About this record

The file contains correspondence relating to the deaths of Shaikh Ibrahim bin Mohammed Al Khalifah (in 1933), a senior member of the ruling Al Khalifah family, and Shaikh Hamad bin Isa Al Khalifah (in 1942), the ruler of Bahrain. The majority of the papers are letters and telegrams of condolence from British (and some American) political, military, and diplomatic offices in the region, as well as others who knew the Shaikh, and letters of thanks in response from Shaikh Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifah (the late Shaikh's son and the new ruler). The messages were sent via the Political Agent, Bahrain, in both directions. Also included in the file is correspondence between the Political Agent and Charles Dalrymple Belgrave, Adviser to the Government of Bahrain, in which the correct protocol for commemorating the deaths is discussed.

Folios 63-67 are internal office notes.

هذا وسموك فائق الاحترام

I have received two telegrams,
one from Canada and one from London, which, I am sorry to say, have been delayed in transit owing to difficulties of communication caused by the war.

In the telegram from Canada I have been asked by Her Royal Highness Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone, and the Earl of Athlone, to convey to Your Highness and family their sincere sympathy in your bereavement. They add that they recall with gratitude the warm welcome which His late Highness extended to them on their visit to Bahrain four years ago.

In the telegram from London I have been requested to express to Your Highness, on behalf of His Majesty's Government, their deep sympathy in the sad loss which you have sustained.

I am,

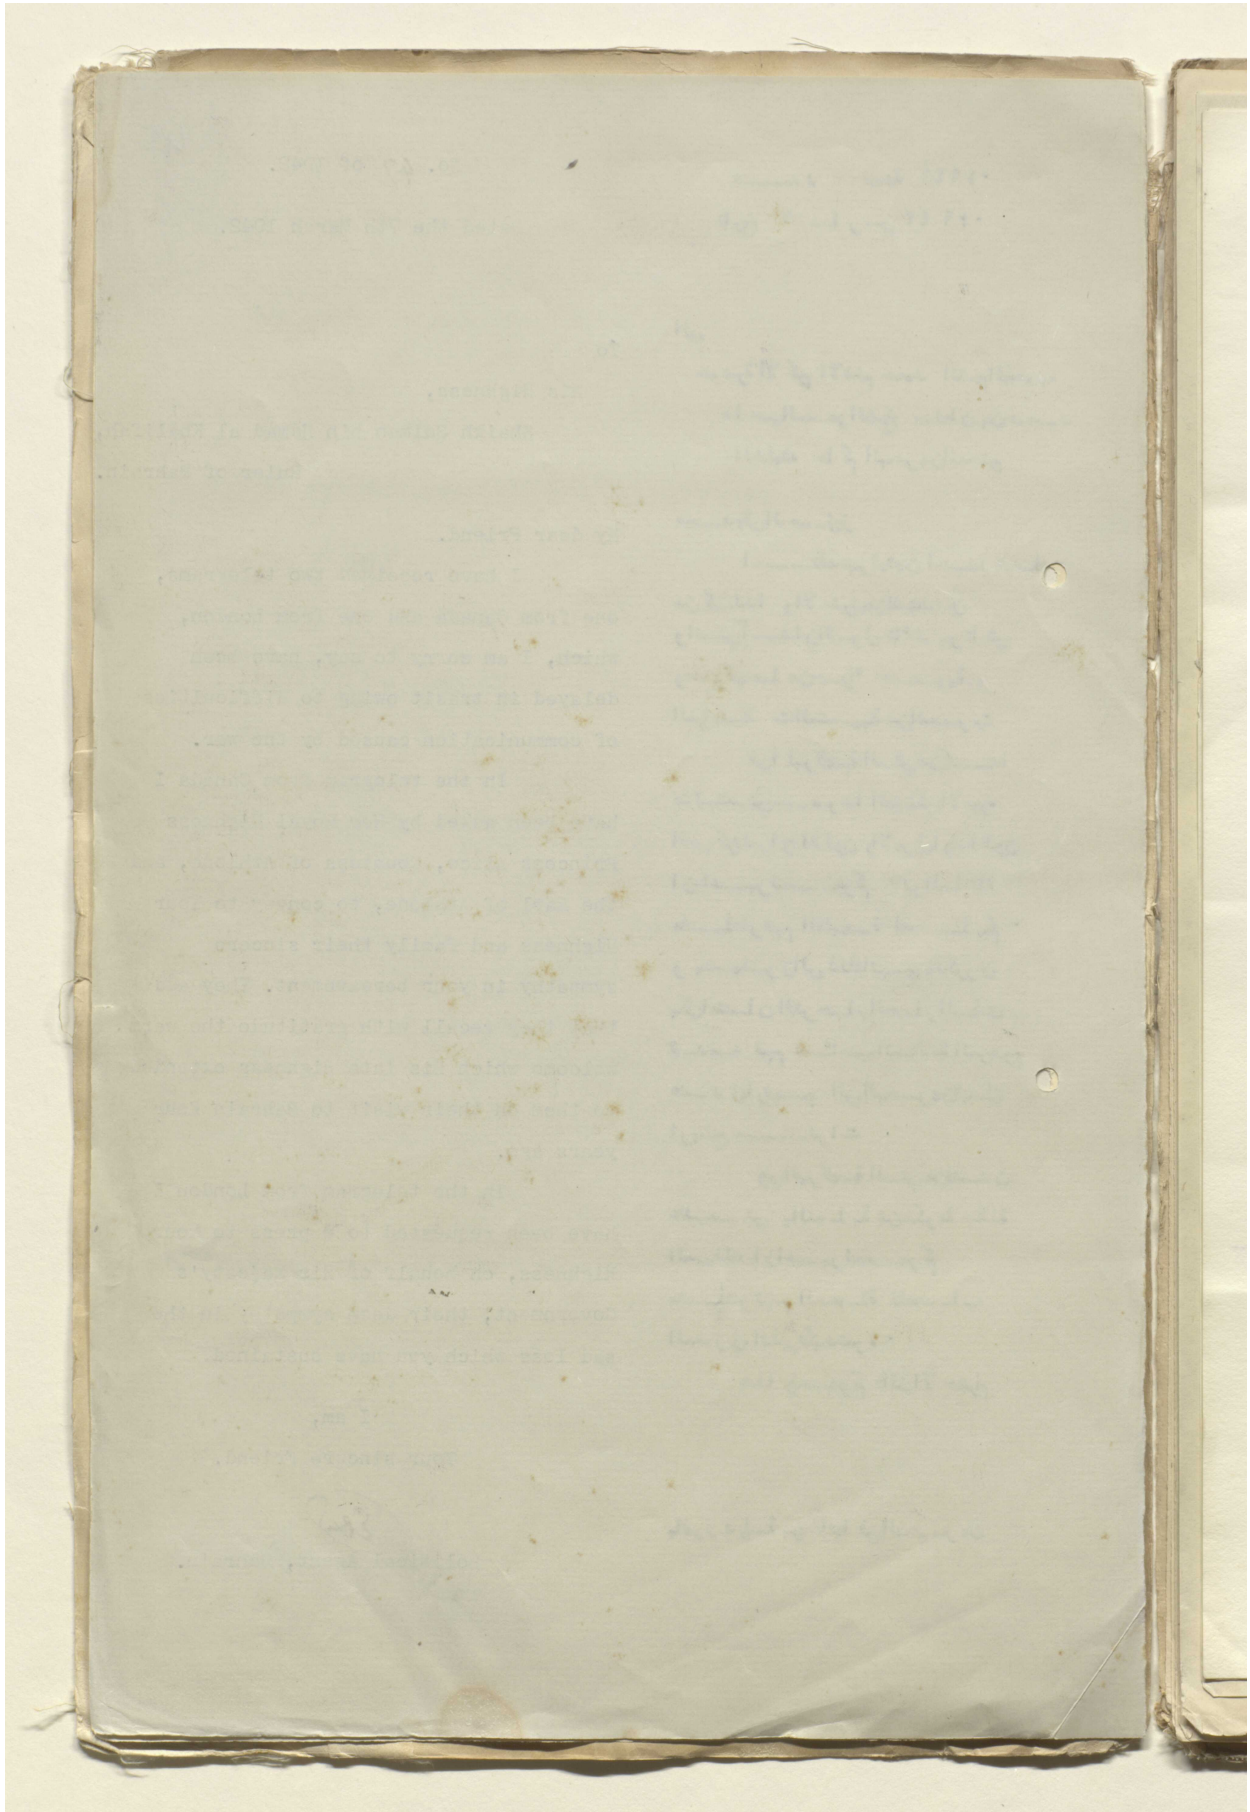

Your sincere Friend.
