accounts from our agent at Sharjah Moollah Aoussein, it appears, that Sheik Mukhlom the Chief of Debye has detained a bited and bugarab / belonging to abothabeo / together with their crews. as this proceeding is both irregular, and in contravention to the Maritime Truce, I have addressed a letter to Sheik Saed ben Butyo / who in the absence of his brother Mukhlom is acting as Governor of Debye / requiring him forth-at liberty after communicating with Moollah already done, I request you will press the Sheik upon the subject, as far as you compliance, you will be pleased to inform him he will be held responsible for his contumacy, services of the Brig however are not urgently required at this moment, and if you continue to be of opinion, that it would not be advisable to detach her alone on separate service, or to send her away to Couzo by herself on the Arabian Coast at this unsettled and stormy season, all of which it is not unlikely she might be required to do, if retained on the station as fit for general duty, I concur with you in the expediency of despatching her to Bombay at once, in order that her place may be supplied by a more efficient vessel.

2. As I have communications of some importance to forward to Bahrein, it will be advisable that you should visit that Island in the course of your approaching Couzo I would prefer your doing so on your way down. provided you see no objection in taking the "Euphrates" along with you; but if under all the circumstances you consider this to be advisable, the letters above referred to may be conveyed to Bahrein on your return to this station, which, if possible, should not be delayed beyond

At any rate if that interference should in the sequel be found to be necessary, it can be more conveniently exerted at the period when the Commissioners entrusted with the demarcation of the Turco-Persian frontiers, and who are now on their way from Constantinople, may rendezvous at Bassorah, and when a concentration of force and an identity of purpose will facilitate the settlement of all questions in which the rights and interests of the several parties may be concerned I shall have the honor to address you again upon this subject, and in the mean time.
