Copy

Sir,

I do myself the honor to forward enclosed a translation of a letter which I have received from the Prince of Shiraz, by the hands of Hussen Khan in the capacity of a keel from the Persian Court.

I pointed out to the Keel the total impossibility of any reply to his questions regarding the occupation of this Island without reference to Bombay and that for any opinion further than a belief of the British nation wishing to preserve the strictest friendship with the Persian Court, it must be referred to the Hon<sup>ble</sup> the Governor in Council at Bombay from whence my orders emanated.

He did not urge that part of his instructions prohibiting the building of the Seapays huts.

considered as the point most to be apprehended. The Mercury Courier is the only one on this station, besides the Discovery, Surveying Ship now at anchor in the roads. To make a few necessary repairs or I would have sent a vessel to ascertain if any preparations are making at that point.

I have also to acquaint you, that the Agent of the Imam at Branderabas, has intimated to me, that Nasser Khan of Lar, has instructions from the Prince of Shiraz to raise 12,000 troops and that they are actually collecting and that the Prince intended to leave Shiraz in a few days to command in person, the number of men the Prince would bring from Shiraz is not mentioned. A man by the name of Muzza Baquer Khan is coming along the coast from Bushire to secure boats as he states for the use of the Prince with orders to endeavour to procure them from the
