حول هذا السجل

يحتوي الملف على نسخ مطبوعة من نشرة إضافات وتصحيحات للشخصيات الهامة في مقاطعة الحدود الشمالية الغربية التي تصدر مرتين كل سنة، وذلك عن السنوات من ١٩٣٤ حتى ١٩٣٧. تُعد هذه المجموعة من السير الذاتية إحدى النشرات العديدة السرية وذات الطابع السري الصادرة عن الاستخبارات الهندية، والتي كانت متوفرة للضباط والموظفين العاملين. وهي تقدم معلومات حول هوية ونشاطات وجهات اتصال السكان البارزين والقبائل التي تعيش في الأقاليم العديدة من مقاطعة الحدود الشمالية الغربية من الهند البريطانية [مقاطعة خيبر بختونخوا، باكستان]. مرفق بالملف عديد قليل من المراسلات في سنة ١٩٣٤ بين مسؤولي مكتب الهند في لندن ووزارة الطيران في لندن، بخصوص طلب الأخيرة الحصول على نسخ من نشرة "الشخصيات الهامة" وجميع التعديلات المستقبلية.

W. W. 122-A.—Mirbat, Subedar, son of Salam, Alikhonai Khushali Tori Khel.—One of the most loyal Khassadar Company Commanders who had to be dismissed in pursuance of the Tori Khel blockade in 1937. Was of great assistance to the Faqir of Ipi (W. W. 132-A) in his hostilities against Government. Made peace with Government in 1938 and is again a faithful servant.

W. W. 132-A.—Mirzali Khan, Haji, known as the Faqir of Ipi. Son of Arsalah Khan, Maddi Khel Tori Khel of Ipi village.—Till 1936 a very ordinary mullah who was not known outside his village. By preaching "Jihad" and making extensive capital out of the Islam Bibi case he raised a formidable lashkar in the Khaisora Valley in 1936. Its dispersal necessitated military operations on a large scale from November 1936 to January 1937. He then moved to the Shaktu where again large scale operations were undertaken in April 1937. Continued to give trouble throughout 1937 and early in 1938 his party started the planting of bombs on Government roads and other places of common use. Fanatical and openly hostile towards Government. Is regarded as a Saint Warrior, is much respected by all tribes of Waziristan and neighbouring Afghan tribes, and has considerable influence among them. Nearly all the tribes of Waziristan and Afghan tribes of adjoining country took part in his hostilities against Government.

(Dir, Swat and Chitral Agency, Part I.)

No. 9, Abdul Wadud, K.B.E., Miangul Gulshahzada. Add at the end "In 1934, he delegated full powers of administration to the Wali-Ahad, his heir-apparent. Evidently his intention was to make his son's position as secure as possible before his actual succession and to give him the greatest possible experience. Later on however he became dissatisfied with the manner in which the Wali-Ahad had used the powers conferred upon him and being persuaded that these powers were being used against his Chief Minister and Sipah Salar (Commander-in-Chief) he decided to take over complete control once again. Rather drastic action was taken to assert his authority. Efforts were made to reconcile the two in order to maintain unity in the State and were partially successful."

No. 16, Abdur Razaq. Delete. Is dead.

No. 44, Faqir Shah. Add "In August, 1934, he tried to carry out his Amr-i-Maruf on the border of the Protected Area and B. T. and his lashkar had a brush with the Dir and Swat Levies at Sillai Patti. Later on in October 1934, he announced a jihad against the Chitral Relief Column on its return journey and raised a lashkar of Utman Khel with the intention of attacking the Chitral Relief Column between Sado and Bandagai. He was beaten off by the Nawab of Dir's forces and air action. Again in February, March and April 1935, he collected lashkars of Utman Khel and Bajaur tribes with the help of Badshah Gul and Gul Sahib and attacked the Agra Salient in the Protected Area but was driven out by Government forces."

No. 50, Fazl-i-Latif of Badragga. Add "Is a Kursi Nashin".

No. 89, Mohd. Yusaf. Add "He joined the Faqir of Alingar in the Agra hostilities of 1935".

No. 104, Riza Khan. Add "Transferred to Talash in April, 1935".

No. 117, Shah Jahan Khan. Add "During 1934 he conducted the Chitral Relief Column through Dir State safely. He discharged his obligations very creditably by organising vigorous action and beating off the Faqir of Alingar's lashkar who attempted to cross the Panjkora river to attack the Chitral Relief Column on its downward march between Sado and Bandagai. In May, 1935, he helped in bringing the Shamoza'i jirga to negotiate with the Political Agent at Chakdarra in connection with the Agra settlement."
