حول هذا السجل

جزء من يوميات تصف جزءاً من الرحلة الثالثة لشركة الهند الشرقية على متن السفينة هيكتور ، من دليشة [قلنسية]، وهي مدينة ساحلية على الساحل الشمالي لسوقطرة، إلى سورات بقيادة النقيب ويليام هوكينز.

تتألف اليوميات من مدخلات يومية تسجل المعلومات الملاحية بما في ذلك إعداد خط سير الرحلة في إنجلترا والمسار والرياح والمجرى المائي وملاحظات عامة. في الحالات التي تكون فيها السفينة في المرسى، أو مبحرة بالقرب من الشاطئ، فإن المدخلات تكون عبارة عن ملاحظات عامة.

Mondaye the 17th of July was spent the daie in the service of God the 18th our longe boate wente a shore and fetched some for ballist the 19th and so to the 22th was followed for Egyppe busines Wednesdaye the 23th of July of the ymare was launched and named the Popowall, this daie came aboard olde Amstward and was very well received of his shipp discase Mondaye the 24th of July was spent the daie in the service of God the 25th and so to the 30th of July was prepared of Egyppe to bee gone and brought our sailles to the yarde and made all things ready against Mondaye, beinge the daie appointed to depart Mondaye the 31st of July was spent the daie in the service of almighty God: and after prayer of Captain wente a shore August the 1st and so to the 3rd of the same wee made preparation to bee gone and had taken all our provisions of the Engrate and of the Bayard had returned to the Captain and of the Engrate and of the Bayard to deliver at Swett, and so had returned from the blanke Capt at the of commendation to the people of Swett to the first house we had bene in these companies some 3: more had and old and had beared of eldred well towards them and therefore wee expected the better entertainment from the people of Swett and Ambaia the 4th in the morninge wee made one of the Amstward made the other ready to bee wayed intendinge to bee gone by the first start of mynde we had of the Lord was raine about 11: or 12 of the thort: the same daie at 11: the same was made of Amstward dyked from Deliska and had on course for Swett this daie in Sabage the mth mate and sth of the morn went aboard the ymare for a full doo to saile for alomge to Swett Sabage went mth and sth: of Appoline Robt Wilbone in Bridgob Josiab Illaxid and Gullmo Hartmann went for salter and this in Gods name was depra together the sth and the 6th daie was beinge put out to sea by a firmation some 6: league or thereabouts some the mynde faire but over blowing exceedingly in so many let mee we are constrained to port saile and you are under of lowe saile ymagine had of mane for saile blown out of the bolt ropes and plit and for end and so side was said a late sprang one of the larboard quarter above water one of Carpenter stopped at once of put the pump to be good Auguste 7th found of more land some by me a full land some by me a trid but of Lipp would not full but by exceedinge greater danger unto for by laboring in the Sea: in so much as more land a trid under of mine stonke and stood some by me to the Eastward and some by me to the Westward not much mynd and exceedinge great Sea, for that was made for weather and stentymed split of a sail 8th of August more gentle weather, so that was stood against on of South for South, had of company by me to maximum for part of portuall: upon complaunt beinge said how we are allowed 2: stons of bread more to eat me for the morninge and 2 quartes of pease to be supplint to make the peasee soude out the better for the meale to be eate present, and his was thought fitting in regard of the cold weather: to give the company comfort:

9th of August exceedinge faste and the mynde somewhat overblowinge was stood it of to the Southward by a North sails fearinge to put in any party for the danger of the Sea 10th of August at noon was stood against of South for South sailinge by the mynde beinge mild and gentle, blowinge not the force we also woulde breake byp and our sleeds hat was moueth boldly put for the South without danger 11th of August was kepte of South East for the moste part and had faire temperate weather, onlie fell a little raine the 12th at my selfe my daie we made observation of the Comet and founde it to be in 19 degrees 40: North latitude founde the 14th of August we kepte of South East and observinge the comet at noon founde it to be in 20 degree North latitude the 15th we kepte of South East and East and by some supposinge to see the lande but could not, beinge for the lande the 16th in the fore noone the pyrate was sent before to discover the lande and founde a goodly sounde and founde grounde at 20: fathoms but sawe no lande Wee fowd in all that night & late for the most pte but could see noe Lande and founde all the compe was went 18: 19 and commonly 20 fathome water and Obie ground the 19th the former pte of the day wee kepte o compe & it steermye in the soe the Lande but could not, And at noone observinge the some forme o solus to be in 20: degrees 40: minutes north latitude, and thinkinge so the Lande southe our pyrate afore the sonnde somt leauge a leude ore more and then to come to an Anse wee arby to adrese o the soltinge o the tyde, soe wee rommye by the and passage by pre and a stronge tyde to sett to the E the north east. Soe we altered o compe and steered away southe sporinge to see DAMON but could not, nor any other Lande, yet wee sawe there weatzen soe wee kepte on still o compe and founde o depth yonge in berie: uncertaine for at one cast we founde 20 fathoms at another 14: at a nother 10, and some uncertaine depths, but never lesse then 10 fathoms and Obie grounde

The 20th in the morninge betwixt wee came to an Anse where in some 2 leauge o the southe in 10: fathome water and sabinge a rownde Sumort boarunge east southe o the land in an open place bearinge east & east and by north o the boe certaine trees apertinge somewhat soe but firme and wyl rownde topps, e north east and by north o the boe was a rownde Sumort like ad yt said bene the platforme o some forte and standing by it a little to the north was a ligg tree all alone the waye like a pole steeply and beyond ad the market more wyl in the southe sigle lunde and some to be full o the trees and Wood, soe at our rommye to Anse, o sable brok bearinge out the fathome, but sabinge a good buy ropes and a buy to our Anse wee returned yt mynne
