Keep Act 19/4

Mr. Joyce
Mr. D. J. [unclear]

Mr. Peel, I have written to the [unclear] & [unclear] when I receive their reply.

Mr. Joyce
Mr. D. J. [unclear]

I should be glad if you would write to the Director of Information as you suggest.

Act 17/4

The main objection to this article - apart from its generally anti-British tone - viz, I suppose, its references to British friendliness for Muslims, which is represented as unfair to Hindus, and its pro-Russian bias. I do not know on what footing we are with "Reynolds News" but do you advise any action of the kind suggested by the P. of I.?

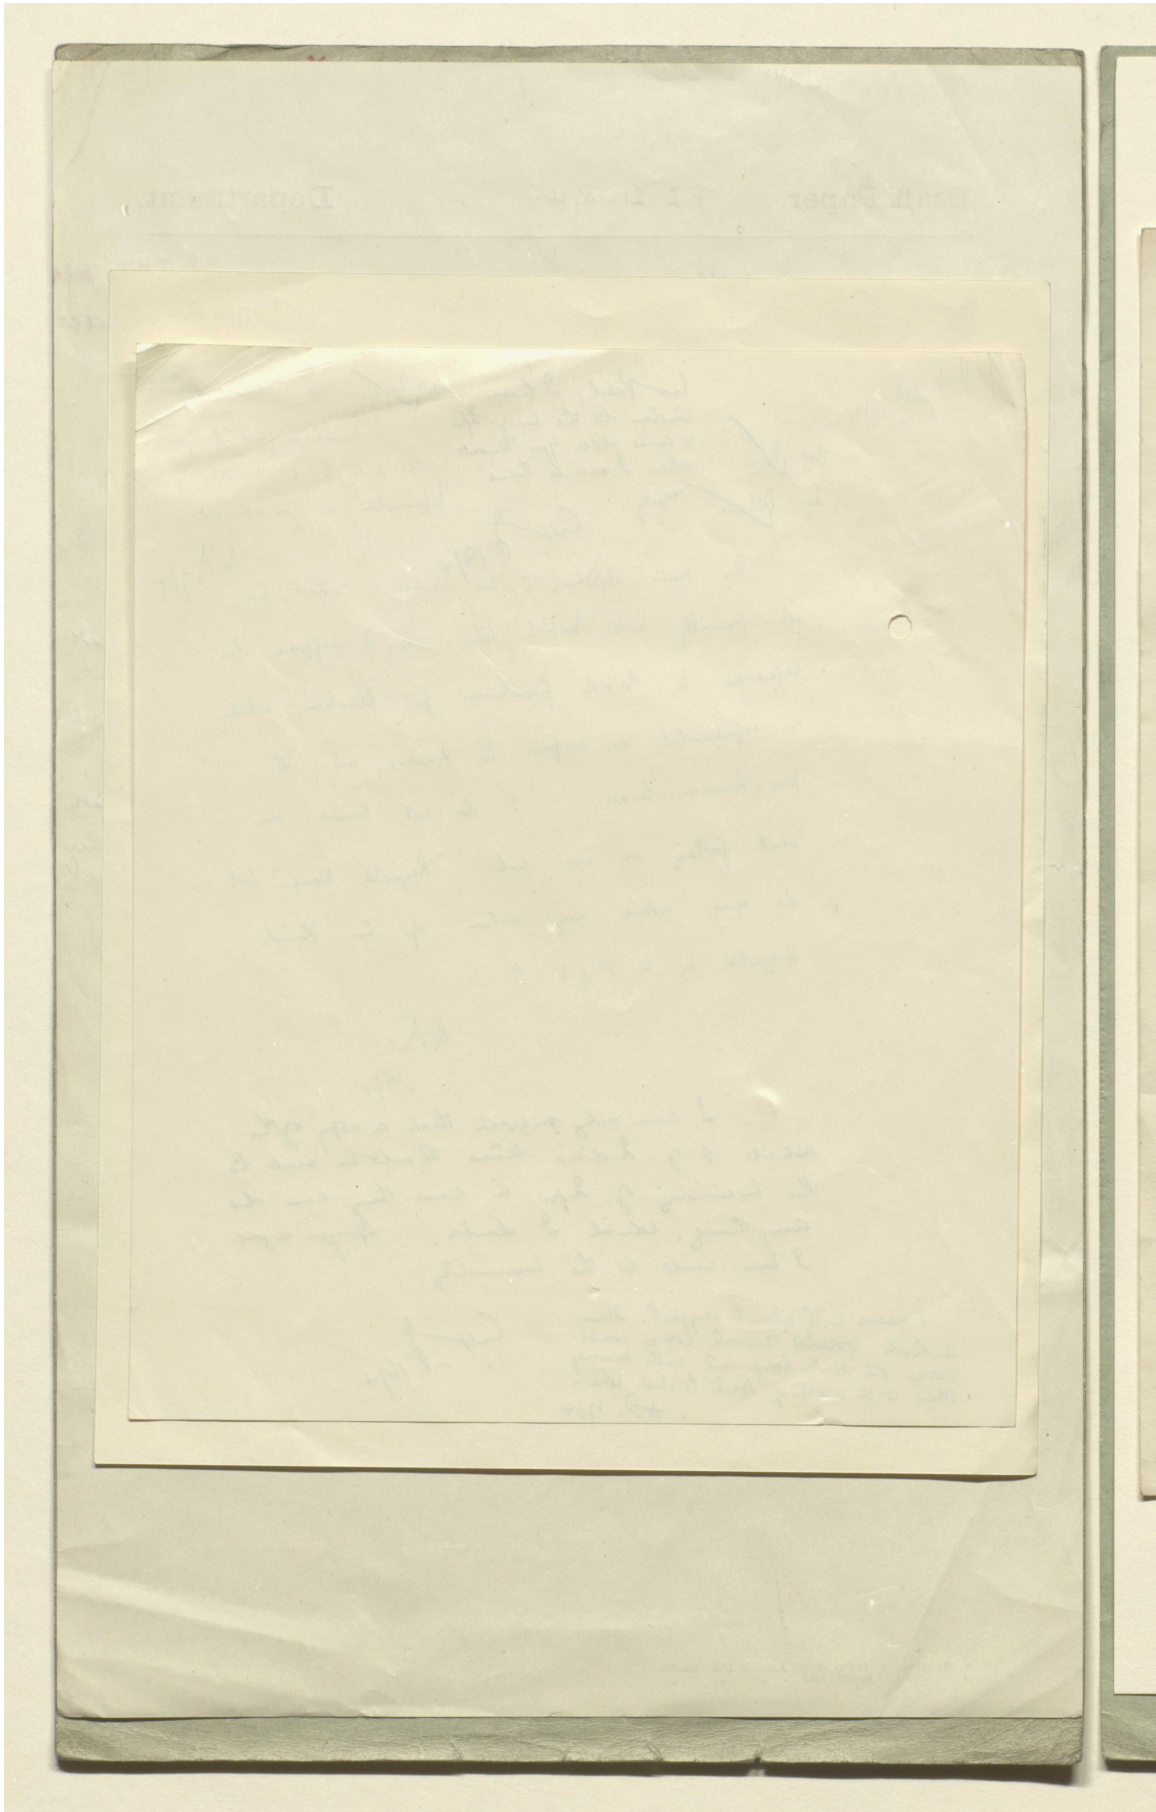

Act 19/4

I can only suggest that a copy of the article & of India's lines should be sent to the [unclear] of Dept in case they can do anything, which I doubt. If you agree I will write to the [unclear].

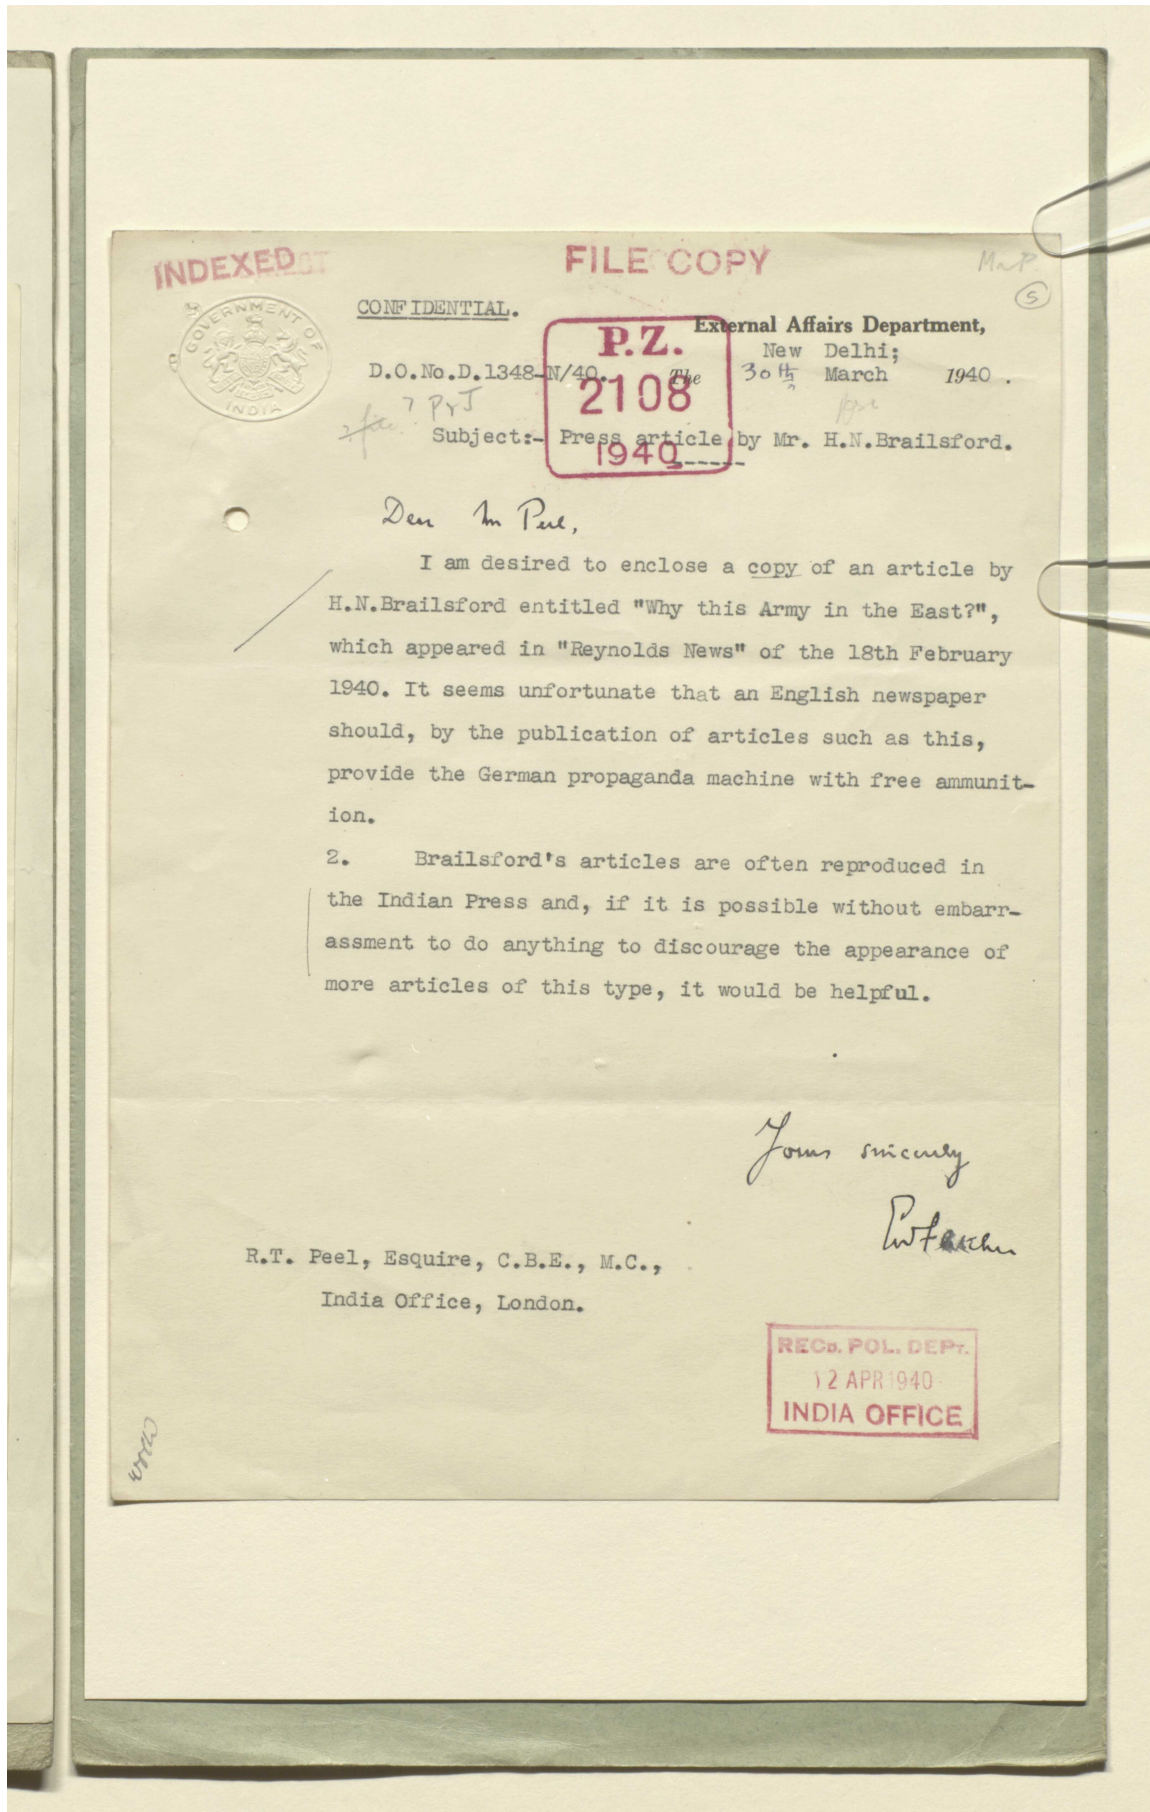

I have not direct suggest. This article would surely come well down the scale compared with many others - the matter of [unclear] British tone - A.D. 12/4
