Romeit
7/8/4.
D/W. 3.

My dear Hajir,
I reached here all right & have already begun to bombard you & Mr Sequera & Mr Gandy with letters. The two latter I have written to about a small flagstaff & some stationery I did not think it worth while to trouble you about these small matters & so took the liberty of writing to them direct.
2. I think you will be interested to hear that the Sheikh regarded my visit with some suspicion & asked Khalid if I had come to interfere in his (٦٦/١٢)

private affairs. Khalil reassured him & as he said nothing of the kind to me personally, I contented myself with telling him, as if spontaneously, that the Government had sent me to help him in all his legitimate wishes & that I hoped to help him in all his interests.

3. I have addressed you officially about Abdul Aziz bin Salim & hope you will be able to make another representation to Govt. on the strength of that letter.

4. Mr. Barak read me his reply to your letter.
I did not say that it sounded rather ungracious & patronizing but only said that I preferred

7 dealing with a man<sup>by</sup> who said what was in his heart whether rough or smooth. He has really some grounds for his sentiments, as it must be particularly falling for him to see how little we can do in so small a matter as the release of his servant.
It is evident that he feels it keenly.

5: My private reception has been most kind & cordial. The Sheikh has set apart three large rooms for my own & my servants accommodation.

He insists on feeding me & my servants while I am staying with him.
At the two big meals

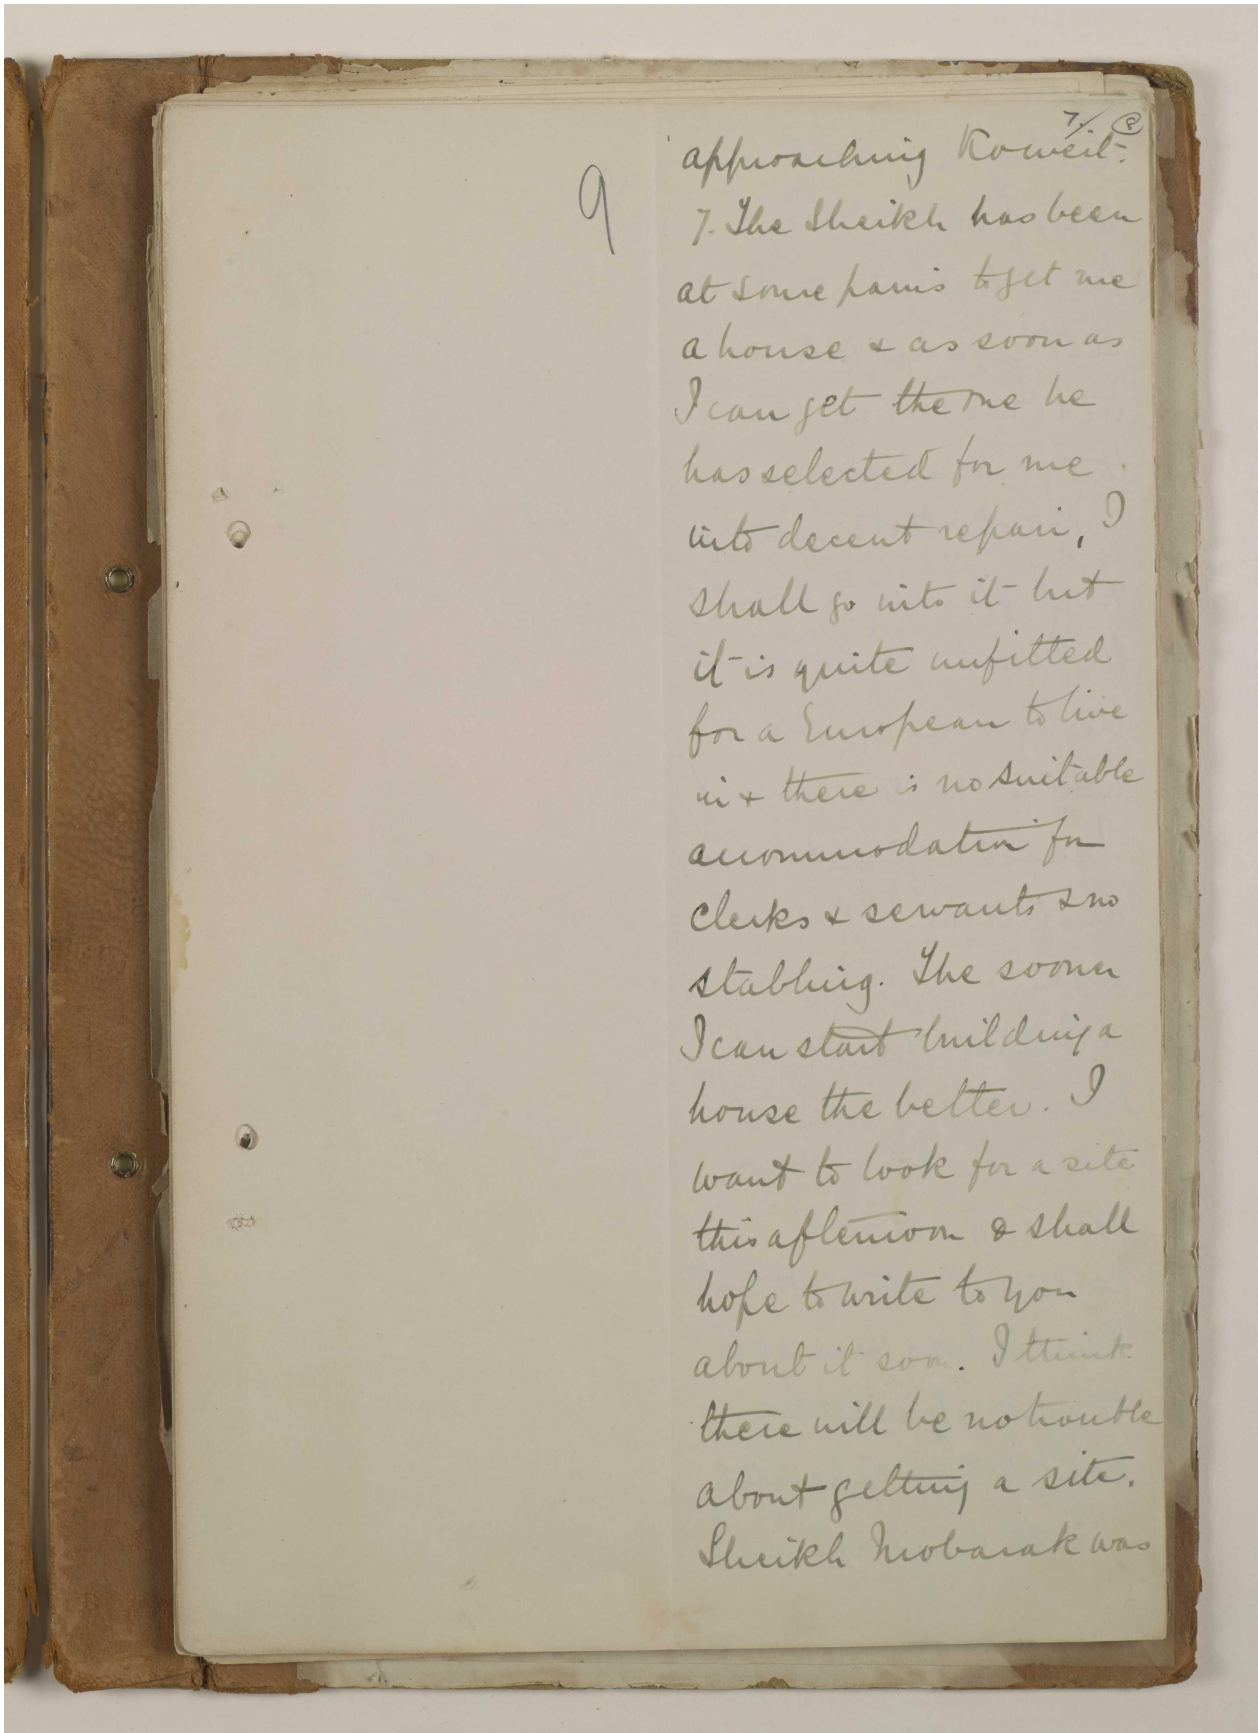

[ ١ تعيين أول وكيل سياسي في الكويت، (النقيب س. ج. نويس). " [٧/ظ/١" (٦٦/١٤) of each day, he comes & feeds with me &, as Khalil cannot be decently left out & is useful as an interpreter, we three sit down together. The feeding is distinctly good if it were not for that abominable habit of sending up all the courses together so that the last dish has become cold.

6. Khalil is most useful & works valiantly. I forgot to mention that I sent him ashore in the gig & followed some time later in one of the boats. It was Khalil who presented your letter. The mail boat flew my flag when 9 approaching Kuwait.<sup>7/18</sup>

7. The Sheikh has been at some pains to get me a house & as soon as I can get the one he has selected for me into decent repair, I shall go into it - but it is quite unfitted for a European to live in & there is no suitable accommodation for clerks & servants & no stabling. The sooner I can start building a house the better. I want to look for a site this afternoon & shall hope to write to you about it soon. I think there will be no trouble about getting a site. Sheikh Noorak was telling me that he was giving away land freely to encourage settlers & he will not treat me worse than the general public.

8. I hope there will be no difficulty about the funds for repairing the house for me to live in for the present.
I shall attempt nothing ambitious. It is no use.

9. I think this is all I have to say for the present. Some few items of news of political interest that Khalil has been able to pick up will be sent to you separately.
With kind regards

Business or a transfer to some lower paid post in India would do me no good, as I have been compelled to send my wife home to England & stand committed to the expense of a double establishment - one in England - for some time to come.

5. The result has been that my move to Koweit has proved a distinct loss to me pecuniarily without taking into consideration the fact that it seems more than probable that the appointment involves a number of expensive moves coupled with the necessity to be ready to proceed to Koweit at a moment's notice. This possibility was not foreseen - at least by myself - when I accepted the appointment on the original terms offered.

6. At that time, I entertained no delusions as to the chance of any profit accruing to me from the ~~post~~ tenure of the post. The additional Rs 200, I fully realized, would not compensate me for the extra expense involved. The appointment, however,

[ ١ تعيين أول وكيل سياسي في الكويت، (النقيب س. ج. نويس). " [ ٣ و١ ]" (٦٦/٢٥)

offered some chances of distinction <sup>12.12</sup> an independent charge & I <sup>17</sup> (13) accepted it gladly.

7. If I had understood that, owing to circumstances beyond my control, the emoluments would, six months later, have been so materially reduced, I should have been compelled, so long as I was allowed an option in the matter, reluctantly to decline the appointment on the score of expense, while thanking the G. of D. for the honour done me in selecting me to hold a difficult post after the 1st September as possible.

As far as my private affairs go, it would inconvenience me to leave for India before the mail of the 29th Sept. from Marseilles which would bring me to Koweit on October the 19th &:

But, ~~the~~ <sup>if I sail</sup> ~~by~~ that mail boat, two difficulties present themselves.

In the first place I have to circumvent the regulations about the 6 months leave, for, if my entire leave is changed to sick leave, I shall lose a good deal of pay. I venture to think this would hardly be fair to me, when I am going out more in the interest of my work than in my private interest.

In the second place, I shall have some difficulty in obtaining a passage by the "Persia" which sails on the 29th September. I understand that the P. & O. boats are all filled up. I have written to day to try & secure a berth but I think a word from the India office to say that ~~it~~ it was important that I should go by that mail would procure me a passage at once. I hope [ ١ تعيين أول وكيل سياسي في الكويت، (النقيب س. ج. نويس). " [ ٢٠/١ ]" (٦٦/٤٣)

that this request is not a very extraordinary<sup>21</sup> me & that you will forgive me, if it is.<sup>22</sup> I hold a pass for a return ticket but it does not guarantee any particular boat.

But, apart from all this, my private affairs are not so important that I would wish them to stand in the way of my work & I am perfectly ready to sail, if required to do so, as soon as <sup>a</sup>the Medical Board pronounces me fit to travel. I fear they would not allow me to face a monsoon passage. It might be easier to obtain a passage by an earlier boat.
It would be a source of great regret to me personally if important events were happening in Koweit & I was not there.

If it is considered advisable for me to go by an earlier boat than that of the 29th September, would you kindly let me know on what date I should attend the Medical Board, for the purpose of ascertaining

FORM OF MEDICAL CERTIFICATE.

To be submitted for permission to return to duty in India.

N.B.—This form of certificate, filled up and signed by two qualified medical practitioners, may be submitted by an officer who is residing more than 60 miles from London, and desires to be exempted from presenting himself before the Medical Board at the India Office. It should be understood that any officer, even if he has produced this certificate, is liable to be called upon to appear before the Medical Board; but this is less likely to be required if the certificate states fully the officer's present condition with reference to the nature of the disability for which he was granted sick leave.

If the certificate be obtained abroad, and be signed by foreigners, their signatures must be attested by consular or other authority as those of qualified medical practitioners.

We certify that we have carefully examined _____ and find that he is in good health and fit to return to his duty in India.

[Particulars of the officer's present condition, showing that he has been examined with reference to the disability on account of which his leave was granted or extended, should be stated here.]

8. Captain S.G. Knox , Political Agent, Koweit, Persian Gulf, came to this country on privilege leave for two months and 24 days, with effect from the 24th of May last, but owing to his having to undergo an operation, he was granted furlough on medical certificate for 14 weeks and one day, i.e., combined leave for a period of six months.
His leave, therefore, does not expire until the 23rd of November next, but he has now been pronounced by the Medical Board to be fit to return to duty and as I consider it desirable on public grounds that Captain Knox should return to his duty in the Persian Gulf as soon as he is able, I have permitted him to return, and have decided that Articles 233 (iv) of the Civil Service Regulations shall be waived in his case.

3. The Comptroller India Treasuries informs me that no orders have been issued sanctioning these increased allowances & he attributes the rates shown against my name to a printer's error.

4. I notice however that the error, if such it is, is repeated in the latest publication on the subject which reached me yesterday & I would invite a reference to page 41. of the Quarterly Civil List <sup>of the Foreign Dept</sup> corrected

5. In accordance with the rates laid down in salary drawing the following
