حول هذا السجل

تقرير إداري عن المقيمة البريطانية في الخليج العربي والوكالة السياسية في مسقط عن الفترة ١٨٧٥-١٨٧٦، نشرته السلطة المختصة في مطبعة وزارة الخارجية في كلكتا، بتاريخ ١٨٧٦، حيث يُشكل جزءاً من مجموعة مختارة مأخوذة عن سجلات حكومة الهند، وزارة الخارجية (رقم ١٢٨). يعتمد التقرير الإداري على تقارير أرسلها المقيم السياسي في الخليج العربي (المقدم إدوارد تشارلز روس) والوكيل السياسي في مسقط إلى حكومة الهند. التقرير مسبق بنسخة من رسالة أرسلها النقيب ويليام فرانسيس بريدو، المقيم السياسي المفوض في الخليج العربي، إلى سكرتير حكومة الهند المفوض، بتاريخ ٠٥ يوليو ١٨٧٦، والذي جاء مع تقديم التقارير الأصلية إلى حكومة الهند (الورقة ٨).

ON THE
ADMINISTRATION
PERSIAN GULF POLITICAL RESIDENCY
AND MUSCAT POLITICAL AGENCY FOR THE
Year 1875-76.

No. 654-130, dated Bushire, 5th July 1876.

From—CAPT. W. F. PRIDEAUX, H. B. M.'s Offg. Poltl. Resdt., Persian Gulf,
To—Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Foreign Dept.

I HAVE the honor to transmit, for the information of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council, the Administration Report of the Persian Gulf Political Residency, including the Muscat Political Agency for the year 1875-76.

2. The Administration Report is divided into the following parts:—

I.—General Report of the Persian Gulf Political Residency, drawn up by Lieutenant-Colonel E. C. Ross.

II.—Report on the Province of Fars and its dependencies, accompanied by a sketch map, by Lieutenant-Colonel E. C. Ross.

III.—Trade Returns of Bushire and the Persian Gulf. These statistics have, as usual, been carefully compiled by Mr. George Lucas, Uncovenanted Assistant Resident.

IV.—General Report of the Muscat Political Agency, drawn up by Lieutenant-Colonel S. B. Miles.

V.—Trade Returns of Muscat, compiled by Lieutenant-Colonel S. B. Miles.

3. I regret that official changes at the various ports have retarded the submission of this Report, and that this cause has prevented me from obtaining any trade statistics of the Port of Bunder Abbass.

4. I request that I may be supplied with a few printed copies of the Report for future reference and record.

2 ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE PERSIAN GULF POLITICAL RESIDENCY

Part I.

ADMINISTRATION REPORT FOR 1875-76.

General.

THE several Governments, Chiefdoms, and territories generally, which may be noticed in connection with the administration of this Political charge are, for convenience of reference, classified as follows:—

1. Oman—Under Sultan of Muscat.
2. Oman—Petty independent Chiefdoms.
3. Islands of Bahrein.
4. Nejd and El Katr (Guttur).
5. Bassadore (Busiduh) British.
6. Government of Fars (Shirz).

The portion of the Report referring to the Sultanate of Muscat has been prepared by the Political Agent at Muscat. The narrative of the political events of the year will be found, as usual, unfortunately full of interest. I will only observe that throughout the several important crises which have had place, the Political Agent has maintained strict neutrality, and with the cordial aid and support of the Royal Navy Commanders successfully arranged for the protection of British interests.

PETTY CHIEFDOMS.

Oman Coast.

The places referred to under this heading are the townships situated on what is known as the Pirate Coast (now quite a misnomer), the Sheikhs or Chiefs of which have engaged themselves to the British Government to observe the terms of the maritime truce.

These trucial Chiefs are—

1. Hameyd bin Abdullah of the tribe El Kowasim or Jowasim, township Ras-ul-Khaimah.
2. Ahmed bin Abdullah of the tribe Al-bu-Ali, township Umm-al-Gawain (Amulgavine).
3. Rashid bin Hameyd of the tribe Al-bu-Ali, township Ajman.
4. Salim bin Sultan bin Suggur of the tribe El Kowasim, township Shargah.
5. Hashar bin Muktum of the tribe Al-bu-Falesah, township Dabai.
6. Zaeed bin Khalifah of the tribe Beni-Yas, township Abu Zhabi. Besides the above there is on the same coast the township of Himreeyah, the Chief of which is Seif bin Abdool Rahman. This place was originally a dependency of Shargah but has seceded, and the Sheikh is quasi-independent.

AND MUSCAT POLITICAL AGENCY FOR THE YEAR 1875-76. 3

This situation has caused some difficulty in the adjustment of old standing claims and counter-claims.

On the coast of El Katr (Guttur) there is a settlement of the Beni-Yas at Khor Odeyd under Sheikh Baty bin Khadim. These settlers seceded several years ago from Abu Dhabi, and the Chief of the latter place has ever since burned to attack Odeyd and reduce the settlers to submission to his authority. Permission to proceed by sea has however been refused, and the land route along the coast is impracticable. Last year it was reported that hostilities were still going on by land between the rival Chiefdoms. I am happy to state that during the past year the differences have been arranged and peace established.

In the month of November I visited the Chiefs and made them the customary presents in token of satisfaction with their behaviour. A raid by Bedouins of the Beni Hajir Al Morrah, Naeem and Monaseer tribes residing in El Katr has recently occurred against Omanees, but the results are not serious.

Bahrein.

During the period under review Bahrein has enjoyed peace and prosperity.

The improved aspect of affairs in Bahrein and its vicinity has allowed us to dispense with the constant presence of vessels of war in those waters, but cruisers pay occasional visits as frequently as convenient. From time to time an Assistant Resident has been deputed to visit the islands in the Residency steamer, and I paid an official visit to the Chief during my tour in November.

The Chief brought to notice a correspondence with the Governor of Busrah, the latter having brought forward certain demands on behalf of inhabitants of El Katr (Guttur) against subjects of Bahrein. The Chief was recommended to reply in a fair and conciliatory tone.

No complaints have been received from British Indian subjects residing in Bahrein, and the position of affairs seems on the whole more satisfactory than it has been in previous years.

Nejd and El Katr (Guttur).

The general political situation as regards the relations of the Turkish Government with the family of the Native Chieftains is little changed. A Turkish garrison occupies Lahsa where resides a Governor on the part of Turkey, Mazeyyid, the son of Nasir Pasha, the Wullee of Busrah.

Since the death of Saood ibn Feysul, the elder brother, Abdullah, has succeeded in obtaining his recognition by the other members of the family as its head and representative. The Arab tribes of the interior excepting the Al Ejman appears to concur.

Indemnity was recovered from the Arab Sheikh of El Bidaa for property seized from a Bahrein boat at sea in 1874 by the Beni Hajir raiders.

Persian Coast.

The districts and Governments of the Persian Littoral from Mohammerah to Jask are as follows:—

(a.)—From Mohammerah to near Bunder Delam forms portion of the Province of Arabistan.

(b.)—Thence to near Bunder Rig is under Behbahan.

(c.)—Southwards to Deyyir is in the Government of Bushire.

(d.)—The coast from Deyyir to Nakheeloo, with the Islands of Sheikh Shoaib and Hinderabi is under Sheikh Mazkoor.

(e.)—Cheeroo, Kalat-Charek, the island of Kais, have petty Chiefs under the Government of Lar.

(f.)—Lingah and its dependent districts extends eastward to Khamir, and is under the young Arab Sheikh Ali bin Khaleefah.

(g.)—Government of Bunder Abbass including Jeziret-et-Tawilah or Kishm, and the islands of Henjam, Larek, and Ormuz. This district extends to Jask. The Governor during the past year has been Ahmed Shah, but it is reported that Hajee Ahmed Khan is to be reinstated.

During the year the Government of Bushire has twice changed hands. Prince Assad-oollah Mirza having resigned in consequence of the recall of His Royal Highness the Hissam-es-Sultaneh from Shiraz.

Abdul Hussein Khan Sirteep was appointed, but failed in the administration and was removed. The present Governor, the "Saad-ul-Mulk," was then appointed; and has since been engaged collecting revenues in the districts with the assistance of a force of infantry and artillery.

Some trouble and confusion occurred in Bushire from the prolonged absence of competent authorities, but on the whole affairs connected with British interests have received satisfactory treatment.

Along the whole coast no cases have occurred demanding special notice, and in all cases when it has been necessary to complain of irregular proceedings on the part of the petty Sheikhs, the promptest and most cordial attention and assistance has been accorded by His Excellency the Firman-Firma, the present Governor-General of Fars.

Bassidore.

Some ill-feeling had sprung up between the inhabitants of our station and the neighbouring villages, and complaints reached me against the Sheikh of Kishm who was thought to encourage petty annoyances. I therefore paid a special visit to Kishm during my last tour, and the complaints and counter-complaints having been discussed and arranged, no further trouble has arisen.

The Assistant Surgeon, Abdur Rahim, who is in charge of the station, has during this period as previously, performed his duties entirely to my satisfaction.

The health of the station has been good. The pier has been repaired, and is now in a serviceable condition. The houses have also been cared for.

Part. II.

MEMORANDUM ON THE GOVERNMENTS AND DISTRICTS OF FARS
FOR 1875-76.

As here understood, and as the name is now commonly applied, Fars includes all the districts of Southern Persia Proper, Lar being considered one of its subordinate Governments. Thus to Fars pertains the whole sea-board from 50° E. longitude to 58° E. longitude, that is, from Bunder Dilam to beyond Cape Jask. Its northern limit is between the 31st and 32nd parallels of north latitude, where the village of Aminabad marks the boundary between the Fars and Ispahan Provinces.

To the west Fars is bounded by Khuzistan and Luristan, the village of Kala'i-A'ala being taken as the western limit of Behbahan.

On the north-east the district of Aberkoh lies between Fars and Yezd, belonging to neither at present, and from the north-eastern corner to a point at no great distance north of Bunder Abbass the Fars frontier marches with that of Kirman.

At one point on this line the eastern boundary of Fars is found at the village of Rud Khor in the district of Neyriz.

The districts of Bunder Abbass lie in the strip between the sea and Kirman and Bashkard, and are included in Fars in a political rather than geographical sense.

The superficial area of the tract of Persia thus indicated must, without allowance for the mountainous nature of the country, exceed 60,000 square miles.

The inhabitants are accustomed to regard this part of Persia as divided into the "Garmsir" or hot districts, and the "Sardsir" or cool districts, and these terms may be considered equivalent to "lowlands" and "highlands." Instead of the word "Sardsir," however, the term "Sarhadd" seems to be usually substituted.

A great part of the province of Fars is still, as regards Europeans, terra incognita, and the courses of the most important streams matter of conjecture. Many important additions to the geography of this as well as other portions of Persia have been made by Major St. John, R.E., whose forthcoming map will be much in advance of previous compilations.

The whole of this extensive and important Province is administered under the orders of the Governor-General of Fars who resides at Shiraz, the chief town. The Governor-General is assisted by a permanent Vice-Governor or Minister (the Mushir-ul-Mulk) who also resides at Shiraz.

The present Governor-General, who is styled "Firman-Firma," is the "Motemid-ul-Mulk," Yahya Khan, brother of the "Sipah Salar," lately styled "Sadr-Aazam," and is married to the Shah's only sister, the "Itzet-ud-Dowleh," widow of the well known Amir-i-Nizam, the Shah's first Prime Minister, who was killed at Kashan.

AND MUSCAT POLITICAL AGENCY FOR THE YEAR 1875-76. 7

For administrative and fiscal purposes, there are in Fars, in the first place, six principal Governments, the Governors of which divisions are responsible for the revenues and administration of the districts included in their respective charges.

It would however be incorrect to say that Fars is divided into such Governments, as many large and important districts are not included in any of the divisions to which the term "Principal Government" is applied.

Many such districts, whilst not being looked on as in themselves separate "Governments," are managed through the headman directly by the Shiraz authorities.

The following are what are considered chief Governments :—

I. Behbahan ; II. Bushire ; III. Lar and Saba ; IV. Bunder Abbass ; V. Darab ; VI. Abadeh and Iklid, all of which have again subordinate districts.

I.—Behbahan.

The Government of Behbahan* is at present administered by the "Ihtisham-ed-Dowleh," Sultan Aweyys Mirza, son of Ferhad Mirza, Motemid-el-Dowleh, uncle of the Shah. The revenues of this Government are realized partly through the Zabits or "Collectors" of the various districts, and partly from the Chiefs of the Eeliat tribes.

The principal districts of Behbahan are said to be :—

Huma, Jadawal, Zeydun, Lehrawi, Bunder-Dilam, Kohmarah, and the several villages inhabited by Arabs.

The following are Lari tribes of Behbahan :—

Bahmai	...	...	Chief Ja'afer Khan.
Teybi	...	...	" Hassan 'Ali Khan.
Niu	...	...	" 'Abbass Khan.
Charam	...	...	" Khan Mohammed Khan.
Buvair Ahmed of Sarhadd.		"	Mohammed Hassan Khan.
Buvair Ahmed of Garmsir.		"	Hussein Khan.

This district of Behbahan is little known to us, and the routes to Shiraz and Kazerun require further surveying. There are several good streams, notably the Tab and Jerahi.

At present there are said to be about 400 infantry, 26 artillerymen, and two guns in Behbahan.

II.—Government of Bushire and Districts.

II. At some periods Bushire and the attached districts have been administered by a Governor holding office directly under the Central Government at Teheran and independent of the Governor of Fars. At present, however, the Governor is subordinate to the Shiraz Government. The present Governor is Hossein Kuli Khan entitled "Saad-ul-Mulk." The authority of this Governor extends over a tract reaching on the sea side from about thirty miles north of the town of Bushire to the port of Deyyer to the south.

The Government of Bushire is divided into districts as follows:—

1. Bushire with Heyat Daood and Angalee.
2. Dashtistan.
3. Tengistan.
4. Dashtee.

The (1) Bushire district extends along the coast from Bunder Reg to Halilah Bay, and comprises under the town of Bushire the coastal sub-district of Heyat Daood and another to the north of town called Angalee, for each of which there are headmen under the immediate superintendence of the Governor.

The district (2) of Dashtistan consists of that portion of the low-lying plain between the sea and the mountains extending from the village of Dalikee to about Chakoota. The principal town of this district is Borazjan, and the headman or Zabit of the whole district is Mohammed Hassan Khan. The villages of Dashtistan amount to about twenty-four.

Next to Dashtistan to the southward is the district of (3) Tengistan, in which are upwards of thirty villages, the Chief of which is Ahram. This district opens on the sea. The present "Zabits" are Ali Khan and Haidar Khan. The inhabitants are a race renowned for bravery and speaking a dialect peculiar to themselves.

(4.) Dashtee is a more extensive and populous district than either of the two just mentioned. It has some 85 villages, the principal towns being Khormuj, and the present Chief, Haidar Khan. Dashtee lies south of Tengistan, and is bounded on the west by the sea, to the south by the Kongoon and Jam District, whilst to the eastward it extends to Booshkan in one of the valleys above the first range of mountains.

The Bushire districts are dependent almost entirely on the rainfall for the growth of crops. The rivers of Khisht and Dalikee skirting the district of Dashtistan, unite and flow into the Rohillah creek some miles north of the town of Bushire. The lower part of Dashtee is traversed by a river which flows into the creek called Khor Ziaret. It is supposed that this is the river called further up the Karagach (the ancient Silakus), which is supposed to rise near Shahpoor and flow round to the eastward of Ferozabad.

The Khor Ziaret can be entered by vessels of not exceeding six feet draught, and is navigable for such craft for some miles. I recently proceeded up the creek for about twelve miles, and the information elicited from the inhabitants of the district tended to confirm the conjecture that here is the embouchure of the Karagach river. It would be an interesting and useful undertaking to march up this river as far as possible.

Note.—In my Report for the year 1873-74 the districts of Dashtistan and Dashtee were both included in the former name, whereas they should have been mentioned as distinct districts.

III.—Government of Lar and Saba.

The present Governor of Lar and Saba (for so this Government is styled) is Mohammed Hassan Khan. The districts are given as follows:—

- |       |                |      |   |
|-------|----------------|------|---|
| (1.)  | Forg.          | (2.) | Tarum under deputies from the Governor. |
| (3.)  | Duragha,       |      | Zabit, Khairullah.                      |
| (4.)  | Feen           |      | Hajee Ali.                              |
| (5.)  | Fareghan       |      | Rais, Gharib Shah.                      |
| (6.)  | Firmand        |      | Same.                                   |

| (11.) | Bustak,        |      | Mustafa Khan.                           |
| (12.) | Shih-koh       |      | Sheikh Mazkur.                          |

It will be observed that certain sea-coast towns and districts do not appear in the list of districts or sub-divisions though within the geographical limits of Lar.

The Chief of Congun, Gabendee, and the Islands of Sheikh Shoeyb and Hinderabee, for example, is directly under the Shiraz authorities.

The port of Lingah and its district is likewise directly under Shiraz. The other seaports of Lar are under the Lar garrison, some being sub-districts of Bustak.

The Lar districts are little known to Europeans, and the geographical position of the town of Lar but vaguely known.

IV.—Government of Bunder Abbass.

The Government of Bunder Abbass is divided into districts as follows:—

- (1.) Bunder Abbass (about six villages).
- (2.) Shenul (about ten villages).
- (3.) Minab or Minao (about 30 villages).
- (4.) Biaban (16 villages).

The present Governor is Ahmed Shah. An interesting account of some of these districts was furnished to Government in 1873 by Assistant Surgeon Abdur Raheem Hakeem, and printed by order of Government.

V.—Government of Darab.

The Government of Darab and districts was entrusted last year to Mohammed Taki Khan Sirteep.

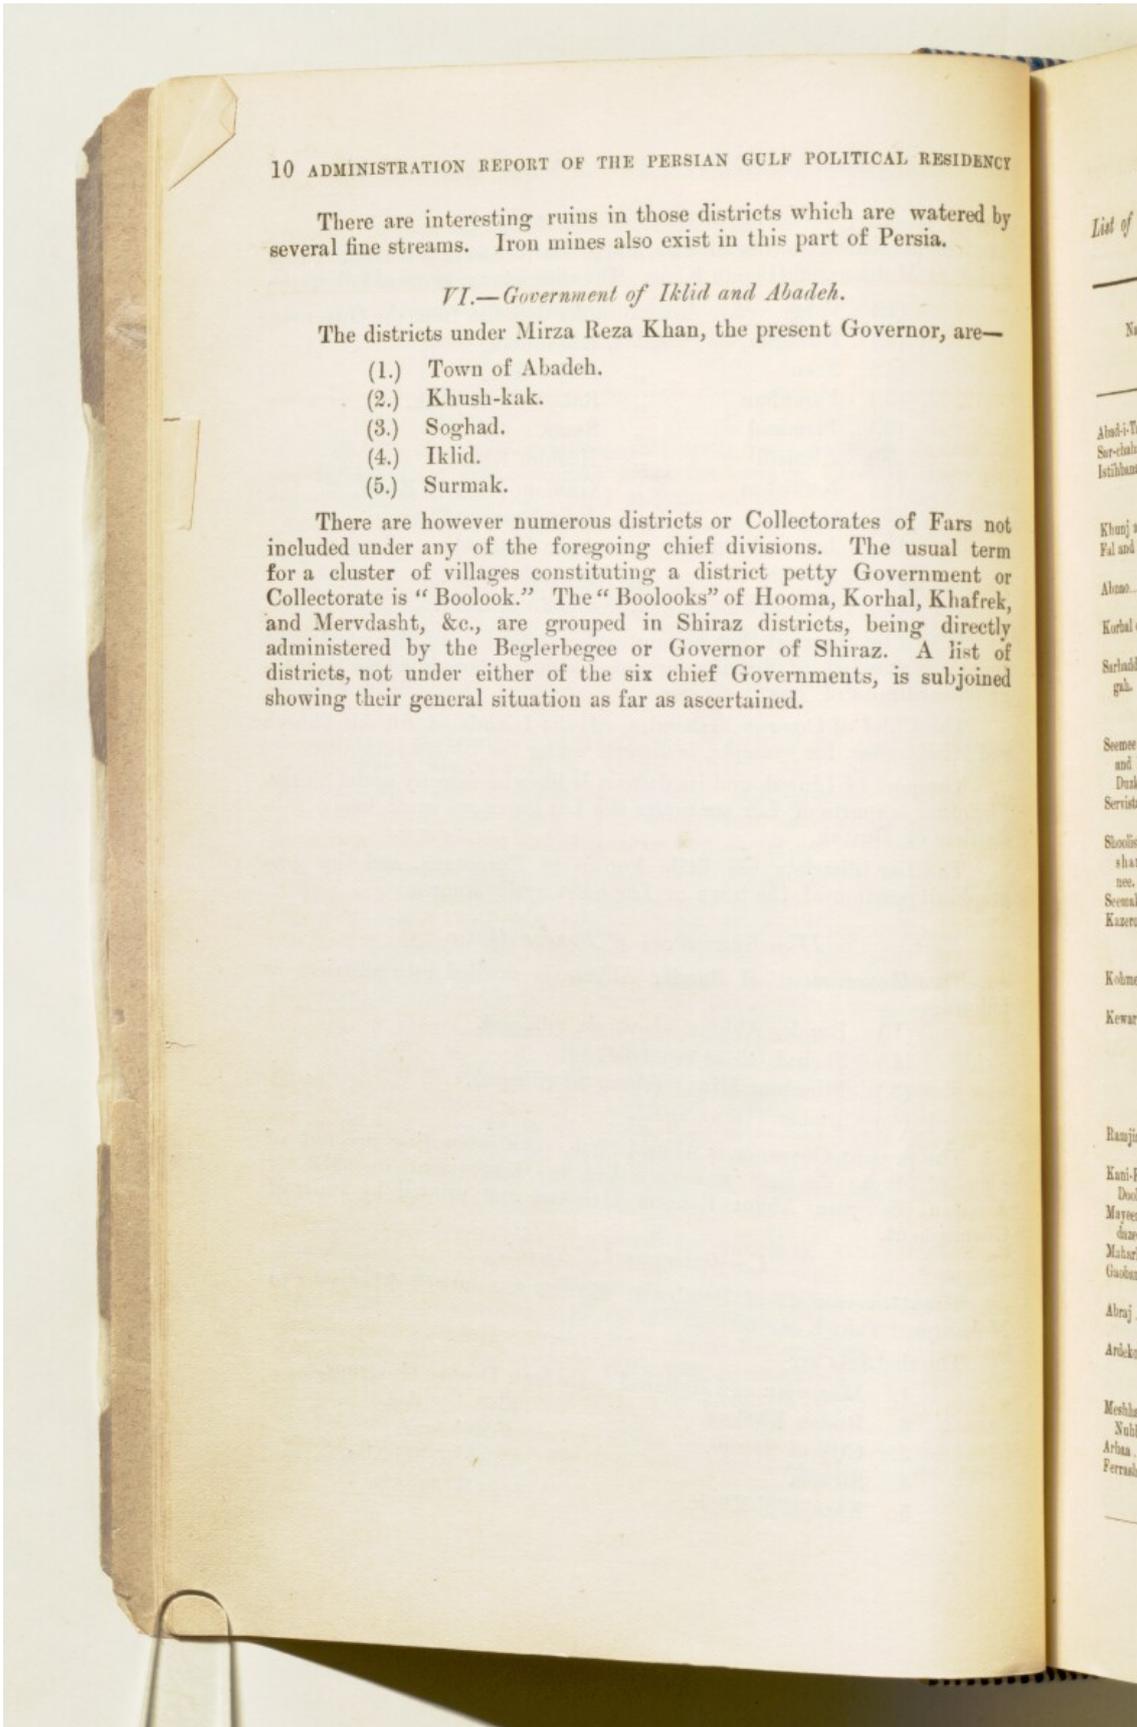

The districts are—

10 ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE PERSIAN GULF POLITICAL RESIDENCY

There are interesting ruins in those districts which are watered by several fine streams. Iron mines also exist in this part of Persia.

VI.—Government of Iklid and Abadeh.

The districts under Mirza Reza Khan, the present Governor, are—

- (1.) Town of Abadeh.
- (2.) Khush-kak.
- (3.) Soghad.
- (4.) Iklid.
- (5.) Surmak.

There are however numerous districts or Collectorates of Fars not included under any of the foregoing chief divisions. The usual term for a cluster of villages constituting a district petty Government or Collectorate is "Boolook." The "Boolooks" of Hooma, Korhal, Khafrek, and Mervdasht, &c., are grouped in Shiraz districts, being directly administered by the Beglerbegee or Governor of Shiraz. A list of districts, not under either of the six chief Governments, is subjoined showing their general situation as far as ascertained.

Eeliat or nomad tribes of Fars.

Some of the Eeliat tribes found in Behbahan have already been mentioned, and it was stated that they are Looree tribes. In other parts of Fars the Eels are "Toorks" and "Arabs." These pastoral people roam with their flocks from one pasturage to another according to the seasons. In the winter they frequent the comparatively lowlands, and when the increasing power of the sun commences to scorch the grass, they move off to cooler uplands. The winter encampments are termed "Kishlak," and the cool summer quarters "Yelak." Each tribe usually frequents the same tract year after year. In the early part of summer the Eeliats are on the move with their flocks and robberies are then frequent. It is necessarily difficult to form any estimate of the numbers of these tribes, but they form an important part of the population of Fars, and contribute some £12,000 to £15,000 of revenue yearly. The Eeliat population has greatly diminished of late years; as during the last famine many perished with a large proportion of their cattle and flocks; others have of late abandoned the nomadic life and become members of the settled population, and this has been particularly the case with the once notable "Feelee" tribe.

Of all the Eeliats of Fars the Kashkaee are most numerous, and although the number has greatly diminished since the famine, they muster about 8,000 houses. This tribe have been great breeders of horses, but at present comparatively few are reared amongst them.

The families (Teerah) of Kashkaee are Ader Bav, Chardeh, Chireek, Lashnee.

The Arab Eels have about 3,000 houses (or rather tents), and roam from their "kishlaks" in Saba to the summer pastures, or "yelaks" in Bowanat. They claim descent from the Benu Shaiban tribe of Arabia.

The Baseree tribe numbering about 1,000 houses are found in Mervdasht, Sirhadd-i-Chahar-dongah, and Servistan.

The Baharloo tribe of about 1,000 tents inhabit Darab; others are the "Anyaloo," the "Nafar" and Abu'lwardee," the "Tewalelee" and "Amlah Shahee;" the "Mamasennee" of about 1,000 houses inhabit Shoolistan.

The following tribes are nearly extinct as nomads having mostly settled in towns:—

"Feelee," "Bujat," "Berkushadee."

The Eeliats are for the most part governed immediately by Chiefs of their own who are appointed by the Government of Persia and held responsible for collection of revenue and the conduct of the tribes.

The Kashkaee tribe have at their head an Eel Khanee and Eel Begee. The former is the higher title, and the nominal Eel Khanee now is Sultan Mahommed Khan, but as matters are, this personage's office is practically in abeyance, and is administered by a Persian Officer, Nowzer Mouza.

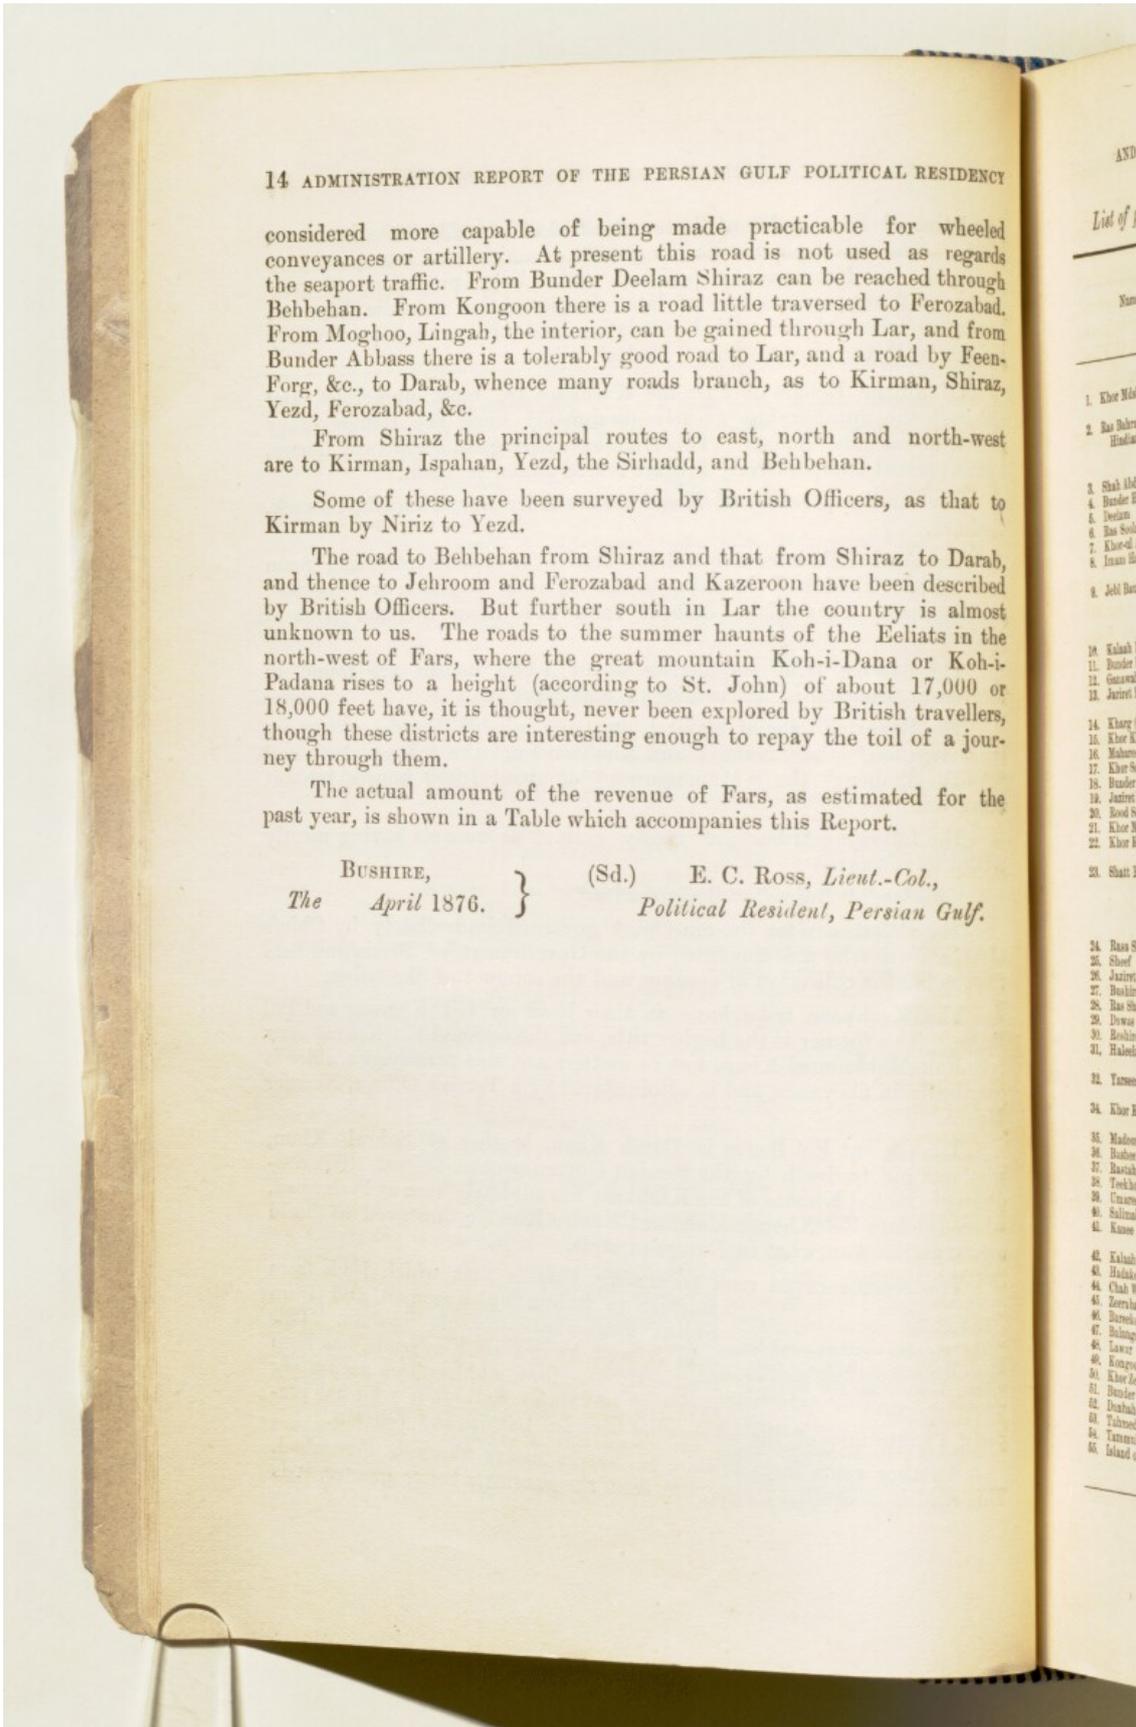

The present Eel Begee is Darab Khan, brother of Sohrab Khan, who was put to death by the Persian Government at Shiraz. The residence of the Eel Khanee of the Kashkaee has till lately been at Ferozabad, where the late Eel Khanee Mahomed Koolee Khan commenced to build a pretty villa somewhat in European style.

The chief caravan road traversing Fars is that which leads from Bushire to Shiraz by Kazeroon, and from Shiraz northwards towards Ispahan. This road is well known to Europeans, has been frequently described, and has been accurately surveyed by Major St. John, who has prepared a route map of the whole road between Bushire and Teheran.

Another route from Bushire to Shiraz passes through Ferozabad. This road is somewhat longer, but from the gradients being greater, it is considered more capable of being made practicable for wheeled conveyances or artillery. At present this road is not used as regards the seaport traffic. From Bunder Deelam Shiraz can be reached through Behbahan. From Kongoon there is a road little traversed to Ferozabad. From Moghoo, Lingah, the interior, can be gained through Lar, and from Bunder Abbass there is a tolerably good road to Lar, and a road by Feen-Forg, &c., to Darab, whence many roads branch, as to Kirman, Shiraz, Yezd, Ferozabad, &c.

"تقرير عن إدارة المقيمة السياسية في الخليج العربي والوكالة السياسية

From Shiraz the principal routes to east, north and north-west are to Kirman, Ispahan, Yezd, the Sirhadd, and Behbahan.

Some of these have been surveyed by British Officers, as that to Kirman by Niriz to Yezd.

The road to Behbahan from Shiraz and that from Shiraz to Darab, and thence to Jehroom and Ferozabad and Kazeroon have been described by British Officers. But further south in Lar the country is almost unknown to us. The roads to the summer haunts of the Eeliats in the north-west of Fars, where the great mountain Koh-i-Dana or Koh-i-Padana rises to a height (according to St. John) of about 17,000 or 18,000 feet have, it is thought, never been explored by British travellers, though these districts are interesting enough to repay the toil of a journey through them.

The actual amount of the revenue of Fars, as estimated for the past year, is shown in a Table which accompanies this Report.

2. Badinjun ...	6	5,400
3. Assanian Gerd ...	...	...	M. Rivadineyra's route crosses a river given as the "Tadaun" which he supposes proceeds from the "Karagatch." This is evidently the river which rises N.W. of Shiraz, flows through Kewar, joins the Ferozabad stream, and reaches the sea at Khor Ziarat in Dashtee. In Dashtee this river is also called the Mandu, vide map of Ferozabad route lately submitted.

Passed Hassanabad and a salt hill S.W. about seven miles, ruins of Kala-i-Darab Shah. South-eastward mosques cut in the rocks, and a Bas relief.
9. Khorebash ...	4	4,200	Pass an iron mine on right a few miles from station.
10. Seidabad ...	26	6,600	Cross bed of Rud Jam (dry), and river Ashkek and some ruined forts. At about 18 miles cross a road which connects Yazd and Bunder Abbass. Cross salt desert where M. AND MUSCAT POLITICAL AGENCY FOR THE YEAR 1875-76. 75

Al Wahibeh formed to protect Muscat. Towards the end of June a disagreement occurred between His Highness Syud Toorkee and his brother, Abdool Azeez, regarding the Customs farm and the conduct of His Highness' favourite dependent, a man named Mesh, which after some discussion resulted in the temporary dismissal of the latter from Muscat.

In July a body of about five hundred of the Al Wahibeh under Sheikh Hamood bin Said arrived at Muttrah, and having been admitted as friends into Muscat, took advantage of His Highness' position and the state of affairs to extort money and to impose hard conditions to which His Highness was compelled to yield. Partly in consequence of this affair His Highness Syud Toorkee and Abdool Azeez again became estranged and distrustful of each other.

On the 10th August a fresh disagreement took place between His Highness Syud Toorkee and Syud Abdool Azeez regarding the guards in the two forts at Muscat, and the estrangement eventually became so complete that His Highness determined on taking over the entire control of affairs himself and dispensing with the assistance of his brother altogether. His Highness, however, very soon found himself unable to carry on the government alone, and made a final resolve to retire from power in favour of his brother. On the 15th August His Highness Syud Toorkee, after a fresh demonstration of the Bedouins against his authority, betook himself on board the Rehmani corvette and appointed Syud Abdool Azeez to act as regent during His Highness' absence, it being his intention to retire to Gwadar. Syud Abdool Azeez accordingly assumed charge of the government, and His Highness Syud Toorkee having embarked on board Her Majesty's Rifleman left Muscat on the 21st August for Gwadar. The corvette Rehmani following after with His Highness' family.

Syud Abdool Azeez in taking up the government was greatly embarrassed in his finances, having no funds in hand, and his only source of revenue being the Custom-house. He had therefore some difficulty in getting rid of the large body of Bedouins who had by this time collected in Muscat to the number of about twelve hundred. His Highness was however aided in this by Sheikh Saleh bin Ali El-Harithhee, who had arrived at Muscat and entered into an arrangement to assist him in the government.

Most of the Hinawi tribes in the country had by this given in their promise to support His Highness' authority, but the Ghaffirees stood almost everywhere aloof. They were jealous of the Hinawi ascendancy, and doubtless dreaded lest they should experience much the same treatment and hostility from Syud Abdool Azeez as they had a few years before at the hands of Syud Azan bin Kais. Cabals and coalitions continued to take place accordingly among the Ghaffiree tribes for some time, but nothing resulted therefrom.

In September Sheikh Saleh bin Ali left Muscat to return to El-Sharkiyeh, which province he engaged to watch on behalf of Syud Abdool Azeez. The cause of Sheikh Saleh's retirement was partly due to a growing ill-feeling and jealousy between him and the Bu Hassan Sheiks, but the step was in opposition to the counsel of Syud Hilal.

76 ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE PERSIAN GULF POLITICAL RESIDENCY

In the beginning of November rumours were received of a meditated raid on Muscat by Sheikh Hameyd bin Khalifeen of the Al Wahibeh, but the report was exaggerated, and the intentions of Sheikh Hameyd were frustrated by the intervention of Saleh bin Ali.

In the same month an event occurred in El Sharkiyeh, in which three of the Bu Hassan were slain by a party of the Al Wahibeh, thereby establishing a blood-feud between these tribes which still remains open.

On the 11th December His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez left Muscat to proceed to Semail with the object, it is believed, of replacing the Ghaffiree garrison of that fort with a Hinawi one, and His Highness was still absent from Muscat when His Highness Syud Toorkee unexpectedly arrived at Muttrah on the night of the 13th in a native boat and succeeded in occupying that town and the forts commanding it without opposition. At this juncture Muscat was in charge of the Governor, Syud Mahomed Azan, and a small garrison of about sixty Bu Hassan, who on hearing of His Highness Syud Toorkee's arrival resolved to hold out and defend the place until orders had been received from His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez. They were repeatedly called on to submit but declined, and negotiations with them carried on by His Highness Syud Toorkee proved fruitless. In the meantime His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez wrote to the Governor of Muscat, requesting that the defence be continued, as he was collecting men and coming to their aid. His Highness had been growing increasingly unpopular for some time, and he seems to have miscalculated his power, as he was not able to gather sufficient force to leave Semail. His chief supporter, Saleh bin Ali, was not expeditious in joining him, and when at length Saleh moved out of Sharkiyeh, it was too late to avail any thing. On the 19th His Highness Syud Toorkee, who had been joined by a force of Ghaffirees from Nakhil, occupied the suburbs of Muscat, and firing continued for two days between his men and the town without any loss to either side. On the 21st the garrison offered to surrender and negotiations being completed, His Highness Syud Toorkee entered the town with his troops and resumed charge of the government. The first step of His Highness Syud Toorkee after assuming power was to appoint Syud Said bin Mahomed his Minister and chief adviser. His Highness also abolished some petty imposts and duties that had been imposed by His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez, and continued to adhere to his former general policy of conciliation.

At the end of December His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez, finding himself without funds and unsupported, left Semail and proceeded to join Sheikh Saleh in El Sharkiyeh. Before leaving Semail however, he had sent to His Highness Syud Toorkee, offering to come in and make terms through the mediation of the Political Agent. A satisfactory reply was returned by Syud Toorkee offering terms on the basis of Abdool Azeez retiring from Oman, but Abdool Azeez had left Semail without awaiting a reply to his message. His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez soon after changed his residence to Semed.

In February His Highness Syud Toorkee began negotiations for the surrender of the fort at Semail, which was still in possession of His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez, who had garrisoned it with a force of Beni Ruweyeh, the negotiations, however, proved fruitless, and His Highness having despatched a force with battering guns to the spot, succeeded in capturing it on the 26th after several days' bombardment and with a loss of about twenty killed on both sides in the attack.

In the same month His Highness Syud Toorkee despatched Syud Bedr bin Seif on a mission to Samed, and negotiations were carried on for some time with His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez through Sheikh Saleh, no result, however, was arrived at, and Syud Bedr returned to Muscat. Subsequently His Highness Syud Abdool Azeez wrote to the Political Agent, requesting an interview with a view to some arrangement being effected between himself and His Highness Syud Toorkee through the mediation of Government.

His Highness Syud Toorkee's position at the present time is encouraging, and with the able assistance of his Minister Syud Said will, it is hoped, continue to improve, though His Highness cannot be said to have a very secure tenure of power.

In the month of May 1875 Surgeon A. S. Jayakar, Civil Surgeon, who had proceeded on furlough to Europe, returned to Muscat and resumed his appointment from Surgeon C. T. Peters, M.B., who had acted for him.

Official changes.

During the year 1875 the beneficial effects of the steps that had been taken by Her Majesty's Government for the more effectual suppression of the trade on the East African Coast continued to be felt, and so far as is known only a few small dribbles of fresh slaves were landed. These were imported chiefly in bughlas under the French flag. The whole number, however, it is believed, did not exceed forty or fifty. No captures were made by Her Majesty's cruisers.

Slave Trade.

There has been a decided increase in the trade of Muscat during the past year as shown in the annexed Tabular Statements. The total increase of exports over those of the preceding year being $281,050 and of imports $209,765.

Trade.

The principal items of export are pressed dates and dry dates or karak. A considerable increase is observable in both of these, though the harvest last year was by no means favourable.

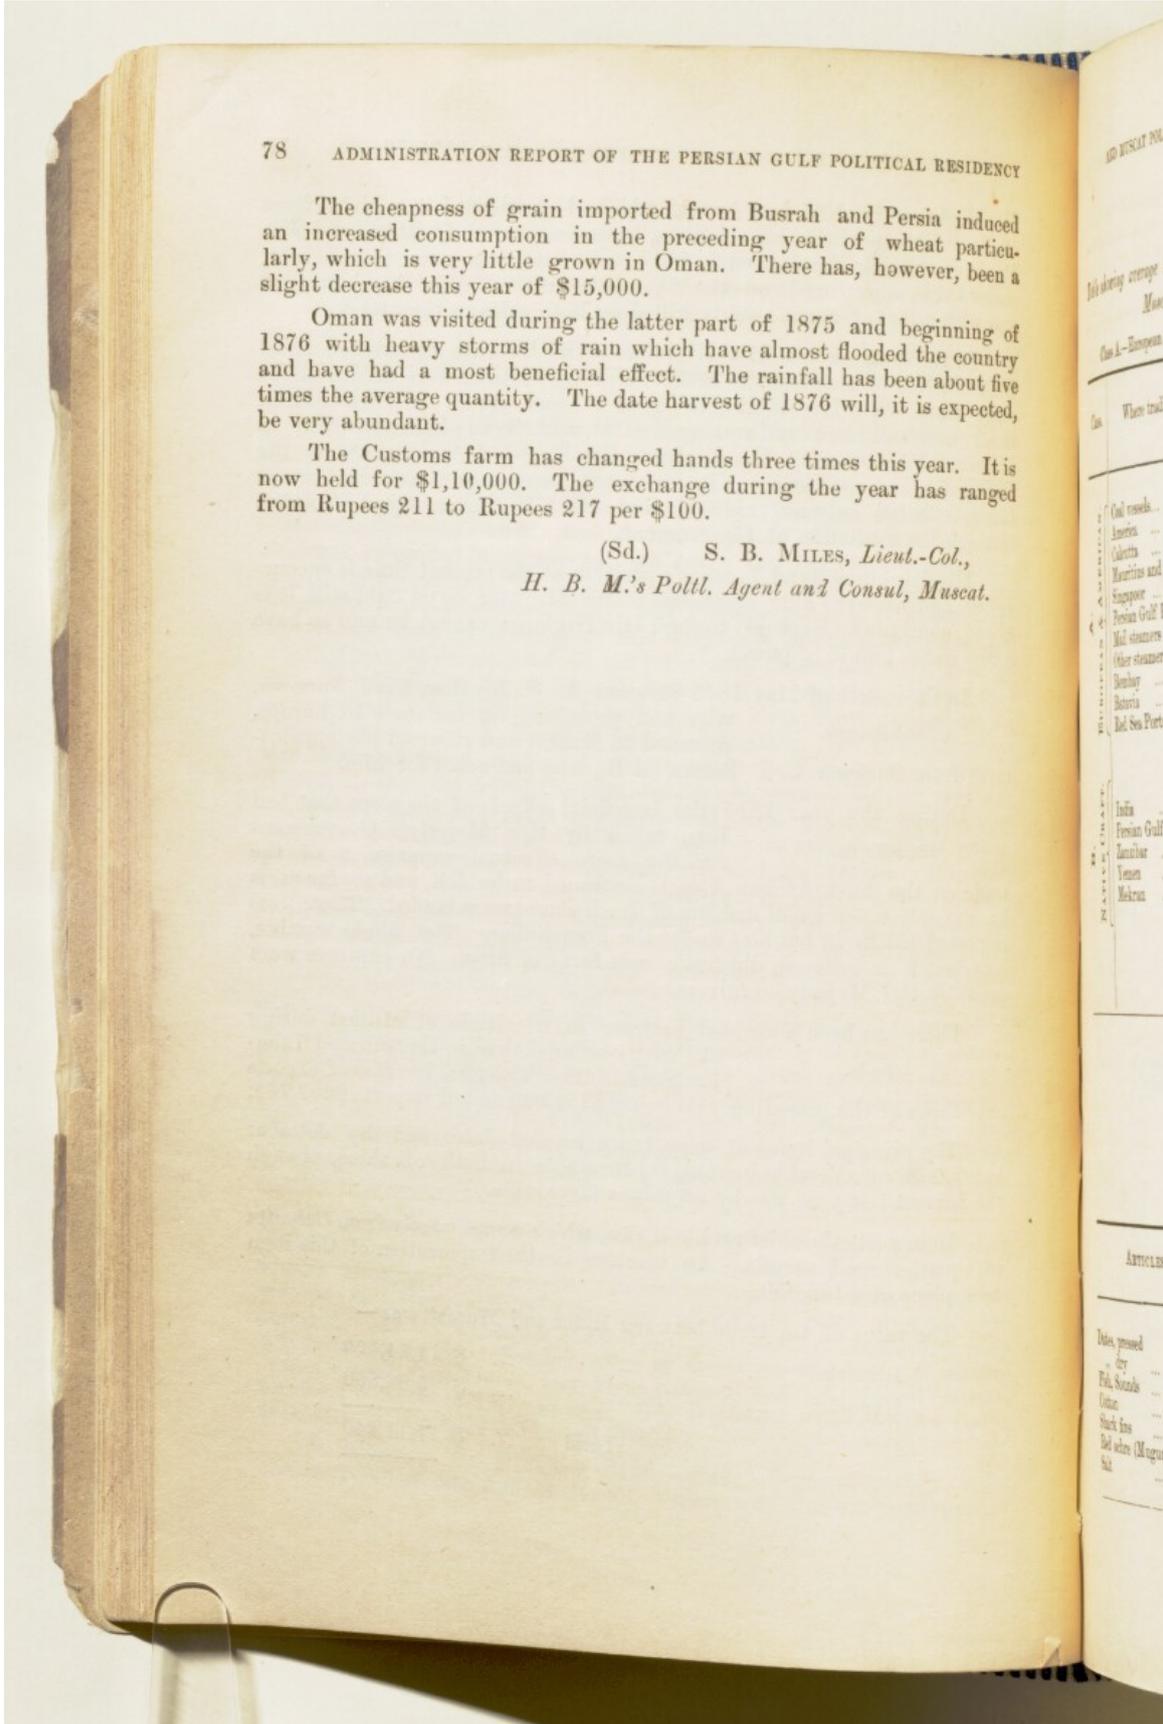

In imports the chief article is rice, which comes mostly from Calcutta in square-rigged vessels. An increase in the importation of this item took place of $132,350.

The value of the trade between India and Muscat was—

78 ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE PERSIAN GULF POLITICAL RESIDENCY

The cheapness of grain imported from Busrah and Persia induced an increased consumption in the preceding year of wheat particularly, which is very little grown in Oman. There has, however, been a slight decrease this year of $15,000.

Oman was visited during the latter part of 1875 and beginning of 1876 with heavy storms of rain which have almost flooded the country and have had a most beneficial effect. The rainfall has been about five times the average quantity. The date harvest of 1876 will, it is expected, be very abundant.

The Customs farm has changed hands three times this year. It is now held for $1,10,000. The exchange during the year has ranged from Rupees 211 to Rupees 217 per $100.
