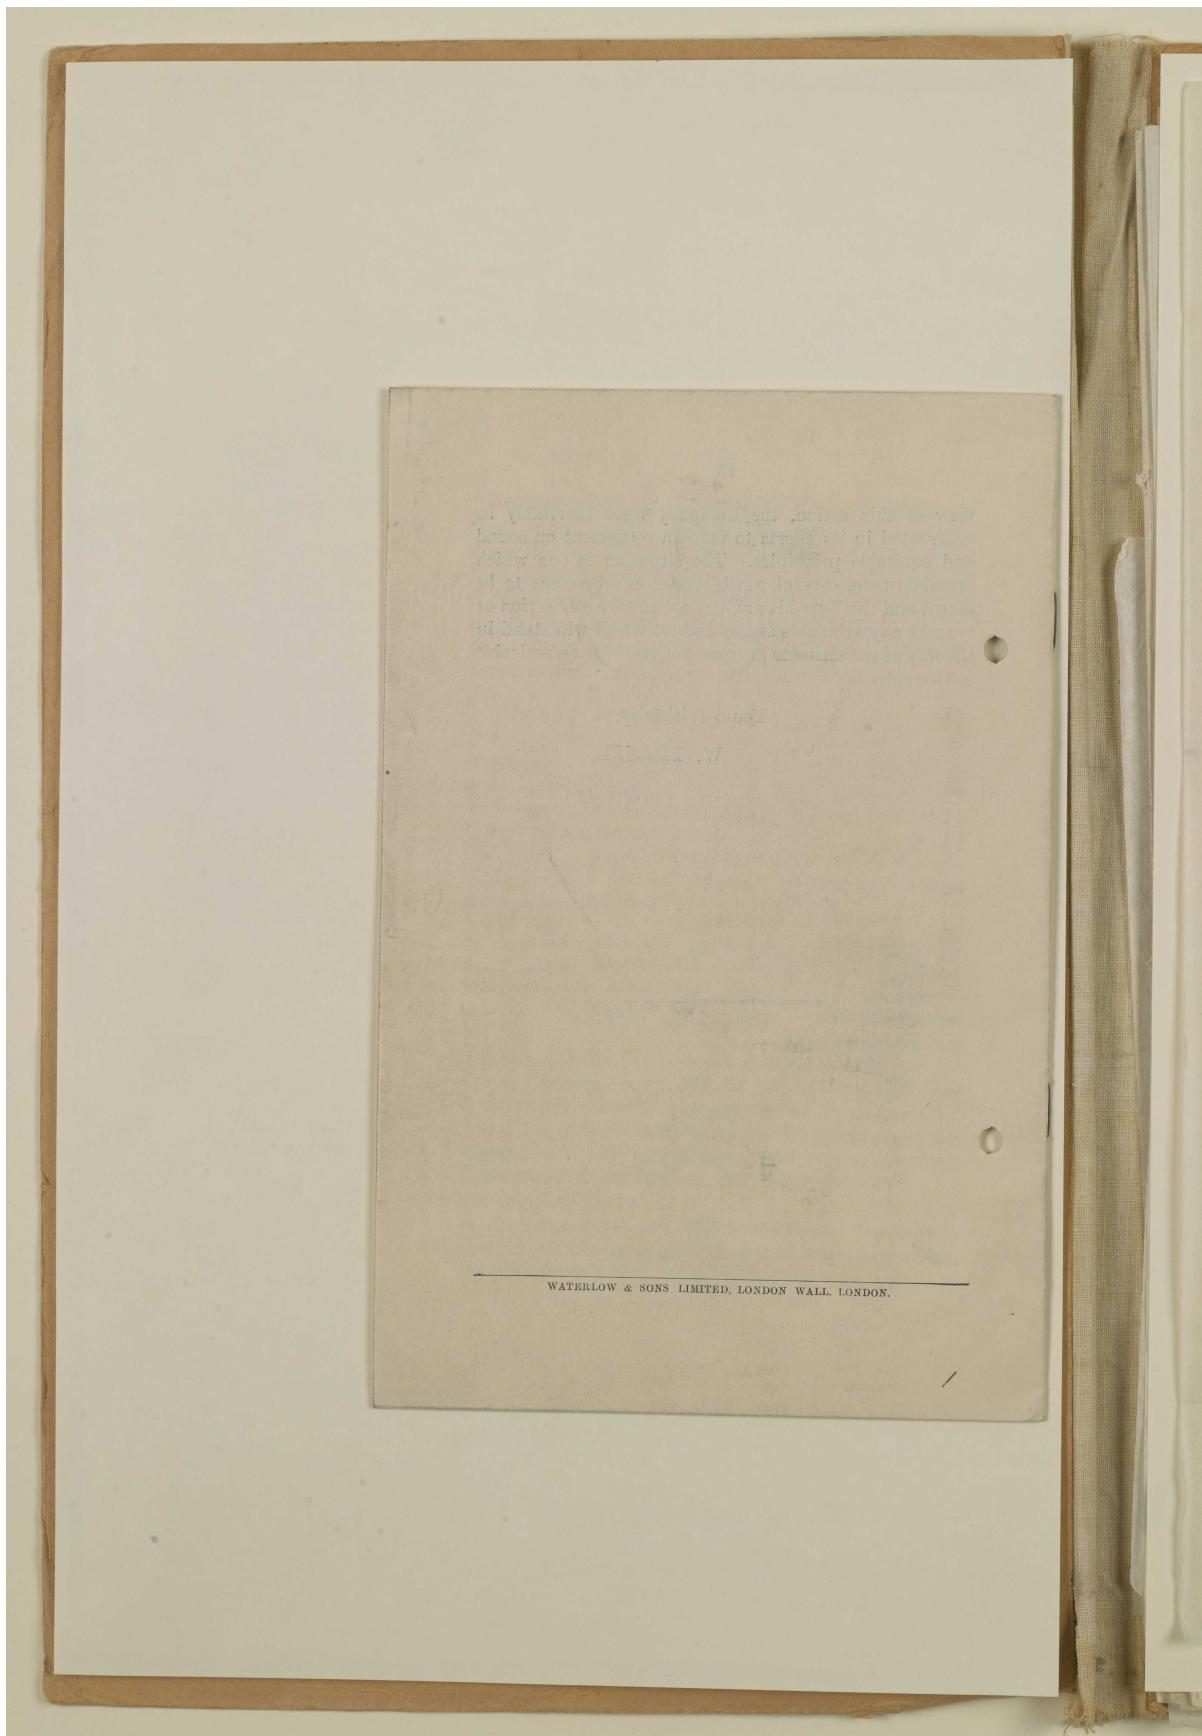

It cannot be too strongly emphasised that the Board is and always has been desirous of settling all questions that arise between the Company and the Persian Government in a fair and friendly manner and in the broadest possible spirit consistent with its duty to endeavour to preserve a fair and just equilibrium between the interests of the Persian Government and of the Stockholders of the Company, and it is believed that the information which has been given above would satisfy any impartial person that the suggestions made by the Persian Government to the contrary have no foundation.

The Board do not wish to minimise the serious character of the action taken by the Persian Government, nor the grave nature of the difficulties with which, in

ANGLO-PERSIAN OIL.

THE ROYALTIES DISPUTE.

COMPANY'S EFFORTS FOR SETTLEMENT.

The Persian Government's reply to the British Government's protest against the annulment of the Anglo-Persian Oil Company's D'Arcy Concession was delivered on Monday. It is understood to maintain that the Persian Government was fully justified in the annulment.

In a communication to its stockholders (printed in full on page 9) the Anglo-Persian Oil Company gives the text of correspondence between itself and the Persian Government about the annulment of the Concession; recounts attempts it has made on different occasions since 1920 to settle questions outstanding between the Persian Government and itself by negotiation; and expresses its determination "to take no action which will stand in the way of the ultimate prospects of reaching an amicable settlement".

Recalling the early history of the Concession, the Company points out that Mr. D'Arcy and his associates spent some seven years in prospecting, at heavy cost, before the existence of oil in commercial quantities was proved, and that the Persian Government took no part of the risk involved and at no time provided any of the capital.

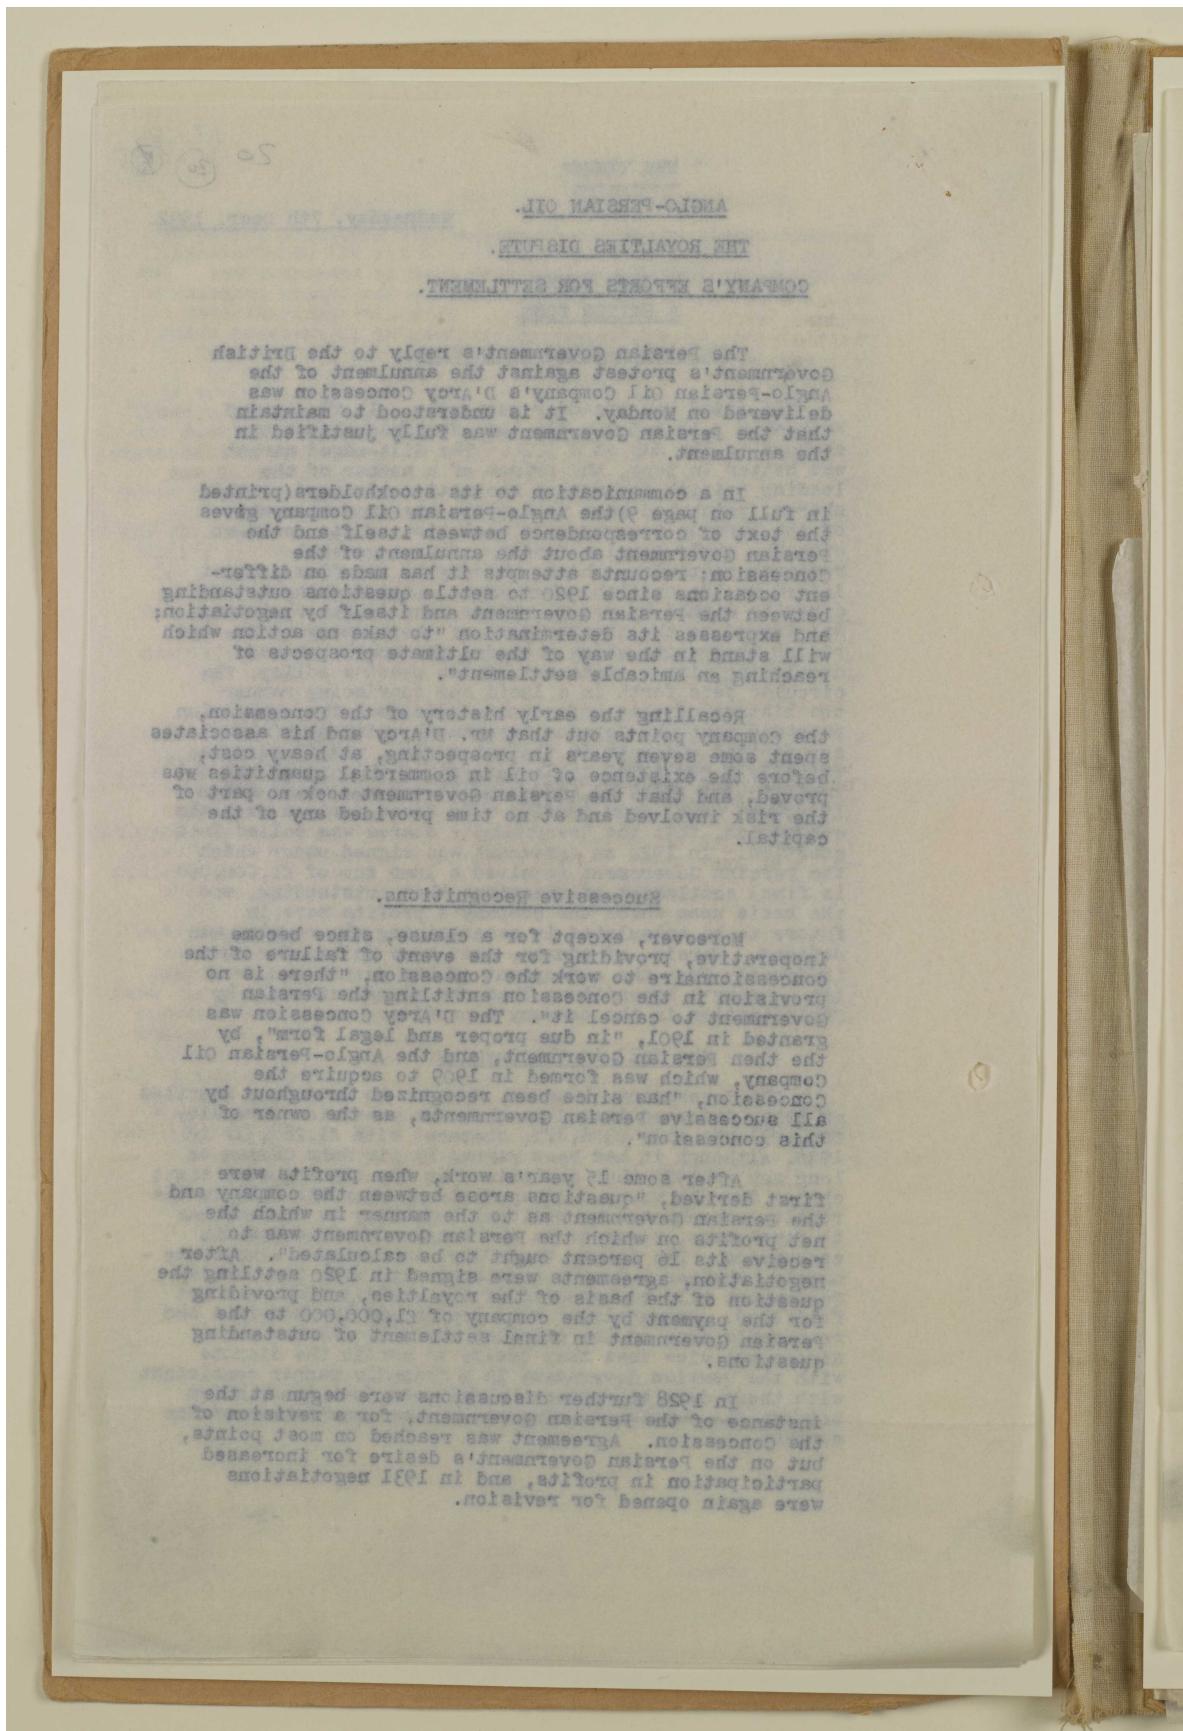

Successive Recognitions.

Moreover, except for a clause, since become inoperative, providing for the event of failure of the concessionnaire to work the Concession, "there is no provision in the Concession entitling the Persian Government to cancel it". The D'Arcy Concession was granted in 1901, "in due proper and legal form", by the then Persian Government, and the Anglo-Persian Oil Company, which was formed in 1909 to acquire the Concession, "has since been recognized throughout by all successive Persian Governments, as the owner of this concession".

After some 15 year's work, when profits were first derived, "questions arose between the company and the Persian Government as to the manner in which the net profits on which the Persian Government was to receive its 16 percent ought to be calculated". After negotiation, agreements were signed in 1920 settling the question of the basis of the royalties, and providing for the payment by the company of £1,000,000 to the Persian Government in final settlement of outstanding questions.

In 1928 further discussions were begun at the instance of the Persian Government, for a revision of the Concession. Agreement was reached on most points, but on the Persian Government's desire for increased participation in profits, and in 1931 negotiations were again opened for revision.

Preliminary Agreement.

Early in 1932 a preliminary royalty agreement was reached by the Persian Minister of the Court and Sir John Cadman, chairman of the Company. This agreement was drafted, initialed in London by representatives of the company and the Persian Government, and sent to Teheran. It arrived there in May, but has not yet been ratified.

"It will be seen, therefore", the company adds, "that the directors cannot be accused of having failed to treat seriously the view of the Persian Government, discussions initiated in the year 1928 relative to the revision of the D'Arcy Concession having been carried on continuously to the spring of 1930, and further prolonged discussions relative to the assessment of royalty having been carried on before and since".

Nevertheless in June last the Persian Government refused to accept the royalty for 1931 payable under the agreements then existing, and in July the company learned that tentative proposals on an entirely different basis from that of the draft royalty agreement were under the consideration of the Persian Government.

There was a heavy fall in profits in 1931 (of which the Persian Government had several times been forewarned), but this, the company says, "did not affect adversely the Persian Government alone, nor does it afford any justification for the claim of the Persian Government that it has the right to cancel the Concession on the faith of which so much money and work has been expended".

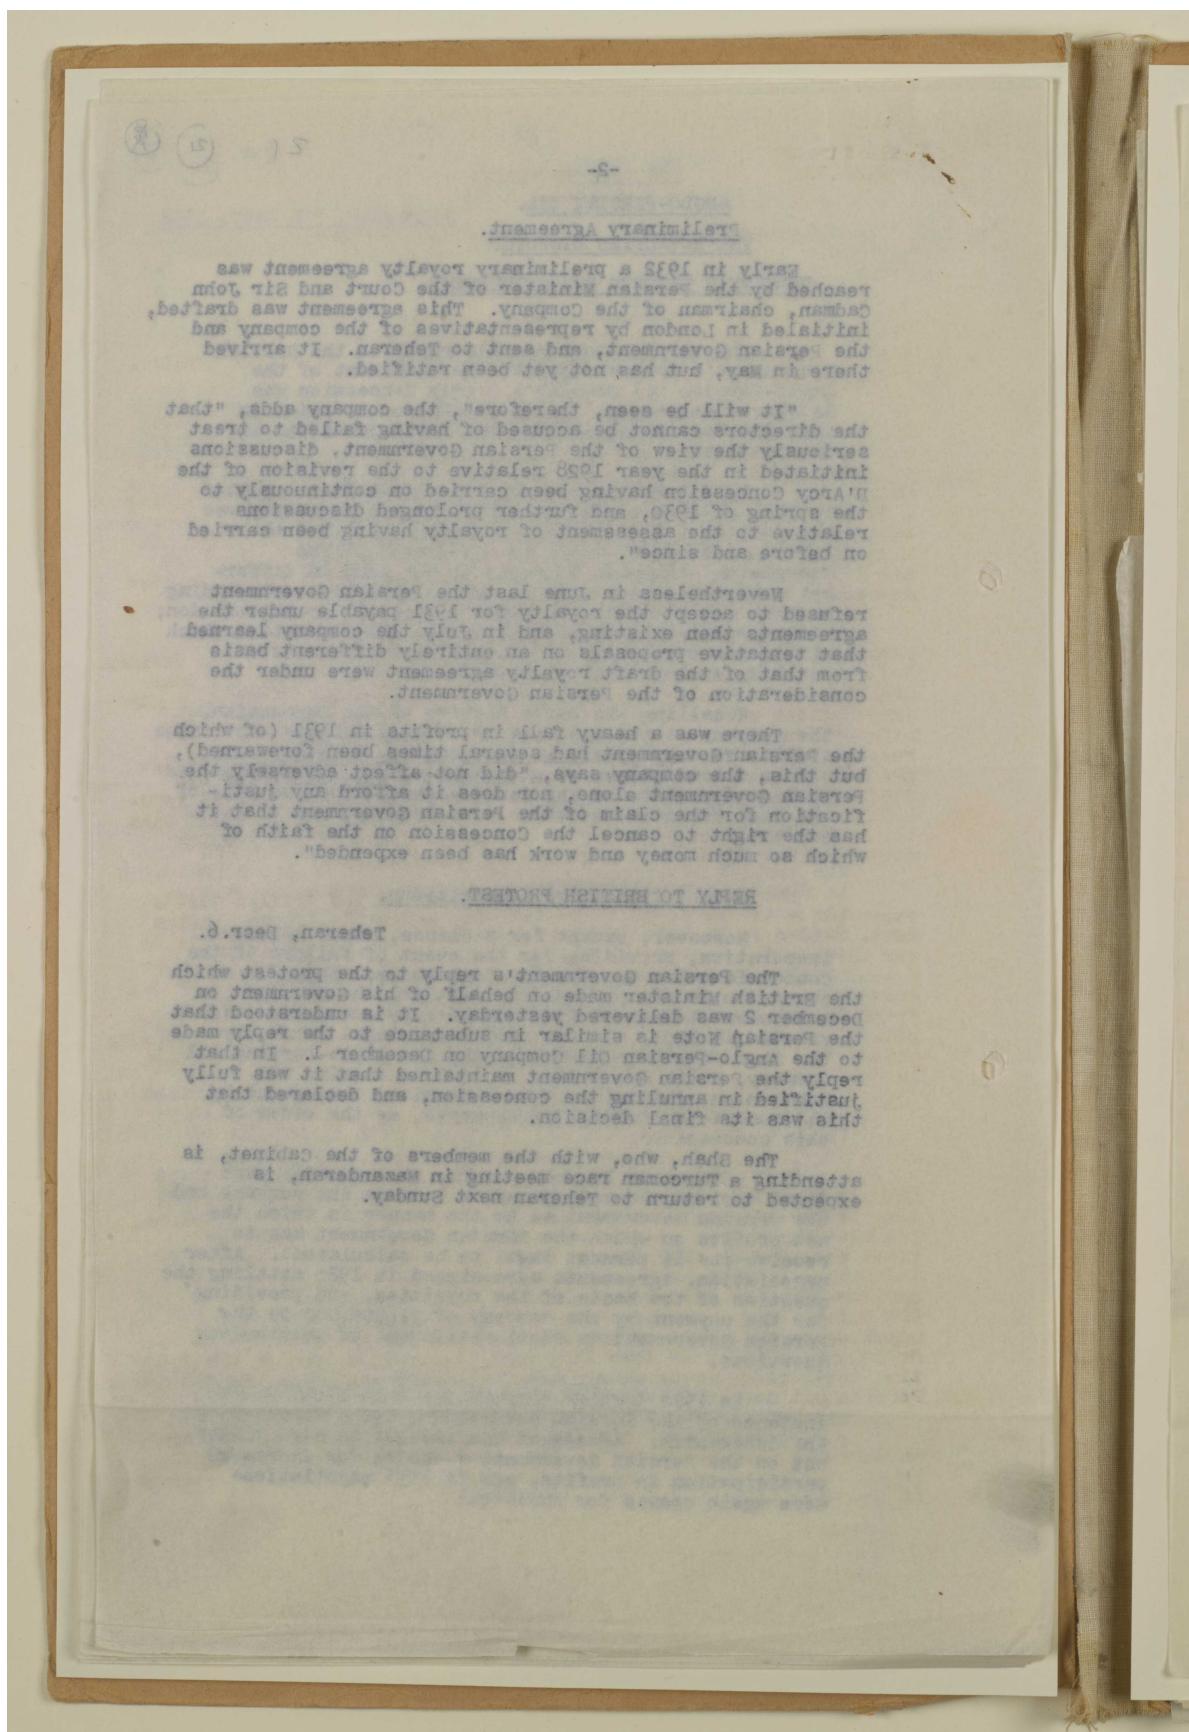

REPLY TO BRITISH PROTEST.

Teheran, Decr. 6.

The Persian Government's reply to the protest which the British Minister made on behalf of his Government on December 2 was delivered yesterday. It is understood that the Persian Note is similar in substance to the reply made to the Anglo-Persian Oil Company on December 1. In that reply the Persian Government maintained that it was fully justified in annulling the concession, and declared that this was its final decision.

The Shah, who, with the members of the Cabinet, is attending a Turcoman race meeting in Mazanderan, is expected to return to Teheran next Sunday.

(b) La Compagnie devra, au plus tard le 31 décembre 1938, choisir dans le territoire ci-dessus mentionné un ou plusieurs espaces de telle forme et telle grandeur situés dans tels endroits que la Compagnie jugera convenir. L'ensemble de la superficie du ou des espaces choisis ne doit pas dépasser cent mille milles carrés anglais (100,000 milles carrés), chaque mille simple correspondant à 1609 mètres.

La Compagnie informera le Gouvernement par écrit le 31 décembre 1938, ou ayant cette date, de l'espace ou des espaces qu'elle aura choisis comme il est prévu ci-dessus. Seront jointes à chaque information les cartes et les données nécessaires pour identifier et délimiter l'espace ou les espaces qu'aura choisis la Compagnie.

(c) Après le 31 décembre 1938, la Compagnie n'aura plus le droit de rechercher et d'extraire le pétrole que dans l'espace ou les espaces choisis par elle selon le paragraphe (b) ci-dessus et le territoire de la Concession, après cette date, signifiera seulement l'espace ou les espaces ainsi choisis et dont le choix aura été notifié au Gouvernement comme il est prévu ci-dessus.

ARTICLE 3.

La Compagnie aura le droit non exclusif de construire et d'avoir des pipe-lines. Il lui appartient de fixer le tracé de ses pipe-lines et de les exploiter.

ARTICLE 4.

La manière d'acquérir ledits terrains sera la suivante: chaque fois qu'un terrain devient nécessaire à la Compagnie, cette dernière doit envoyer au Ministère des Finances une ou plusieurs cartes sur lesquelles le terrain dont la Compagnie a besoin sera indiqué en couleur. Le Gouvernement s'engage à donner son approbation dans un délai de trois mois après avoir reçu la demande de la Compagnie, s'il n'a pas d'objection à faire.

(b) Les terrains utilisés appartenant au Gouvernement, et dont la Compagnie aura besoin, seront demandés au Gouvernement de la manière indiquée à l'alinéa précédent, et le Gouvernement, au cas où il n'aurait pas lui-même besoin de ces terrains et n'aurait aucune objection à formuler, donnera, dans un délai de trois mois, son approbation à la vente sollicitée par la Compagnie.

Le prix de ces terrains sera payé par la Compagnie; ce prix devra être raisonnable et ne pas dépasser le prix courant des terrains de même nature et de même emploi dans la même région.

(c) En l'absence d'une réponse de la part du Gouvernement aux demandes prévues aux alinéas (a) et (b) précédés, après l'expiration de deux mois à partir de la date de la réception desdites demandes, un rappel sera adressé par la Compagnie au Gouvernement; à défaut de réponse de la part du Gouvernement à ce rappel dans un délai d'un mois, son silence sera considéré comme approbation.

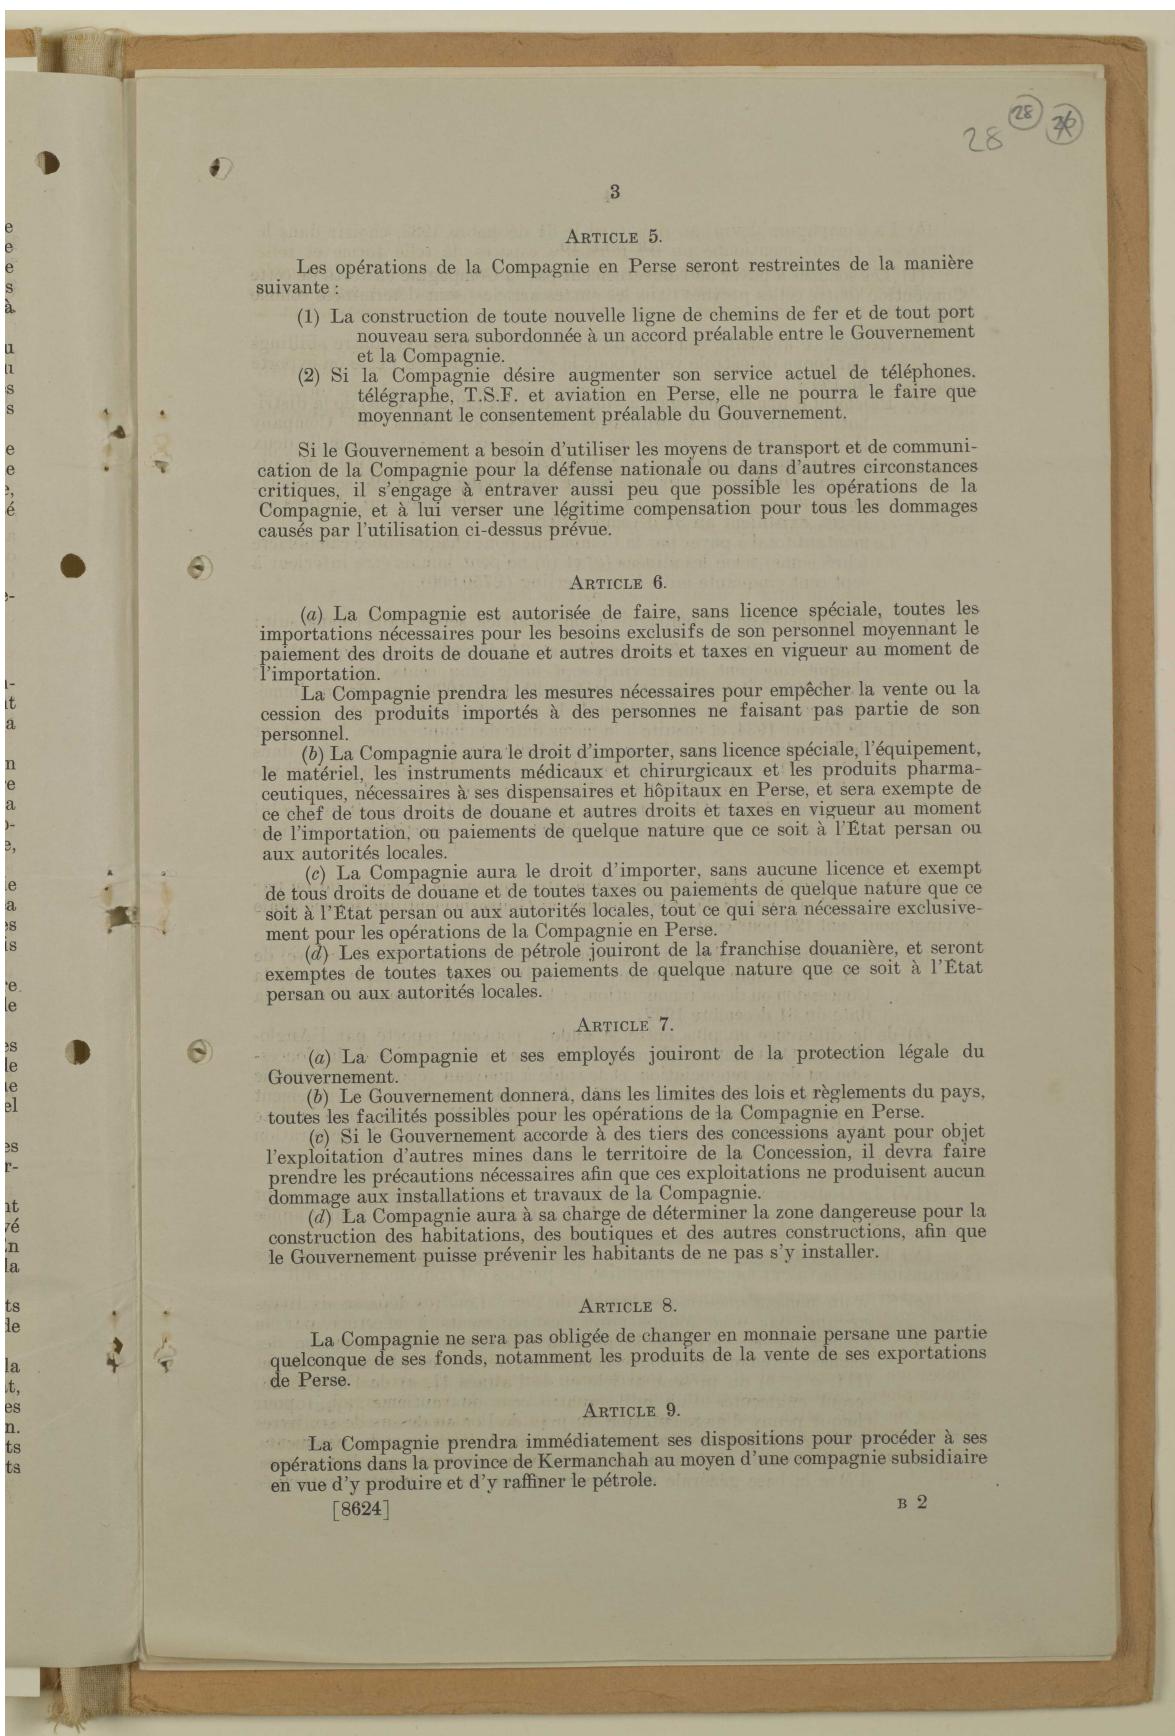

(d) Les terres qui n'appartiennent pas au Gouvernement et qui sont nécessaires à la Compagnie seront acquises par elle, d'accord avec les intéressés, et par l'intermédiaire du Gouvernement.

Dans le cas où l'on ne se mettrait pas d'accord sur les prix, le Gouvernement ne permettra pas aux propriétaires desdites terres de réclamer un prix plus élevé que les prix ordinaires courants pour des terres voisines de même nature. En évaluant les terres susmentionnées, on ne s'occupera point de l'emploi que la Compagnie voudra en faire.

(e) Les lieux saints et les monuments historiques ainsi que tous les endroits et sites ayant un intérêt historique sont exclus des dispositions qui précèdent, de même que leurs dépendances à une distance d'au moins deux cents mètres.

Il est entendu que, si l'utilisation desdits matériaux était préjudiciable à des droits quelconques appartenant à des tiers, la Compagnie dédommagerait les ayants droit.

ARTICLE 22.

(a) Seront tranchés par la voie d'arbitrage tous différends de nature quelconque entre les parties et spécialement tous différends résultant de l'interprétation de cette Convention et des droits et obligations y contenus, ainsi que tous différends d'opinion pouvant naître à l'égard de questions pour la solution desquelles, d'après les dispositions de cette Convention, l'accord des deux parties est nécessaire.

(b) La partie qui demande l'arbitrage doit le notifier par écrit à l'autre. Chaque partie désignera un arbitre, et les deux arbitres, avant de procéder à l'arbitrage, désigneront un tiers arbitre. Si les deux arbitres ne peuvent pas, dans les deux mois, se mettre d'accord sur la personne du tiers arbitre, ce dernier sera nommé, à la demande d'une partie ou de l'autre, par le président de la Cour permanente de Justice internationale. (d) Si l'une des parties ne désigne pas son arbitre ou n'en informe pas la désignation à la partie adverse, dans les soixante jours après avoir reçu notification de la demande d'arbitrage, l'autre partie aura le droit de demander au président de la Cour permanente de Justice internationale (ou au vice-président dans le cas prévu à la finale de l'alinéa (b)) de nommer un seul arbitre, à choisir parmi des personnes qualifiées comme il est mentionné ci-dessus, et dans ce cas le différend sera tranché par ce seul arbitre.

(e) La procédure de l'arbitrage sera celle qui sera suivie au moment de l'arbitrage, par la Cour permanente de Justice internationale. Le lieu et le temps de l'arbitrage seront déterminés, selon le cas, par le tiers arbitre ou par l'arbitre unique visé à l'alinéa (d).

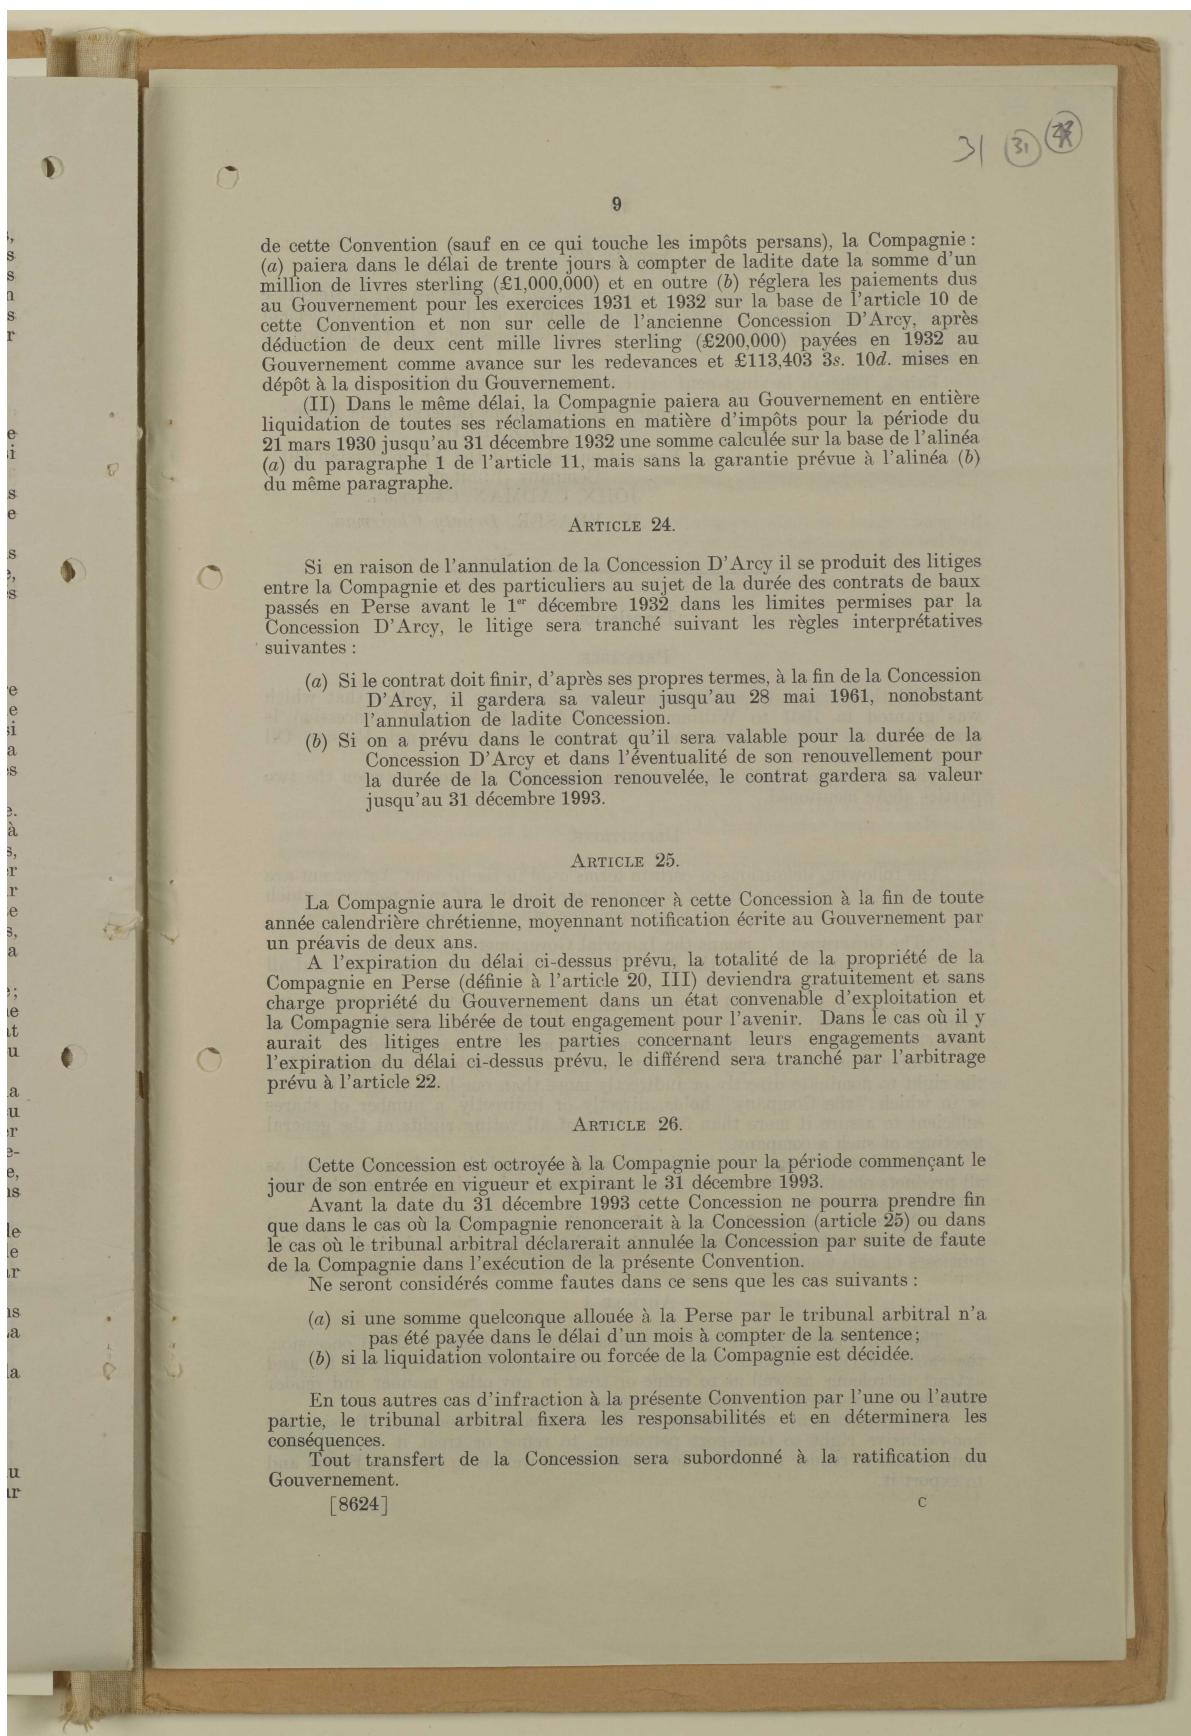

(f) La sentence se basera sur les principes juridiques contenus dans l'article 38 des Statuts de la Cour permanente de Justice internationale. La sentence sera sans appel.

(g) Les frais d'arbitrage seront supportés de la façon déterminée par la sentence.

de cette Convention (sauf en ce qui touche les impôts persans), la Compagnie :
(a) paiera dans le délai de trente jours à compter de ladite date la somme d'un million de livres sterling (£1,000,000) et en outre (b) réglera les paiements dus au Gouvernement pour les exercices 1931 et 1932 sur la base de l'article 10 de cette Convention et non sur celle de l'ancienne Concession D'Arcy, après déduction de deux cent mille livres sterling (£200,000) payées en 1932 au Gouvernement comme avance sur les redevances et £113,403 3s. 10d. mises en dépôt à la disposition du Gouvernement.

(II) Dans le même délai, la Compagnie paiera au Gouvernement en entière liquidation de toutes ses réclamations en matière d'impôts pour la période du 21 mars 1930 jusqu'au 31 décembre 1932 une somme calculée sur la base de l'alinéa (a) du paragraphe 1 de l'article 11, mais sans la garantie prévue à l'alinéa (b) du même paragraphe.

ARTICLE 24.

Si en raison de l'annulation de la Concession D'Arcy il se produit des litiges entre la Compagnie et des particuliers au sujet de la durée des contrats de baux passés en Perse avant le 1^{er} décembre 1932 dans les limites permises par la Concession D'Arcy, le litige sera tranché suivant les règles interprétatives suivantes :

- (a) Si le contrat doit finir, d'après ses propres termes, à la fin de la Concession D'Arcy, il gardera sa valeur jusqu'au 28 mai 1961, nonobstant l'annulation de ladite Concession.
- (b) Si on a prévu dans le contrat qu'il sera valable pour la durée de la Concession D'Arcy et dans l'éventualité de son renouvellement pour la durée de la Concession renouvelée, le contrat gardera sa valeur jusqu'au 31 décembre 1993.

ARTICLE 25.

La Compagnie aura le droit de renoncer à cette Concession à la fin de toute année calendaire chrétienne, moyennant notification écrite au Gouvernement par un préavis de deux ans.

A l'expiration du délai ci-dessus prévu, la totalité de la propriété de la Compagnie en Perse (définie à l'article 20, III) deviendra gratuitement et sans charge propriété du Gouvernement dans un état convenable d'exploitation et la Compagnie sera libérée de tout engagement pour l'avenir. Dans le cas où il y aurait des litiges entre les parties concernant leurs engagements avant l'expiration du délai ci-dessus prévu, le différend sera tranché par l'arbitrage prévu à l'article 22.

ARTICLE 26.

Cette Concession est octroyée à la Compagnie pour la période commençant le jour de son entrée en vigueur et expirant le 31 décembre 1993.

Avant la date du 31 décembre 1993 cette Concession ne pourra prendre fin que dans le cas où la Compagnie renoncerait à la Concession (article 25) ou dans le cas où le tribunal arbitral déclarerait annulée la Concession par suite de faute de la Compagnie dans l'exécution de la présente Convention.

Ne seront considérés comme fautes dans ce sens que les cas suivants :

- (a) si une somme quelconque allouée à la Perse par le tribunal arbitral n'a pas été payée dans le délai d'un mois à compter de la sentence;
- (b) si la liquidation volontaire ou forcée de la Compagnie est décidée.

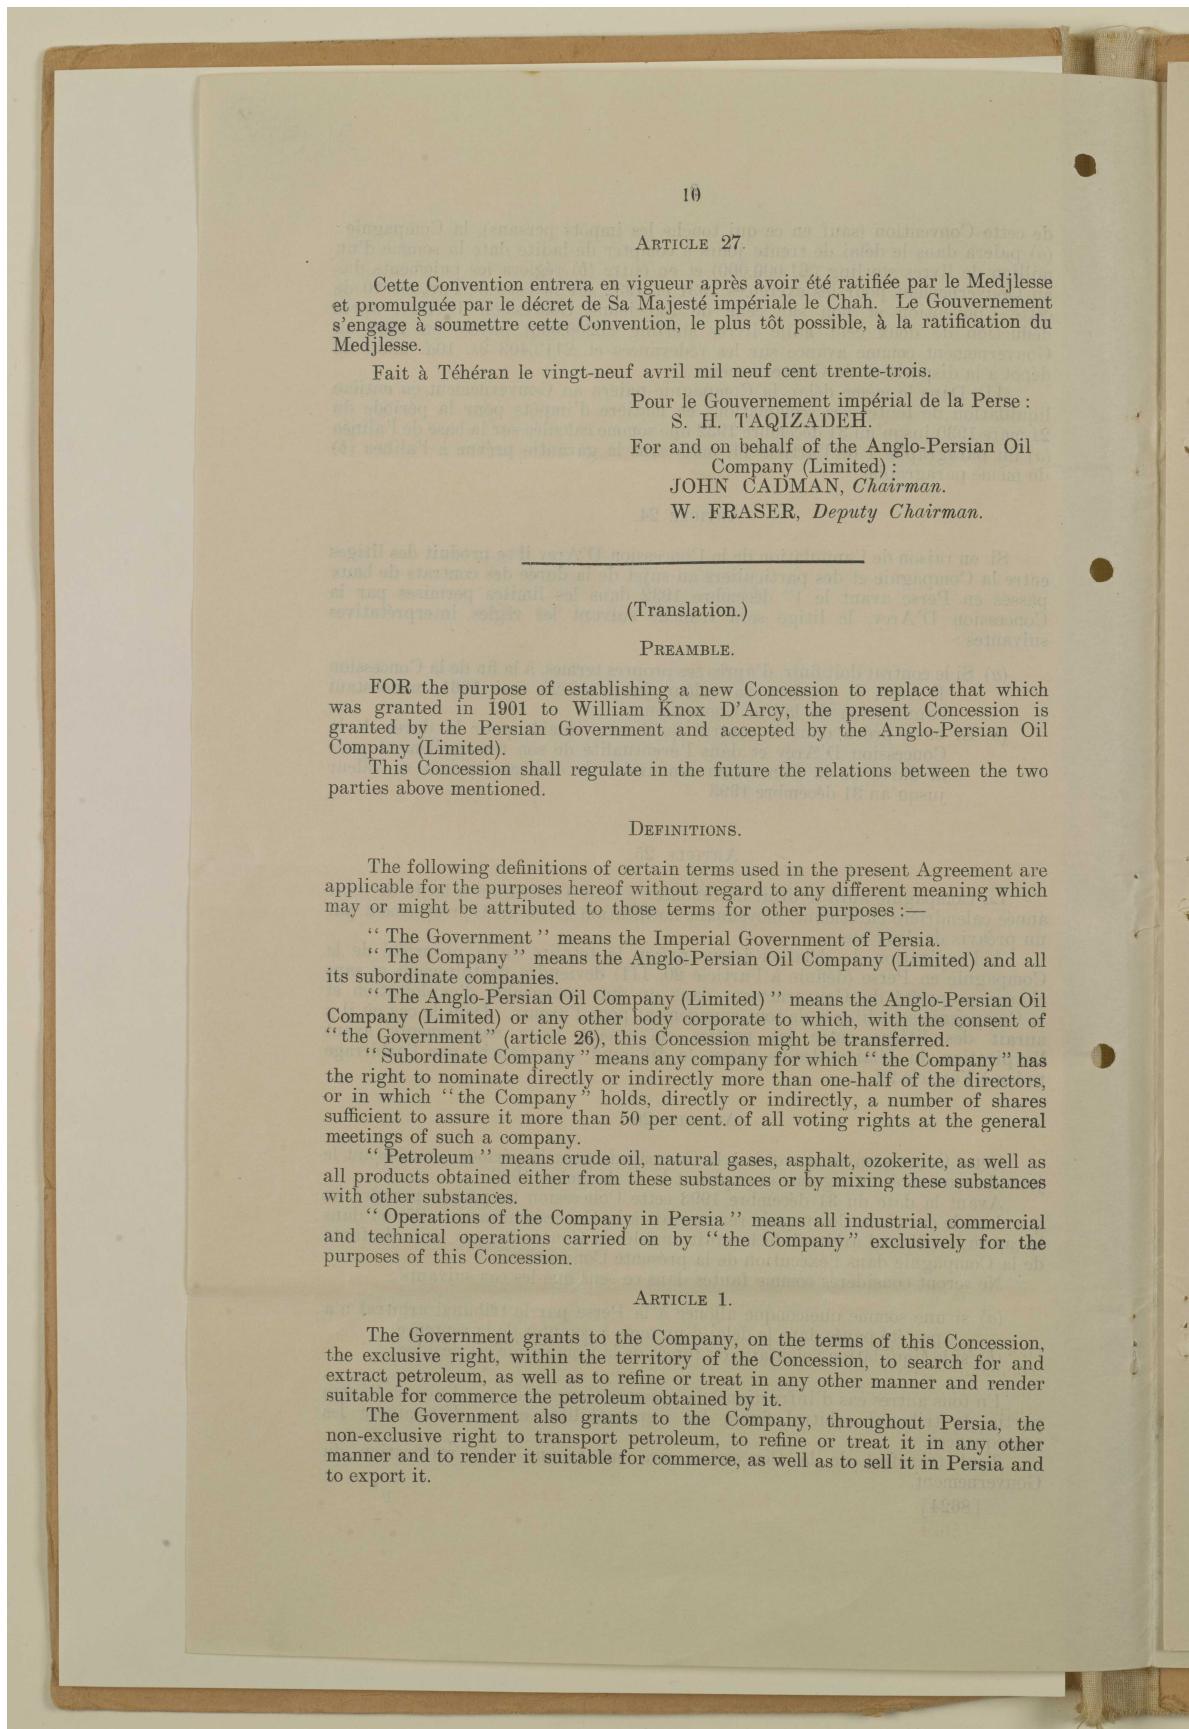

En tous autres cas d'infraction à la présente Convention par l'une ou l'autre partie, le tribunal arbitral fixera les responsabilités et en déterminera les conséquences.

Tout transfert de la Concession sera subordonné à la ratification du Gouvernement.

(II) It is, however, understood that the Company shall recruit its artisans as well as its technical and commercial staff from among Persian nationals to the extent that it shall find in Persia persons who possess the requisite competence and experience. It is further understood that the unskilled staff shall be composed exclusively of Persian nationals.

(III) The parties declare themselves in agreement to study and prepare a general plan of yearly and progressive reduction of the non-Persian employees with a view to replacing them in the shortest possible time and progressively by Persian nationals.

The lowest of these average prices shall be selected. Such prices shall be the "basic prices" for a period of one year beginning on the 1st June. The "basic prices" shall be regarded as being the prices at the refinery.

(b) The Company shall sell: (1) to the Government for its own needs, and not for resale, motor spirit, kerosene and fuel oil at the basic prices provided in sub-clause (a) above with a deduction of twenty-five per cent. (25 per cent.); (2) to other consumers at the basic prices with a deduction of ten per cent. (10 per cent.).

(b) The party which requests arbitration shall so notify the other party in writing. Each of the parties shall designate an arbitrator, and the two arbitrators, before proceeding to arbitration, shall appoint an umpire. If the two arbitrators cannot, within two months, agree on the person of the umpire, the latter shall be nominated, at the request of either of the parties, by the President of the Permanent Court of International Justice. If the President of the Permanent Court of International Justice belongs to a nationality or a country which, in accordance with clause (c) is not qualified to furnish the umpire, the nomination shall be made by the Vice-President of the said Court.

(c) The umpire shall be of a nationality other than Persian or British; furthermore, he shall not be closely connected with Persia or with Great Britain as belonging to a dominion, a protectorate, a colony, a mandated country or other country administered or occupied by one of the two countries above mentioned or as being or having been in the service of one of these countries.

(d) If one of the parties does not appoint its arbitrator or does not advise the other party of its appointment within sixty days of having received notification of the request for arbitration, the other party shall have the right to request the President of the Permanent Court of International Justice (or the Vice-President in the case provided at the end of clause (b)) to nominate a sole arbitrator, to be chosen from among persons qualified as above mentioned, and in this case the difference shall be settled by this sole arbitrator.

(e) The procedure of arbitration shall be that followed, at the time of arbitration, by the Permanent Court of International Justice. The place and time of arbitration shall be fixed by the umpire or the sole arbitrator provided for in clause (d), as the case may be.

On the expiry of the period above provided, the whole of the property of the Company in Persia (defined in article 20 (III)) shall become free of cost and without encumbrances the property of the Government in proper working order and the Company shall be released from any engagement for the future. ARTICLE 26.

This Concession is granted to the Company for the period beginning on the date of its coming into force and ending on the 31st December, 1993.

Before the date of the 31st December, 1993, this Concession can only come to an end in the case that the Company shall surrender the Concession (article 25) or in the case that the Arbitration Court should declare the Concession annulled as a consequence of default of the Company in the performance of the present Agreement.

The following cases only shall be regarded as default in that sense :—

(a) If any sum awarded to Persia by the Arbitration Court has not been paid within one month of the date of the award.

PERSONAL &
CONFIDENTIAL

C/4439/3

19th December 1932.

My dear Col. Fowle,

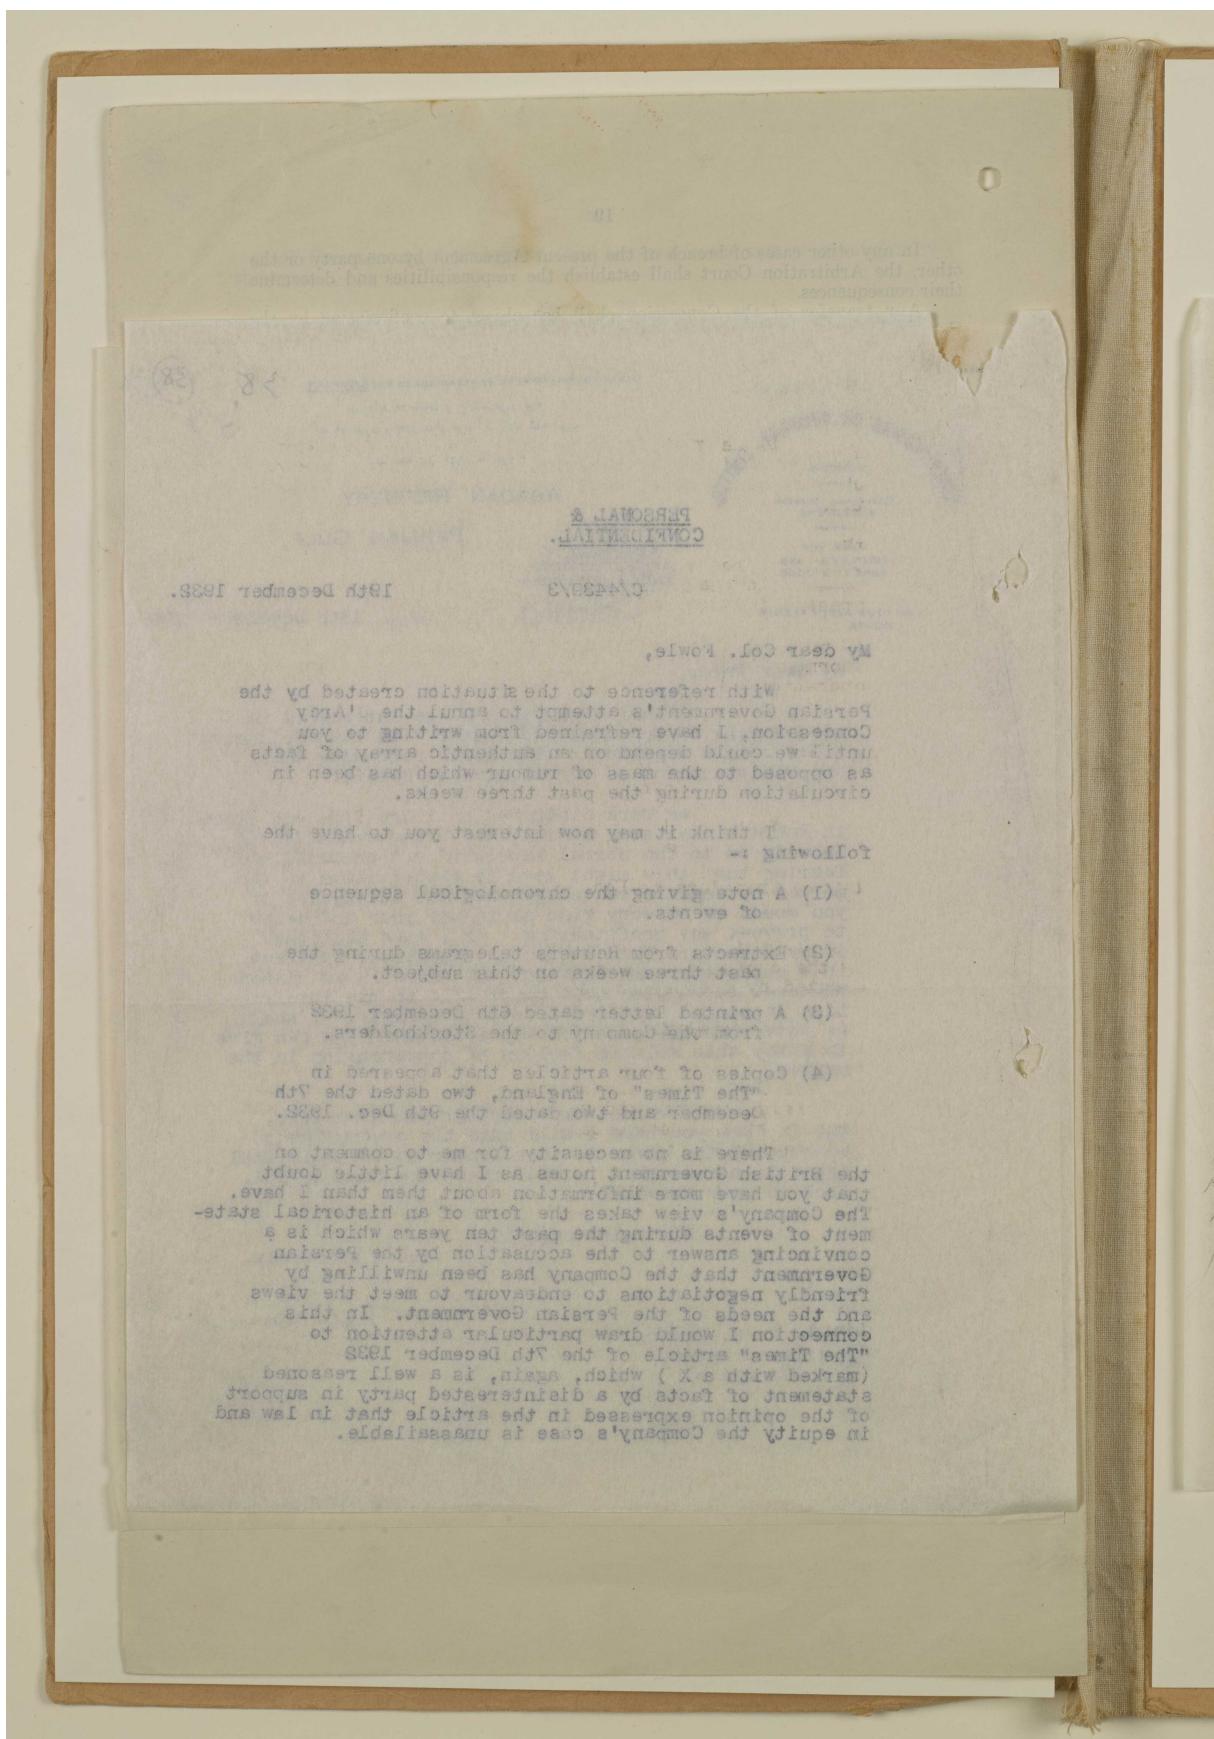

With reference to the situation created by the Persian Government's attempt to annul the D'Arcy Concession, I have refrained from writing to you until we could depend on an authentic array of facts as opposed to the mass of rumour which has been in circulation during the past three weeks.

I think it may now interest you to have the following :-

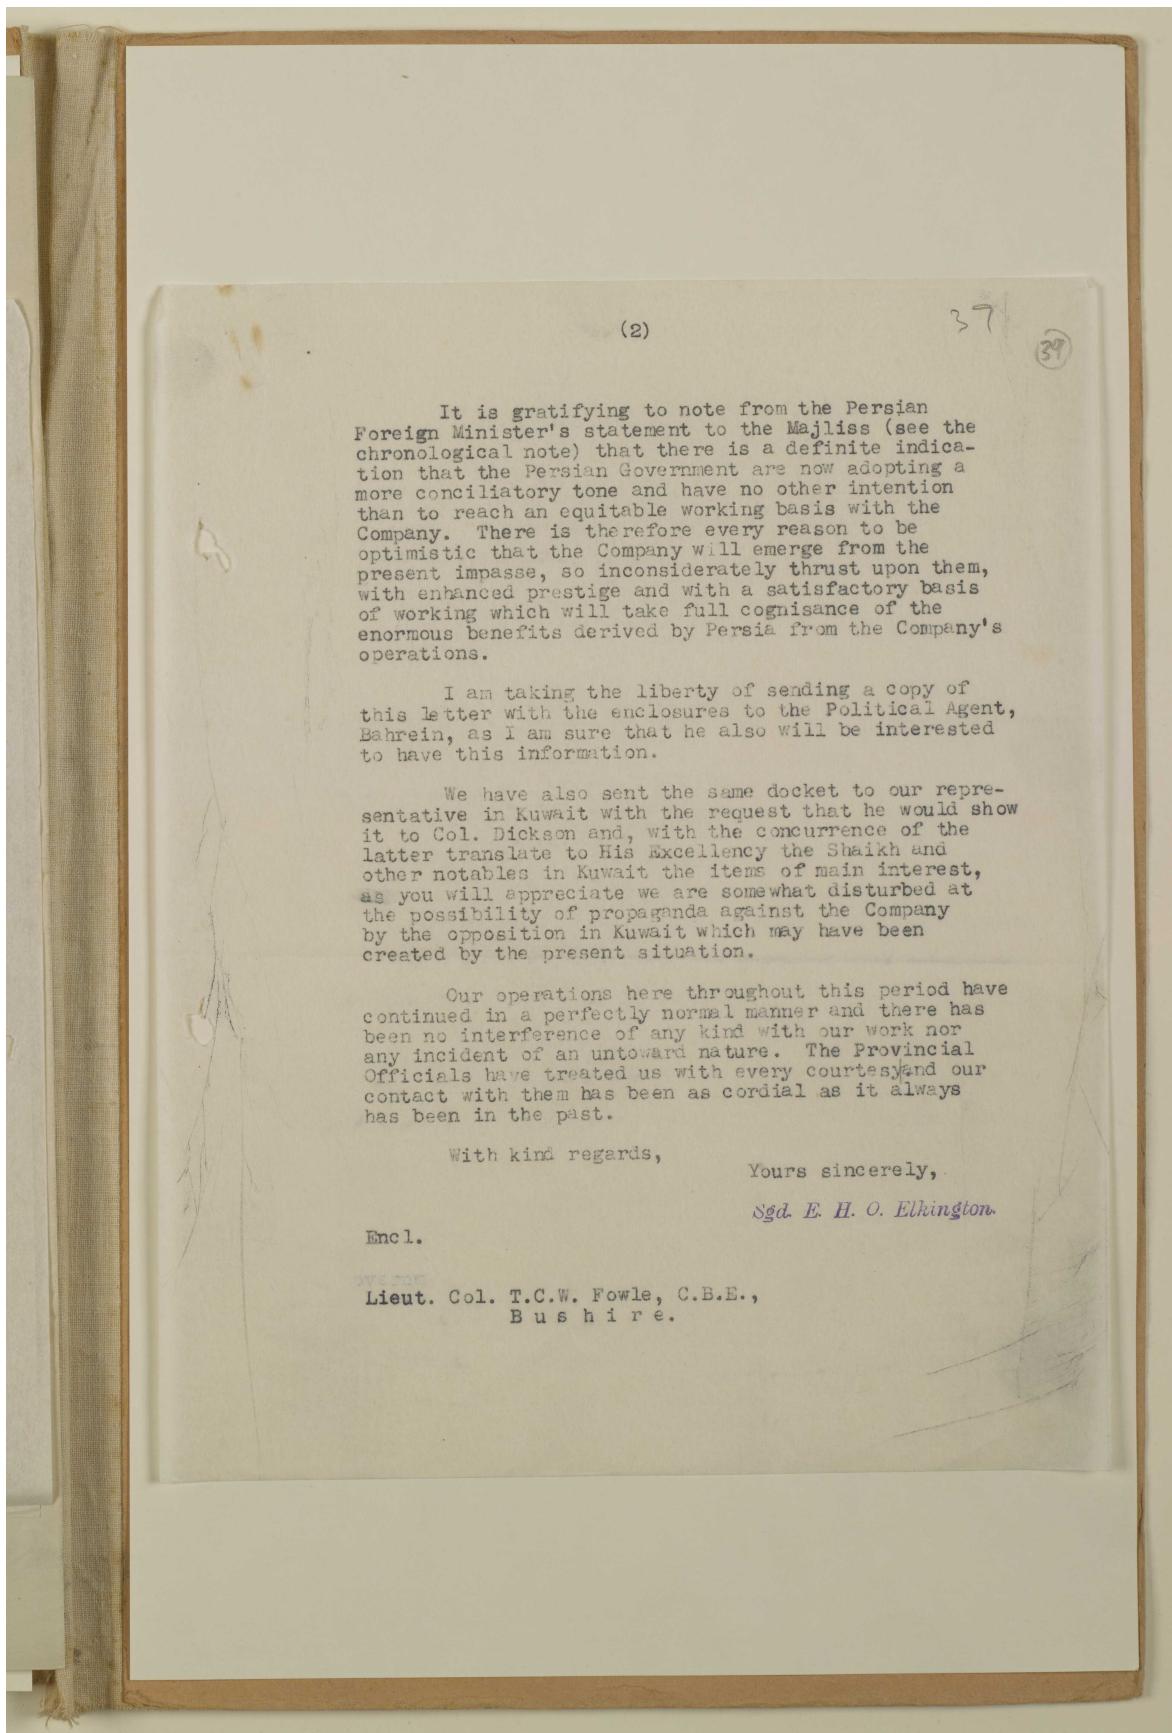

- (1) A note giving the chronological sequence of events.
 - (2) Extracts from Reuters telegrams during the past three weeks on this subject.
 - (3) A printed letter dated 6th December 1932 from the Company to the Stockholders.
 - (4) Copies of four articles that appeared in "The Times" of England, two dated the 7th December and two dated the 9th Dec. 1932

There is no necessity for me to comment on the British Government notes as I have little doubt that you have more information about them than I have. The Company's view takes the form of an historical statement of events during the past ten years which is a convincing answer to the accusation by the Persian Government that the Company has been unwilling by friendly negotiations to endeavour to meet the views and the needs of the Persian Government. In this connection I would draw particular attention to "The Times" article of the 7th December 1932 (marked with a X) which, again, is a well reasoned statement of facts by a disinterested party in support of the opinion expressed in the article that in law and in equity the Company's case is unassailable.

"ملف 2/39 (B/8 1) تأثير إلغاء الحكومة الفارسية لامتياز شركة النفط
الأنجلو-فارسية على سوق النفط في البحرين" [٣٨٧٦] (٨٠/٣٨)

"ملف 2/39 (B/8 1) تأثير إلغاء الحكومة الفارسية لامتياز شركة النفط
الأنجلو-فارسية على سوق النفط في البحرين" [٣٩و] (٨٠/٧٧)

It is gratifying to note from the Persian Foreign Minister's statement to the Majliss (see the chronological note) that there is a definite indication that the Persian Government are now adopting a more conciliatory tone and have no other intention than to reach an equitable working basis with the Company. There is therefore every reason to be optimistic that the Company will emerge from the present impasse, so inconsiderately thrust upon them, with enhanced prestige and with a satisfactory basis of working which will take full cognisance of the enormous benefits derived by Persia from the Company's operations.

I am taking the liberty of sending a copy of this letter with the enclosures to the Political Agent, Bahrein, as I am sure that he also will be interested to have this information.

We have also sent the same docket to our representative in Kuwait with the request that he would show it to Col. Dickson and, with the concurrence of the latter translate to His Excellency the Shaikh and other notables in Kuwait the items of main interest, as you will appreciate we are somewhat disturbed at the possibility of propaganda against the Company by the opposition in Kuwait which may have been created by the present situation.

Our operations here throughout this period have continued in a perfectly normal manner and there has been no interference of any kind with our work nor any incident of an untoward nature. The Provincial Officials have treated us with every courtesy and our contact with them has been as cordial as it always has been in the past.

With kind regards,

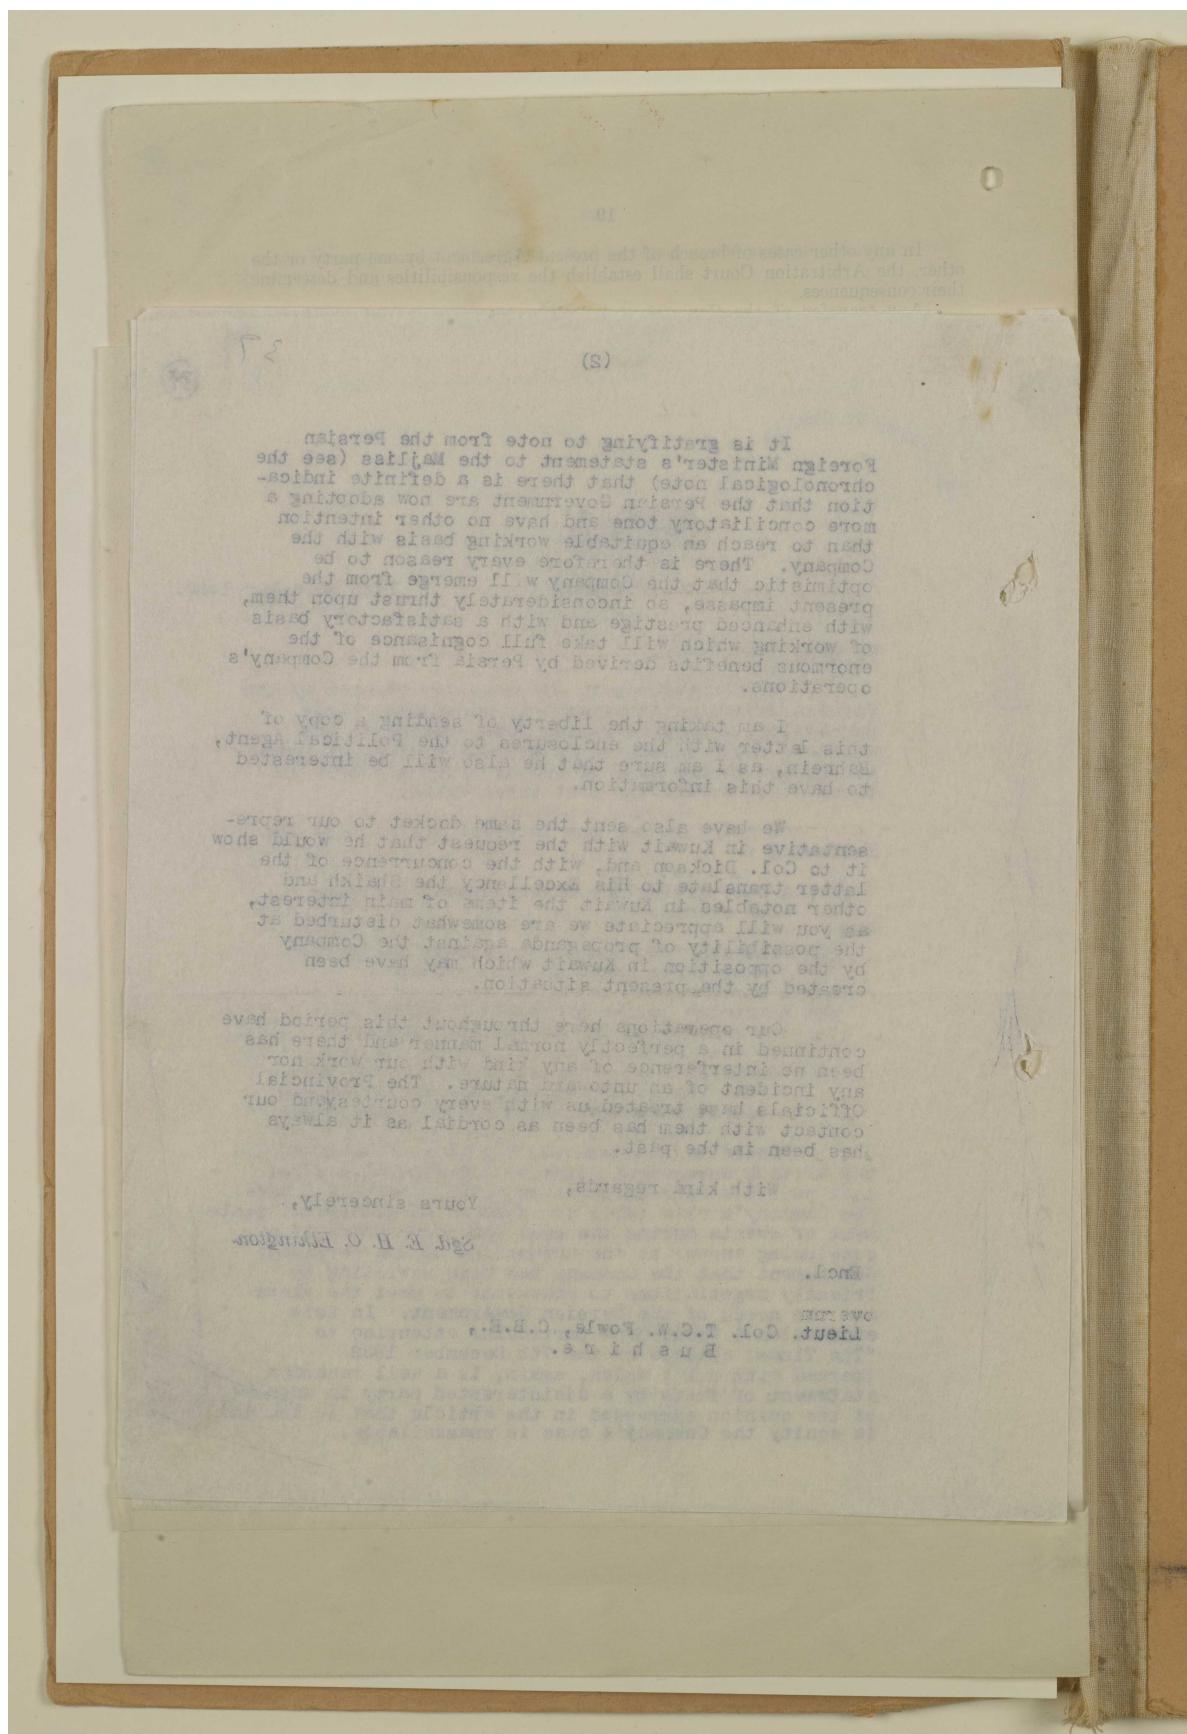

Yours sincerely,

Sgd. E. H. O. Elington.

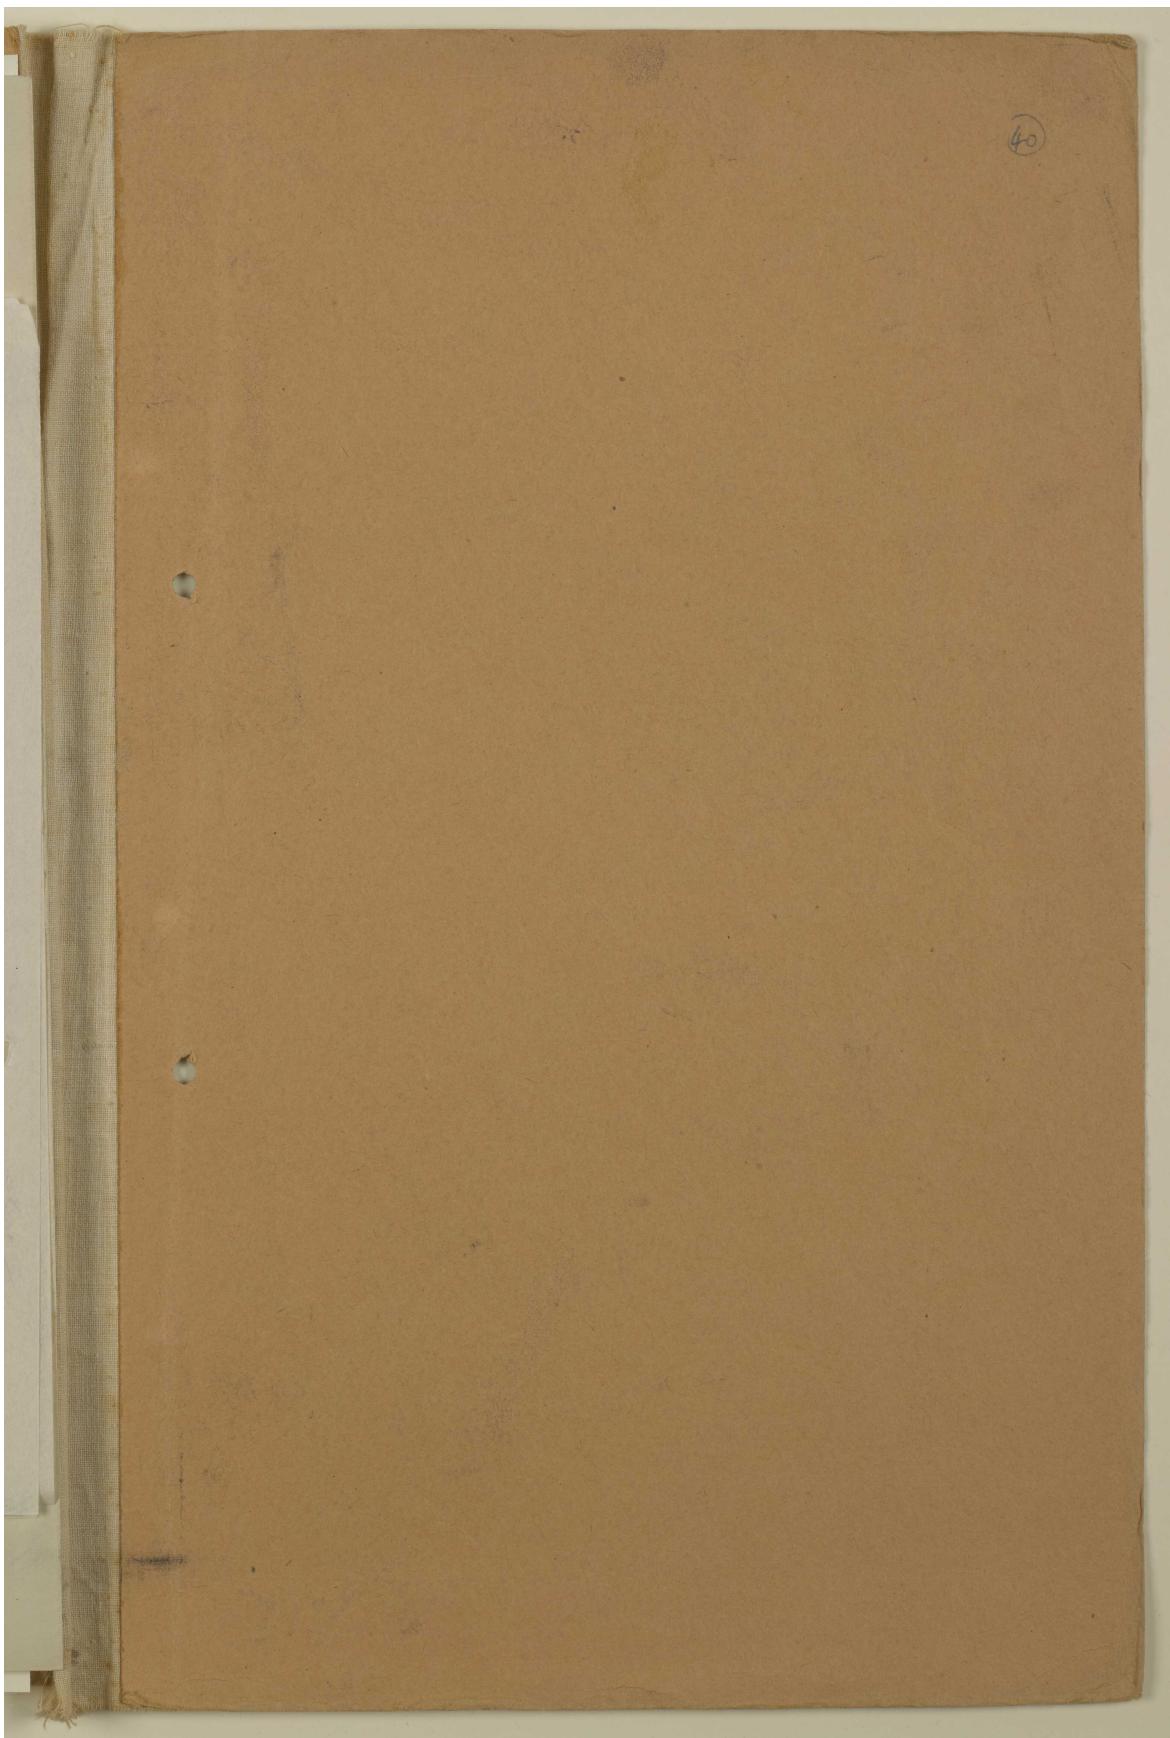

Encl.
