To

The Chairman & Members of the Secret Committee of the Honble Court of Directors

Honourable Sir Sirs

The King has personally expressed to me a wish to procure for him from the Honble Company the Articles mentioned in the enclosed Memo which I promised to submit to your consideration

The Articles in themselves are of no great value and a refusal to comply with His wishes might at this moment have been productive of inconvenience -

I have the honour to be with great respect

Honourable Sir Sirs

Your most obedient Faithful humble Servant
J Macdonald
